NEWSPAPER CHANGES

Occur on Intermountain Republican Which is to Have New Manager.

A. E. Blunck, president and general manager of the Inter-Mountain Republican; has severed his connection with the paper and sold his controlling interest to a syndicate comprised of prominent Republicans of this state. Mr. Blunck retired last evening and the office was temporarily turned over to Adoiphus Amierson, bookkceper in the bustness office. This afternoon a meeting is in session at which are present some of the members of the syndicate including C. E. Loose, Messrs J. H. Anderson, Ed. Callister and William Spry. At this meeting, it is ex-pected that a business manager will be named and the future policy of the paper outlined.

desire to fully his stock into cash and return to Johnstown, N. Y., whence he came last fall. When seen this moving Mr. Blunck safd: "I have sold out my interest in the paper and myself and bourd of directors part the best of friends. I have had con-siderable money tied up in this paper, and I feel that I can make better use of it elsewhere than here." Mr.s Booth, who will undoubtedly be elected this afternoon as president of the mew hoard of directors, said: "It is true trat Mr. Blunck has sold out. He made us a proposition and we accepted it at his figures. His health has not been the best of late and the nervous strain at-condant upon the work of starting up a mew paper has brought him to such a pitch that it is impossible for him to get sufficient sleep in this altitude. The deal is satisfactory to both sides, and that is all there is to it."

"HOT IRON" FAKE.

How it is Being Worked Among Unsuspecting Women in Salt Lake.

Police officers are now making efforts to locate and arrest a man who represents himself to be the agent of a company selling so-called "self-heating irons." The fellow has been successful in swindling several women of this city, and one of them, Mrs. Frank Balley, 165 north First West street, has sent a communication to Chief of Po-lice Sheets, asking the latter to take some measures to place the "agent" where he will be unable to impose upon people. According to the information received this morning at police headquarters, the "agent" has been going about town
