

ADVICE TO YOUNG LADIES.

Dear girls, I like to hear you talk
About your pleasures, wants, and woes;
But wish, when out with me you walk,
You made less noise about your beaux.

In waving knots, man-traps, and chains,
For husband-hunting all excel;
Such open war and desperate pains
Must frighten more than I can tell.
You all admire my fiancée,
And marvel how I charm'd the man
Whom all in vain had sought to slay—
I won him, girls, without a plan.

I dwell within a secret bower,
Where fops of fashion seldom come;
It blooms with many a lovely flower,
By honest people call'd "Sweet Home."
I kept a little page, call'd Pride,
A clever lad, who could discover
A vain pretender at my side,
Or at a glance a genuine lover.

My lady's maid was Modesty—
I had her from a country place;
She had been taught to make you see,
A bonnet that would shade my face.
Miss A-la-mode engaged her once—
A dickle, barfaced belle of fashion,
Who, after having call'd her dunce,
Discharged her in a fit of passion.

She really was an honest girl,
And scorn'd with paint to feign a beauty;
To smear my face with powder pearl
She deem'd no portion of her duty.
My coachman was bluff Harry Health;
He drove me early round the park,
But grumbled if with folks of wealth
I wish'd to ramble after dark.

To midnight routs, to plays and balls,
He had a terrible objection;
He said they hinder'd morning calls,
And dimm'd my fine and clear complexion.
My dear companion, neat and good,
Beloved by all, was Industry;
Though poor, she came of noble blood,
And claim'd descent from Piety.

With dusting-brush about the house—
In this room, that room, in and out,
She frightened every fly and mouse,
Who wonder'd what she was about.
If she glanced in a mirror, straight,
Its polish'd surface beam'd with light;
'Twas just the same with pictures, plate—
Like Spring, what'er she touch'd look'd bright.

These were the only arts I used;
So, ladies, if you like the plan,
Just do the same—you look amused!
Yet each might win a nice young man.

HERDING! HERDING!
THE undersigned take this method of announcing to the citizens of Great Salt Lake, Davis, and Weber counties, that we are making extensive arrangements for herding STOCK, on the West side of BEAR RIVER, in Weber County, near the mouth of the Malad, where the range is unsurpassed by any in this Territory.
We will take Stock to herd at the rate of a cent and a half per day each head, and pay all damages accruing to owners through our negligence; and for the benefit of those residing in this County and the Settlements north, we propose to receive stock at the Stray Pound in G. S.
L. City, on the first Monday of every month, commencing the 6th of August; at Sessions' Settlement on Tuesdays, at East Weber on Wednesdays, and at Ogden City on Thursdays following, without any extra charge for driving to the herd ground.
N.B. Sheep taken on shares, as may be agreed upon by the parties.
20-6m. W. E. HORNER,
E. K. HANKS.

HELLOW EVERYBODY
THAT lives in Great Salt Lake, Davis, and Weber counties, now is your time to have your oxen, cows, and young stock taken good care of this winter.
The undersigned takes this method of announcing to the citizens of Great Salt Lake county, and other counties joining on the north, that we have taken up an excellent herd ground in Weber county, 3 miles west of Brigham City, on the west side of Bear river, near the mouth of the Malad, running north as far as the emigration road, and west as far as the Salt Lake, and south as far as where Bear river empties into said lake; this herd ground cannot be beat in any part of the Territory of Utah, for the abundance of good grass and good advantages for water.
We will take stock to herd at the enormous rate of one cent per day each head, and bind ourselves to pay all damages accruing to owners through our negligenc. We will receive stock at the Union square in Great Salt Lake City, near the Union Hotel, on the first and fifteenth of every month; at Sessions' settlement and Farmington, in the main road, on the second and sixteenth; and at Ogden City on the third and seventeenth or every month; the said stock will be driven carefully to the herd ground without any further expense to the owners.
N. B. No stock goes out of our possession in the spring
until the herd bill is paid.
