

FROM A PRISONER FOR CON-SCIENCE' SAKE.BROTHER KEMPE, OF ARIZONA, IM-PRISONED IN DETROIT, MI-CHIGAN.HOUSE OF CORRECTION.
Detroit, Michigan.
February 21st, 1886.

Editor Deseret News:

Since writing my last we have received many kind and encouraging letters, for which we are greatly thankful, as also for papers, books and comforts of life furnished to us and our families which I feel we can hardly fully appreciate. At present we are all well, but all of us have had quite a spell of bad colds, a little mixed with the blues, from the fact that

JUSTICE SEEMS COMPLETELY DENIED by the courts of the country, while our innocent suffering children at home are crying on their sickbeds: "Papa, papa! Why don't you come to help me?" To reflect on these things is truly heartrending, but yet at the same time it is a joy and a satisfaction to us to know that we have been deemed worthy to suffer as martyrs for the Gospel's sake and called to make a link in the record of the fearful history that on the day of judgment will stand against this nation. I feel that though this disgusting prison life is hard to bear, yet this unmerciful crusade is certainly

A GREAT BLESSING.

to the Saints in general, for while our minds in the past as well as almost our entire interest and effort has tended to gather around us the comforts of life and letting the work of God take care of itself, this persecution and crucifixion is working up even some of the most dormant and inactive to a sense of their duty, and whenever the slow but sure travel of the truth as to the horribly cruel injustice that has been perpetrated upon us here, upon Hon.
Lorenzo Snow and many others of the Saints, and the nation get their eyes opened to see the wholesale robbery contemplated in the new Edmunds bill they must certainly wonder and ask, "Is this the enlightened age of the 19th century?"

I often wonder what the feelings of the great and noble heroes who framed the Constitution of this country would have been had they known that in the space of but 100 years it would be trampled under foot by men calling themselves Americans, and yet so it is.
Religious liberty is a thing of the past; hard earned property of a religious organization can be robbed by government itself; sacred and holy contracts and covenants can be compelled to be broken by wholesale and all rights and privileges dear to every lover of freedom and liberty can be swept away by the most unprincipled demagogues that ever disgraced this fair land.

To me the signs of the times are very significant and truly a cause of joy. It seems apparent that even the most skeptical observer cannot fail to see the hand of God made manifest.
For years we have expected

GREAT TRIALS FOR THE SAINTS to pass through, even so as to entirely put in the shade the persecutions of Ohio, Missouri and Illinois, and in reading the Doctrine and Covenants, page 265, I find the Lord says: "Therefore, I will raise up unto my people a man who shall lead them like as Moses led the children of Israel. For ye are the children of Israel and of the seed of Abraham, and ye must needs be led out of bondage by power and with a stretched-out arm."

To me it seems very plain that we cannot be led out of bondage except by our first being brought into it. I only feel to say: "Let God hasten his enemies onward; we know the consequence and fear not; our bodies are all they can torture and soon our spirits shall throw them off like an old garment, and we shall go where the minions of hell will have power no more forever."

It is truly painful to us to think that our beloved brother and President, Geo. Q. Cannon, has been arrested; but how fallacious is the idea of our enemies to even hope that we shall give up our faith because the Presidency or the Twelve Apostles are taken away from us. If I had not known what is called "Mormonism" to be the work of God, I should not be a prisoner to-day; neither would I be found fool enough to labor early and late for the support and education of thirteen children did I not know that celestial marriage was a command of heaven. But not only do I know it, but every true and faithful Latter-day Saint knows it. Every man or woman, either old or young, who is pure and undefiled from adultery, whoredom and lust, knows individually that this is the kingdom of God, even the little stone of Daniel, the stone the builders have rejected, but which will yet become the chief corner stone. Had we been dependent on man, our faith would have vanished long ago, but, my dear brethren and sisters in the faith, though to-day millions of people are inclined to taunt us for our lack of ability to help ourselves even as the robber who was crucified beside the Son of God Himself, yet we shall one day stand triumphant where wicked mockers nor mobbers can disturb; and when Socialism and internal strife has crushed out the last vestige of civil rule we shall continue to maintain the stars and stripes, and support in its original purity, the glorious Constitution of our country. Soliciting correspondence from all kind friends, I remain sincerely, your brother in Christ,

CHAS. I. KEMPE.

A desperate attack was made by Armies yesterday on the navies working on the Turkish railways near Vranja.
Several engineers and 30 workmen were killed.

Prince Bismarck, who has been suffering for several days from muscular rheumatism in the shoulders and chest, was much worse to-day. His illness was so troublesome last week that he felt compelled to send two apologues for not being able to attend the preliminary debates in the Reichstag. It is announced this evening that the Chancellor's rheumatism has extended and become very severe.

The city election to-day at Oakland, for mayor, city attorney, superintendent of schools and city marshal, resulted in a complete victory for the republican candidates. E. W. Phayter, the republican candidate for mayor, received 2,908 votes to 2,675 for John Hackett (democrat).

The railroad committee which has been investigating the methods by which the franchise of the Roadway Surface Railroad of New York City was obtained, to-day made its preliminary report to the Senate. The committee are unanimously of the opinion that the franchise was procured from the Board of Aldermen of the City of New York by bribery and corruption, and urge that swift and summary justice be meted out to the guilty parties, and also that the fruits of their criminality be taken from them. The committee suggests four bills designed to restore the franchise and property to the rightful owners.

OBITUARY.

Died, at his residence in Farmington, Davis Co., March 7, 1886, of heart disease, Job Welling, born Jan. 9, 1833, at Audum, Cheshire, England. He came to Utah in the first handcart company that arrived in the valley, in September, 1853. He moved to Farmington shortly after, where he has resided until his demise.

Before coming to Utah he labored diligently in the ministry, and was a faithful Elder. In Farmington he was identified with many prominent movements for the public interest. He filled a mission to Australia and involved himself financially to a considerable extent in performing it.
He was a member of the old Farmington choir and brass band, a Teacher of the Ward for many years, a hard worker for an honest living, and a public-spirited citizen. He was a Counselor to Bishop Hess, and subsequently to the President of the High Priests' Quorum, and was highly esteemed for his excellent qualities and unswerving integrity.

He sat up until, after 12 o'clock Saturday night, preparing some theological exercises for the Sabbath School in which he was a teacher. He awoke on Sunday morning about 6 o'clock, apparently in his usual health, and talked cheerfully with his wife. Soon afterwards he complained of a singular feeling, a sort of faintness, and lay down in bed again. His wife in the meantime busied herself about her household duties, and going into the room where her husband lay at 7 o'clock, found him dead. He has been afflicted for a few years past with heart disease, and has often expressed himself that he would die suddenly.
He leaves 21 children. His first wife died some years ago.

Funeral on Tuesday at 11 a.m. in meeting house at Farmington.
