HITCH IN THE ARRANGEMENTS.

East and Westbound Trains Scheduled To Meet in Salt Lake City-No Explanations Forthcoming.

The Los Angeles Limited, one of the finest trains ever put on a transcontipental run, should have arrived over the Salt Lake Route from Los Angeles on the one side and from Chicago on the other, today, May 1. But it has BRAVE BRAKEMAN. William Weilley Saves Life of Child In Short Line Yards.

William Weilley, a brakeman on the Oregon Short Line, last evening displayed the characteristics of a hero. He rescued a little child from being run over by a work train in the Short Line yards, imminently at the risk of his own life. The child, who was about eight years old, was standing on a track, watching an incoming train from Garfield, and did not notice the approach of a work train on the track approach of a work train on the track on which he was standing. Wellley was hanging on the back of the work train, and when within five feet of the train, and when within live feet of the child, he jumped from the end of the train and knocked the child off the track and scrambled off himself, just escaping the heavy wheels of the gravel

SHORT LINE DEPOT. Work is to be Pushed, Reports to Contrary Notwithstanding. Reports to the contrary notwith-standing, work is still progressing to-ward the construction of the Oregon Short Line passenger depot in this city. The chief difficulty experienced by the ompany in pushing construction works the fact that it is next to impossible to secure a sufficient number of ble to secure a sufficient number of men for the job.

The statement was made today in General Manager Bancroft's office that railroads, street railways, irrigation projects, public and private buildings and other enterprises in the west and northwest have created such a demand for men that it is extremely difficult to procure labor for any large project. The Short Line company had an agreement for 100 men to go to work on the denot site and they now acon the depot site, and they now accusally have a fight on their hands to get them, as various labor agencies stap men up on sight.

It is not the intention of the railroad company to delay work on its new passenger station, but on the contrary, to push the same as rapidly as possible.

INVOKE COMMISSION'S AID. Lumber Manufacturers of Northwest Want Through Rates.

Washington, April 30.—Rivairy between the Hill and Harriman railroad lines in the northwest has culminated in the presentation of the matter to the in the presentation of the matter to the interstate commerce commission. For several months lumber dealers and manufacturers in Washington particularly and in the Puget Sound territory generally have complained informally to the commission that, owing to the refusal of the Hill and Harriman lines ternsal of the Hill and Harriman lines to make them through rates and joint rates, they were unable to get their poducts shipped to points east of the Cascade mountains. Finally it was suggested that they institute proceedings under the new rate law to compet the rallroads to make such through rates and joint rates. In compliance with the rallroads to make such through rates and joint rates. In compliance with the suggestion the Pacific Coast Lumber Manufacturers' association, the Southwestern Washington Lumber association and the single mills bureau today filed a complaint with the commission against the Northern Pacific, the Great Northern, the Southern Pacific, the Oregon Short Line and 15 other roads, requesting the commission to issue orders providing that the railroads shall make through and joint rates on lumber products from points in Washington via Portland, Or. to points east of the Cascade mountains.

Portland, Or. to points east of the Cascade mountains.

It is stated in the petition that there are 417 saw mills in western Washington, with an annual output of nearly 3,000,000,000 feet of lumber and that there are 452 shingle mills, with an annual output of more than 14,000,000,000 shingles, all of them represented by the complainants. It is alleged that there are how awaiting shipment from that territory not less than 25,000 carloads of manufactured lumber and that the annual output of such lumber from that territory in the same and that the annual output of such lumber from that territory is not less than 110,000 carloads. It is alleged that the defendant lines refuse to interchange cars at Portland, and it is thus rendered impossible to get lumber products to market.

TEST FREIGHT RATE LAW. Minnesota Railroads Claim Statute is Unconstitutional.

New York, May 1.—The Times today says that the legality of the freight rate reduction taw of Minnesota, which is to go into effect on June 1, as well as that of the two cent passenger fare law, which takes effect today, is to be tested in the courts. A report of large stockholding interests in the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, said yesterday that it was practically certain that the constitutionality of the law could be tested but that he could not say just in what way this would be done. It has not been decided, he said, whether it would be done directly by the rail-todas or through some stockholders.

PILGRIMAGE OF THE UTAH PIONEERS SIXTY YEARS AGO TODAY.

SATURDAY, MAY 1, 1847.

The morning of this day was very cold in the pioneer camp, and there was but little grass for the animals. The camp broke up at 5:40 a. m., and traveled six miles before breakfast. Large herds of buffalo were seen and some of the hunters gave chase for the purpose of killing some of them, but were not successful at first. These were the first buffaloes seen on the journey; and as most of the men had never seen these animals before, they excited considerable interest and pleasure. The company stopped for brekafast close to Grand Island. In the afternoon the hunters succeeded in killing 10 buffaloes (one buil, three cows and six calves). This gave a very bounifful supply of meat, which was cut up into quarters and distributed among the respective companies. This day the habitations of thousands of prairie dogs were encountered, the animals living in regular dog towns, some of which covered several square miles of ground.
