IMPORTANT TO THE TRAVELING PUBLIC.—It is the duty of all persons before starting on a journey to ascertain by what route they can reach their destination with the least trouble, and if there are two or more roads leading to the same point, to decide which is the safest and pleasantest to travel.

We take pleasure in stating, that the CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY is the oldest, and several past two years the road best kept in admirable condition, and almost the entire line has been track-laid with steel rails.

The Depot in Chicago is centrally located, and as their trains arrive there thirty minutes in advance of the shortest route between Omaha and Chicago. Within the range of all other lines, passengers can always be sure of making Eastern connections.

Close connections are made at Chicago with the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, Michigan Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Pittsburgh,

The Deseret News Semi-Weekly

For April 3 will be ready in the morning. It contains a large amount of news and other interesting reading. Annual subscription, $1.25, postage included.

Concert—The concert to be given by Mr. Joseph J. Daynes, at the 20th Ward School-house, will come off to-morrow night. Those who can help to make it a success, by the aid of a musical character can be delighted by attending that. The pieces are well selected and in excellent hands for effective rendition.

Considerably "Mormon."—Geo. Reynolds, tried under indictment for polygamy, is a "Mormon," he was convicted on "Mormon" evidence, and two-thirds of the jury who returned the verdict were "Mormons." The talk about "Mormons" refusing to come to the law under the law, when the law and evidence are conclusive, is the sheerest nonsense.

Garrotted and Robbed.—Last night Mr. J. B. Kinney was walking down First East Street, near the Blythe corner, when he was approached by a couple of men, one of whom threw his arm around his neck, placed his knee in the small of his back and drew him over backwards. Mr. Kinney was about to call for help, when the second man who held him struck him a sharp blow on the upper part of the forehead, which put a temporary quiescent upon him. While Mr. Kinney was held by the larger of the two rascals, the smaller one rifled his pockets, taking from them a buckskin purse or wallet, containing about $185, after which the two garroters ran off.

Mr. Kinney subsequently informed the police of the circumstance, but as he could give no description of the robbers, on account of being in a state of bewilderment at the time of the robbery, no clue has yet been found to them.

Mr. Kinney states that one of the robbers had a knife in his hand, and it was probably with the end of the handle of that weapon that he was struck.

A perfect cure for the garrotting disease was discovered in London, England, some time back. They don't have any garroters there now, the cure proved so perfect.

Polygamy Case of Hon. Geo. C. Cannon Dismissed.—At ten o'clock this morning the case of the "People of the United States, etc., vs. George C. Cannon, indicted for polygamy, was called, the respondent being present in person and by his counsel, Messrs. Sutherland & Bates.

Mr. Bates presented the following plea—

"United States of America, Territory of Utah, Third Judicial District.

"The United States" Indictment vs. Geo. C. Cannon. Polygamy.

"1. And the said Geo. C. Cannon, in his own proper person, cometh into Court, and having been arraigned and heard the said indictment read, saith—

"That the United States ought not further to prosecute the said indictment against him, because he saith—

"That he did not unlawfully marry and take to his wife one Sarah Jane Jenny, in manner and form as set forth in the first count of said indictment, within two years next before the presentment and filing of said indictment in this Court; and this he is ready to verify. Wherefore he prays judgment and that by the Court he may be dismissed and discharged from the said premises in said indictment specified.

"2. And for a further plea in his own proper person to the second count in said indictment, he saith—

"That the United States ought not further to prosecute said indictment against him, because he saith that he did not unlawfully marry and take to his wife one Martha Zella, in manner and form as set forth in said second count of said indictment, within two years next before the presentment and filing of said indictment; and this he, the said defendant, is ready to verify. Wherefore he prays judgment and that by the Court he may be dismissed and discharged from the said premises in said second count of said indictment specified.

"3. And for a further plea, the said defendant cometh into Court, and having been duly arraigned and heard the indictment read, saith—

"That he is 'Not Guilty' in manner and form as charged in said indictment, and of this he puts himself upon the country, April 2nd, 1875.

"SUTHERLAND & BATES,
Att'ys for Defendant."

The District Attorney entered a demurrer to the plea, stating at the same time, that he did not expect to prove that any of the marriages charged in the indictment had been contracted by the defendant within two years previous to the finding of the indictment, but there was a question as to whether the statute on polygamy did not include the living and cohabiting together.

The court asked the District Attorney if he could cite any authorities on the subject, but he could only produce one, which, however, had no bearing on the present issue; in that instance the statute expressly made it a crime for parties forming a bigamous marriage relationship to subsequently live and cohabit together, which was not the case in the statute bearing on the present case.

The court said he must hold the plea to be good, as from all the authorities he had examined he was led to the conclusion that it was the act of consummating the second, or other marriage subsequent to the first, that constituted the offense according to the statute, and that parties could not be punished for subsequently living and cohabiting together unless the statute made it a crime. The demurrer was therefore overruled, the present case being barred by the U. S. statute of limitations.

At the suggestion of Mr. Bates, the District Attorney asked the Court to note an exception to the ruling, that the point might be tried in the Supreme Court of the Territory.

Correspondence.

Apologetic.

SALT LAKE CITY, April 2, 1875.

Editor Deseret News:

Vindex begs leave to say that he sincerely regrets that his remarks in yesterday's News should have excited "Sig. Rappe" to such an extent that he had to take a drink of water, as it has apparently disagreed with him. "Sig." poor fellow, is evidently unaccustomed to that sort of thing. From the exact liad on his communication, many of his friends thought he must have taken milk and water, or at least very soft water; but perhaps it was the "kick" of "all fools' day" when he wrote it.

Your correspondent did think of answering, but it always strains him to kick at nothing. VINDEX.

School Jubilee.

BIRMGHAM CITY, March 30th, 1875.

Editor Deseret News:

At a m. of the 26th inst. the juveniles of our lovely City, together with some of their parents, and the pupils of the adjacent settlement, in all about 700 persons, met in our public hall, which was nicely decorated with evergreens, beautiful portraits of our worthy Pres., Brigham Young and Council, large mirrors, and beautiful pictures pendant on the walls. Everything was tastefully arranged for the occasion by our decorating committee.

At half past nine, order was called, when the opening hymn was sung by the school, under the leadership of S. N. Lee. Prayer by the chaplain, A. Madson, when the Sunday school choir sang "Our Sabbath Home." Our sup't. J. C. Wikom, delivered the opening address. The rest of the day exercises, which lasted until 4 p.m., less an hour at noon to refresh the inner man, consisted of recitations, dialogues, stump speeches, etc., selected with care from good books by our managing committee, J. C. Wikom, Henry C. Kelley and T. H. Wilde, interspersed with beautiful songs from members of our juvenile choir. Organ accompaniments by Mr. Minnie Snow. When the choir had sung the "World's Jubilee," President Lorenzo Snow delivered the closing address, speaking words of encouragement and expressing himself happily surprised at the creditable manner in which the children acquitted themselves of their tasks. After the school sang, "Tis Our Own Sunday School," and benediction by the chaplain, all dispersed, expressing themselves more than satisfied with the exercises.

At 7 p.m. the doors of the Theatre were opened to admit of all who had attended regularly at the school, when the "Idiot Witness" was rendered in a creditable manner by the Juvenile Dramatic Company. The regular company concluded the entertainment with the farce of "The Spectre Bridegroom."

THOMAS H. WILDE, Secretary.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

From the Washington Star, March 26—

Attorney General Williams decides that Indians charged with murder can't be tried by military commission.

Secretary Bristow was at the Treasury department to-day. He decided not to employ any of the candidates resigning. He says he went to New York to consult a physician concerning his health and without any reference even in a remote degree to his prospective movements.

Ex-Senator Chandler was met in one of the corridors of the Treasury department by this morning's collector (better known as Tom) Murphy, of New York City.

"Well," said Murphy to the ex-senator, "you are both out of public office now; what do you propose to do?" "Well," replied Chandler, "I have been in training for the past ten days, and I am now so far advanced that I can eat blubber."

From the Washington Star, March 27—

Three Winnebago chiefs, representing their tribe residing in Wisconsin, are here to confer with the President, with a view to obtaining a dissolution of their tribal relations, in order that they may be admitted to citizenship.

It is probable that sometime next week there will be a spelling match extraordinary at Lincoln Hall, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association. The organization of the affair will include some of our most prominent people, both in political and social life. Further details will be announced as soon as arranged.

The salary of Gen. Baker, Commissioner of Pensions, recently nominated and confirmed, as successor of General Sherman, is $2,000 a year. His salary as Commissioner of Pensions is $3,000. There are no legitimate emoluments connected with the office of pension agent, as it is well understood that the incumbent of the office can, if he is so disposed, make his office a source of profit, since his private affairs will enable him to buy and sell advantageously.
