

WILLE-SCHRECK FIGHT TONIGHT.

Big Fellow Are Ready for Clang of the Gong at the Salt Palace.

SILER WILL BE THE REFEREE

Decided Last Night to be the Third
Man in the Ring—Selection is A Popular One.

Billy Hogan, manager for Mike Schreck, said to the "News" sporting editor this morning: "Schreck will win, and I am firmly of the belief that he will do so inside the limit. He is clever and heady enough to outsmart and outlast Wille, although the latter is a tough fellow. Mike was never in better shape in his ring career, and I am not alone in the opinion that he has it all the big fellows. I feel certain that we will win in tonight's contest."

Manager Curley for Wille: "We will get the longer end of the purse at the end of tonight's session. Wille has never been knocked down. He will carry on until he is knocked down. He will carry on until he is knocked down. Wille is in fine shape, strong and rugged and game to the teeth. Put your spare change on John."

MANAGER BEAN'S STATEMENT.

Manager Bean: "I have gone to great expense to get this contest, which, in my opinion, is the most important we have had here for many years. It will direct bearing upon the heavyweight championship because we have two men in fine fettle who have done everything to make the show a success. The preliminaries will be about the heat we ever had between George S. S. and myself. The man who will win will get a square deal and the best men will win. The only thing I hope for now is good weather and a big crowd."

SILER WILL REFEREE.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

There is a chance that Sier will referee the fight at the coming fight. He smiled and said: "Search me! This is a fight that I am unable to figure out. Britt may be clever enough to hold Nelson off and get him from the ring, but Britt may be able to carry the trouble to Britt in sufficient quantity as to make him the winner. I don't know; I wouldn't venture a guess. I am not a gambler. I will now hold out for Sier, and the latter, my officials."

This inciting the "News" asked Curley for the reason of the coming fight. He smiled and said: "Search me! There is a fight that I am unable to figure out. Britt may be clever enough to hold Nelson off and get him from the ring, but Britt may be able to carry the trouble to Britt in sufficient quantity as to make him the winner. I don't know; I wouldn't venture a guess. I am not a gambler. I will now hold out for Sier, and the latter, my officials."

CURLEY AND SCHRECK TALK.

An amusing little incident happened last night between Wille's manager, Curley, and Mike Schreck. The former offered to bet $1000 that Britt would not be knocked out. Johnnie Hogan, facing the $1000 bet, said: "The bet was not made. Then Curley said:

"Well, what will be knocked out?"

"I think he will be," said Schreck.

"He never has been," said Curley.

"That's no indication that he never will be," said Schreck.

"There isn't a man in the world who can knock out Wille," declares Curley.

"He hasn't fought all the men in the world," says Schreck, with a significant smile and a cast of the head. Then the discussion ended.

CRICKET AT OGDEN.

Salt Lake Eleven Won an Easy Victory
Yesterday.

The Salt Lake cricket eleven went to Ogden yesterday and played the rubber game with the English exponents in that city at Liberty Park. The result was that Salt Lake carried all before them, almost upon a three-to-one basis. It was the first time that the team of Davis and Saunders, "Ogden's boys," was a "puddin'" for the visitors, who scored at will. Every man on the team contributed to the victory, and the running would not probably have been dimmed in time to catch the train home. For four men to have run out in an English eleven there was something rotten in Denmark. As for Ogden, they put on every available man to bowl and only when a 14-year-old lad undertook to bowl with the old man himself.

The game was under way by 10:30 A.M. Rev. Peter Simpkin of Salt Lake and Mr. Burton of Ogden, who had a lovely time, the players arguing and declaiming, which is not cricket. To the surprise of everyone, however, the unpriced play no favor, this, although in two cases the batsmen may have been given the benefit of the doubt.

The Ogden boys took their defeat with becoming grace and gave the visitors a very good time, which included a lunch at a downtown restaurant.

The feature of the game, aside from the bowlers of Salt Lake, was the wicket keeping of Bill Williams, who made 2 runs out of 3. For Ogden Shipley made the best showing, but Wilson and McPherson, the two "newcomers" of the eleven, went glimmering before the shooch of the doughty Davis.

The official score shows that everybody was safe except Wilson, who was not the case, as far as Ogden was concerned, for two men were caught out. It was as follows:

SALT LAKE.

Jones, b. Wilson ..... 11
Hodge, run out ..... 11
Frederick, run out ..... 11
Saunders, b. Wilson ..... 11
Williams, b. Wilson ..... 11
Davis, b. Wilson ..... 11
Mortis, run out ..... 11
Howker, b. Wilson ..... 11
Walters, not out ..... 11
Meadley, b. Buckley ..... 11
Total ..... 36

CONTAGIOUS BLOOD POISON

Contagious Blood Poison more thoroughly poisons the blood than any other disease. Every part of the body is affected when the virus becomes entrenched in the circulation; red eruptions break out on the skin, the mouth and throat ulcerate, glands in the neck and groins swell, the hair falls out, copper-colored splotches appear on the body, etc.

HORSE RACES AT CALDER'S PARK.

Ponies Had to Gallop in a Sea of Mud — Program Not Finished.

ARGOT FOOLED THE BUNCH

By Getting Away With Dr. Tom and Red Damsel in Five-Eighths of a Mile Dash.

Rain prevented the running of the full program of horse races arranged by the city and county folks down at Calder's Park yesterday afternoon.

The event between Argot, Dr. Tom and Red Damsel, was run while rain came down in torrents. Argot took the lead at the drop of the flag and simply kept on going and was never headed until after the wire was passed. Horses and jockeys presented a sorry sight as they were covered with mud.

In the first race on the program Fleetaway carried off the honors in straight heats. She simply outclassed all competitors.

The starter had a hard job in getting the 250 event off. Howe, driver of the car, caused a wrangle because he used a wooden mallet after the race was started. The race was won by Dr. Tom.

It was only one heat to the race because of the rain.

The summary follows:

Fleetaway, 250 trot and pace ..... 1
McCartney, not out ..... 1
Total ..... 3

SALT LAKE, I. RANGERS 0,

Was the Final Outcome of Yesterday's Association Football.

The opening of the association football season was attended with unfavorable conditions. The first game between horses upset the preconceived intentions of the players, making it almost impossible for them to control the ball, and Kain held away for the greater part of the game.

Fourth race, one-half mile, country horses, 250 trot and pace ..... 1
Second race, country horses, 250 trot and pace ..... 1
Sammy, Jones ..... 1
F. B. Reed ..... 1
Denzil, J. Birch ..... 1
Times, 2:30.

The summary follows:

Fleetaway, 250 trot and pace ..... 1
Eustace, J. McComas up, third ..... 1
Byrnes, not out ..... 1
Total ..... 3

GEORGE SIER REFERRED.

There is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today. No one questions his ability or honesty, and there was a sigh of relief when he announced his intention to be the third man in the ring in to-night's big Queenbury debate.

George Sier, referred to there is magic in that name. The noted writer and arbiter in the game field, has known and observed the greatest contests, and has refereed manyights, probably, than any other man in the world today