

was that of Miss Le Pele Hach and the ceremony being performed by the Rev. J. E. Carver and the groom. During the ceremony Miss Hirst played variations of Mid-Summer Night's Dream.

The bride wore a gown of cream mossaline silk, trimmed with real Irish lace; she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. Mr. and Mrs. Tye left on the midnight train for a wedding trip and will be at home at 708 Washington street, Boise, Idaho, after Feb. 1.

Mr. Tye, now a well known attorney of Boise, was the first city editor of the Morning Examiner. Mrs. Tye is well known in Ogden social and musical circles.

Miss Bessie Larkins of Kayaville, visited in Ogden this week, the guest of Miss Ellen Larkin.

J. S. Zeller of Pittsburg, is visiting in Ogden with his brother, W. D. Zeller.

Miss Marion Oberdoerfer, of Salt Lake is visiting in Ogden, the guest of Miss Margaret Armstrong.

Mrs. Lucile Y. Thatcher entertained at a pleasant family dinner party on Monday evening last.

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. V. McLaughlin entertained a number of friends very pleasantly at cards.

Two enjoyable social affairs of the week were the dancing parties given in the pavilion on New Year's eve and New Year's night.

The Misses Ray Campbell and Genevieve Thatcher spent the holidays in Salt Lake as the guests of Mrs. Grace Woolley.

Miss Nellie Parkinson, who is spending the winter in Provo, came home for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Walt Pyper have returned home after a pleasant visit to Logan.

Mr. Barker Preston spent several days of the week in Salt Lake.

Prof. Thomas McKay of Ogden spent New Year's with Logan friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Nibley spent Christmas with Mr. Nibley's mother in Logan.

Bishop C. W. Nibley was a visitor for New Year's day.

Miss Afton Thatcher has returned from a pleasant visit to Meachem, Or., where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Nibley, Jr.

Miss Josie Yates spent part of the holidays with Ogden friends.

Mr. Frank W. Jennings was a business visitor during the week.

Miss Carrie McAllister is visiting with friends in Salt Lake.

Miss Nan Nibley visited with friends in Brigham City and Salt Lake this week.

Mr. Hirsch Bullen and Prof. J. T. Caine, Jr., are in Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. August Hansen are visiting with relatives and friends in Salt Lake.

Mrs. Florence S. Thatcher was the guest of her kindred in Salt Lake this week.

EUREKA.

Eureka lodge of Odd Fellows and Columbian lodge No. 2 of Rebekahs gave a social Wednesday evening in the I. O. O. F. hall, to Provo and Robinson Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, together with many other visitors and friends.

An excursion was run from Provo and intermediate points, arriving here about noon on Wednesday. At 2 o'clock in the evening the following program was given for the benefit of the visitors: Music by the orchestra; introductory remarks by Charles Hurst, N. G., of Eureka lodge; prayer, Rev. S. Allison; opening ode, audience; address, "Fraternity," Prof. H. S. Baker; quartet, "Softly the Night Winds," Mrs. Thurmond, Mrs. Zariskie, Messrs. Phillips and Weaver; "Friendship, Love and Truth," Myrtle Ivey, Minnie Allcock and Mattie Mitchell; bass solo, Joseph Phillips; recitation, "Three Wise Men," Mrs. Trolgar; remarks, "I. O. O. F. in Utah," Eph. Homer, P. G. M. of Provo; instrumental solo, Miss Ruby Phillips; solo, "Love Me and the World Is Mine," Miss Genevieve Sullivan; address, "The Three Links," Rev. C. C. Sullivan; quartet, "Good Night," Mrs. Zariskie, Mrs. Thurmond, Messrs. Phillips and Weaver. After this an elegant banquet was spread upstairs, followed by dancing. The affair was one of the social events of the season.

The local lodge of Eagles held an initiation Monday night, after which the members enjoyed a social session in their lodge rooms. The program included musical numbers, short speeches, and refreshments.

Miss Bessie Betrell of Eureka and Mr. Charles Kelly of American Fork were united in marriage at Provo last week. The couple returned to American Fork where they were given a reception at the home of the groom's parents. Tables were spread and an elaborate wedding supper served. The couple will make their home in American Fork.

Eddie Sutherland, who has been attending the University of Utah, is home for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Sutherland.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hanks of Salem, former residents of this city, were here this week visiting their son and daughter.

Mrs. Pat Condon of Salt Lake was the guest of her sister, Mrs. George Jones of Robinson, this week.

Mrs. Frank Theriot was entertaining her friends, Mrs. Barnes of Salt Lake, this week.

John H. McChrystal was out from

LEHI.

New Year's was spent very quietly here, family parties being the order of the day.

A special New Year's eve hall was given in the City pavilion which was largely attended and much enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Carter of Salt Lake City spent New Year's with Mr. and Mrs. John Y. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Wells spent New Year's with Salt Lake relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Earl of Eureka are visiting Lehi relatives and friends.

According to Mr. Hall Caine the natural tendency of criticism is to assume that if a book is popular it is bad, and that it is usually bad in the degree in which it is popular. The novelist inveighs against this "false statement and illogical inference." It is based on a contempt for the public judgment and the critics who make it are apparently neither afraid nor ashamed to insult the people for whom they write. But their courage or their conceit is generally not so remarkable as their poverty of intellect, their want of logic, and the general inconsistency of their own conduct.

Mr. Hall Caine impeaches criticism on the ground of its anonymity. The agony suffered by Keats might have been less if he had known and if the public had known that the purblind person who described "Endymion" in "Blackwood" as "a young, staid, imperious, drivelling idiot" was merely a political and literary enemy of Leigh Hunt, and that he was being whipped as the stalking horse of his friend, the poet of Coleridge might have been sensibly diminished if he had been told that the mulish blunderer who described "Christabel" in the "Edinburgh" as "one of the most notable pieces of impertinence of which the press has lately been guilty" was a former friend made blind by bad passions.

Finally, we are told that "the critics, with notable exceptions, have been either the young writers who have not had time, or the old ones who have not had talent, to succeed as authors."

As for himself, Mr. Hall Caine says in conclusion, "I am not an author with a grievance."

RENT VALUES IN ST. GALL, SWITZERLAND.

House and rent values here are dependent on the prosperity of the export trade. Within eight years these have risen, according to the convenience of their situation for business, 40 to 100 per cent. The United States government now pays $800 rent for rooms which, although not in the business center, eight years ago cost $500. Exports to the United States of over $12,000,000, as compared with about $4,000,000 four years ago, explain the prosperity mentioned and account for the present almost mushroom growth of St. Gall. Buildings are going up everywhere, the population is increasing and demand for dwellings, or rather quarters or flats, so far outruns the supply that at present buildings not yet started are completely rented for occupancy upon completion next year. Incidentally, exclusive of the rent question, St. Gall is the most expensive residence city in Switzerland, which, in view of the standard fixed in the Republic's cities to some extent by the liberality of extravagance of tourists, is saying a great deal. It might be also interesting to note that there are no single or detached houses for rent to one family. Only under exceptional circumstances, and at enormous rental, can such premises be secured.

The usual form, from which there are few variations, is a three or four story structure, with a flat or complete premises for one family upon each floor, each flat having assigned rooms in the attic for servants and boxes and a cellar for fuel and stores, and each having a right to specific use of wash and ironing rooms in the basement. There are no housekeepers, as usual elsewhere on the continent, where the middle or better class of such houses now going up, each flat has also bath with instantaneous heater, an independent hot water heating apparatus for living rooms, kitchen gas stove, shelving, closets, etc., all furnished by landlord. Such flats of, say, from five to 12 rooms, rent according to location size and character of finishing, from $450 to $1,500. Above this maximum in renting property are only to be found special cases, while below it range all grades of tenements.

Favorably situated building lots in the town have risen 300 per cent in value in the last two years, since which time a number of bankers and more important exporters have erected, or intend to erect, splendid buildings. This is only possible by reason of the quite enormous development of the principal industry of this place—embroidery.

and lace. Some speculators in house buying or building do so on the chance of a favorable resale. Others again, builders of large banking or business houses, give the management of the building operations into the hands of an experienced architect, paying for the latter's plans for the building and a commission of about 5 per cent of the value of the building for the entire building management. The architect trusts the execution of his plans to a master builder after examination of and agreement to his estimates of cost and erection; the architect's thus supervising authority and the master builder executive authority. In quiet business times, when the spirit of enterprise is checked and ground values are low, architect and master builder collaborate in speculative building.—Consular Report.

HOW TO AVOID PNEUMONIA.

You can avoid pneumonia and other serious results from a cold by taking Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough and clears the throat, and keeps the system as it is mildly laxative. Refuse any but the genuine in the yellow package. E. J. Hill Drug Co., "The never substitutes."

"That good Coal" $5.75 delivered $5.25 at yard. Bamberger, 161 Meighan St., U. S. A.

Plans for Rent, 23 West 1st South.

CLASSIFIED AND REGISTERED AT LLOYDS.

There is always matter of public interest in the annual report of Lloyd's Register of British and Foreign Shipping, and the story for the year ending last June is no exception to the rule. At that date no fewer than 10,281 merchant vessels, representing about 19,750,000 tons gross, held licenses assigned by the committee of Lloyd's Register. The number of new vessels classed during the twelvemonth was 750 with a registered gross tonnage of nearly 1,500,000, which constitutes a record in the history of the society. These craft included vessels of a great variety of types, chief among them being the leviathan Lusitania, about which and her sister, Mauretania, the report makes some congratulatory remarks. The tonnage in course of construction under the inspection of the society's surveyors at home and abroad on June 30 was 1,045,244, which was 145,000 tons less than on the corresponding date of 1905.

This surveying staff, which now consists of 308 officers, is scattered about the world, and includes in its duties the testing of plates, chains, anchors, etc. No fewer than 87,490 tons of ship and boiler steel, 431,282 fathoms of chain cables and 8,196 anchors were thus dealt with last year. In addition to the recognized works and public proving-houses in the United Kingdom there are 17 anchor and cable testing machines on the continent and 19 in the United States.

"It may be noted," adds the report, "that the diameter of the largest stud link chain cables tested, which were intended for the Lusitania and Mauretania, were 34 inches. The weight of each link of these cables is 34 hundredweight, and of each complete cable 124 tons. The heaviest anchor tested during the year weighed over 10 tons, and is for use on board the latter vessel."—London Chronicle.

Mr. and Mrs. James Webb of Payson, have been in Eureka the past few days visiting the family of Mr. and Mr. Alex Brown.

LEHI.

New Year's was spent very quietly here, family parties being the order of the day.

A special New Year's eve hall was given in the City pavilion which was largely attended and much enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Carter of Salt Lake City spent New Year's with Mr. and Mrs. John Y. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Wells spent New Year's with Salt Lake relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Earl of Eureka are visiting Lehi relatives and friends.

According to Mr. Hall Caine the natural tendency of criticism is to assume that if a book is popular it is bad, and that it is usually bad in the degree in which it is popular. The novelist inveighs against this "false statement and illogical inference." It is based on a contempt for the public judgment and the critics who make it are apparently neither afraid nor ashamed to insult the people for whom they write. But their courage or their conceit is generally not so remarkable as their poverty of intellect, their want of logic, and the general inconsistency of their own conduct.

Mr. Hall Caine impeaches criticism on the ground of its anonymity. The agony suffered by Keats might have been less if he had known and if the public had known that the purblind person who described "Endymion" in "Blackwood" as "a young, staid, imperious, drivelling idiot" was merely a political and literary enemy of Leigh Hunt, and that he was being whipped as the stalking horse of his friend, the poet of Coleridge might have been sensibly diminished if he had been told that the mulish blunderer who described "Christabel" in the "Edinburgh" as "one of the most notable pieces of impertinence of which the press has lately been guilty" was a former friend made blind by bad passions.

Finally, we are told that "the critics, with notable exceptions, have been either the young writers who have not had time, or the old ones who have not had talent, to succeed as authors."

As for himself, Mr. Hall Caine says in conclusion, "I am not an author with a grievance."

RENT VALUES IN ST. GALL, SWITZERLAND.

House and rent values here are dependent on the prosperity of the export trade. Within eight years these have risen, according to the convenience of their situation for business, 40 to 100 per cent. The United States government now pays $800 rent for rooms which, although not in the business center, eight years ago cost $500. Exports to the United States of over $12,000,000, as compared with about $4,000,000 four years ago, explain the prosperity mentioned and account for the present almost mushroom growth of St. Gall. Buildings are going up everywhere, the population is increasing and demand for dwellings, or rather quarters or flats, so far outruns the supply that at present buildings not yet started are completely rented for occupancy upon completion next year. Incidentally, exclusive of the rent question, St. Gall is the most expensive residence city in Switzerland, which, in view of the standard fixed in the Republic's cities to some extent by the liberality of extravagance of tourists, is saying a great deal. It might be also interesting to note that there are no single or detached houses for rent to one family. Only under exceptional circumstances, and at enormous rental, can such premises be secured.

The usual form, from which there are few variations, is a three or four story structure, with a flat or complete premises for one family upon each floor, each flat having assigned rooms in the attic for servants and boxes and a cellar for fuel and stores, and each having a right to specific use of wash and ironing rooms in the basement. There are no housekeepers, as usual elsewhere on the continent, where the middle or better class of such houses now going up, each flat has also bath with instantaneous heater, an independent hot water heating apparatus for living rooms, kitchen gas stove, shelving, closets, etc., all furnished by landlord. Such flats of, say, from five to 12 rooms, rent according to location size and character of finishing, from $450 to $1,500. Above this maximum in renting property are only to be found special cases, while below it range all grades of tenements.

Favorably situated building lots in the town have risen 300 per cent in value in the last two years, since which time a number of bankers and more important exporters have erected, or intend to erect, splendid buildings. This is only possible by reason of the quite enormous development of the principal industry of this place—embroidery.

and lace. Some speculators in house buying or building do so on the chance of a favorable resale. Others again, builders of large banking or business houses, give the management of the building operations into the hands of an experienced architect, paying for the latter's plans for the building and a commission of about 5 per cent of the value of the building for the entire building management. The architect trusts the execution of his plans to a master builder after examination of and agreement to his estimates of cost and erection; the architect's thus supervising authority and the master builder executive authority. In quiet business times, when the spirit of enterprise is checked and ground values are low, architect and master builder collaborate in speculative building.—Consular Report.

HOW TO AVOID PNEUMONIA.

You can avoid pneumonia and other serious results from a cold by taking Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough and clears the throat, and keeps the system as it is mildly laxative. Refuse any but the genuine in the yellow package. E. J. Hill Drug Co., "The never substitutes."

"That good Coal" $5.75 delivered $5.25 at yard. Bamberger, 161 Meighan St., U. S. A.

Plans for Rent, 23 West 1st South.

CLASSIFIED AND REGISTERED AT LLOYDS.

There is always matter of public interest in the annual report of Lloyd's Register of British and Foreign Shipping, and the story for the year ending last June is no exception to the rule. At that date no fewer than 10,281 merchant vessels, representing about 19,750,000 tons gross, held licenses assigned by the committee of Lloyd's Register. The number of new vessels classed during the twelvemonth was 750 with a registered gross tonnage of nearly 1,500,000, which constitutes a record in the history of the society. These craft included vessels of a great variety of types, chief among them being the leviathan Lusitania, about which and her sister, Mauretania, the report makes some congratulatory remarks. The tonnage in course of construction under the inspection of the society's surveyors at home and abroad on June 30 was 1,045,244, which was 145,000 tons less than on the corresponding date of 1905.

This surveying staff, which now consists of 308 officers, is scattered about the world, and includes in its duties the testing of plates, chains, anchors, etc. No fewer than 87,490 tons of ship and boiler steel, 431,282 fathoms of chain cables and 8,196 anchors were thus dealt with last year. In addition to the recognized works and public proving-houses in the United Kingdom there are 17 anchor and cable testing machines on the continent and 19 in the United States.

"It may be noted," adds the report, "that the diameter of the largest stud link chain cables tested, which were intended for the Lusitania and Mauretania, were 34 inches. The weight of each link of these cables is 34 hundredweight, and of each complete cable 124 tons. The heaviest anchor tested during the year weighed over 10 tons, and is for use on board the latter vessel."—London Chronicle.

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL TOILET POWDER

AN IDEAL, ANTISEPTIC TOILET POWDER FOR INFANTS AND ADULTS.

This is an exquisitely perfumed, antiseptic toilet powder. It is a household necessity for the nursery and toilet. It keeps the complexion clear and preserves the velvety texture of youth. It should be used freely after bathing giving a delightful and refreshing effect.

Prepared by FERT. T. HOPKINS, N. Y. City, Proprietor of

GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM.

For sale by WILLES-HORNE DRUG CO.,

No. 4 Main St. By the Monument, SALT LAKE CITY.

W. E. McKean, local manager for the Independent Telephone company, was in Salt Lake this week for the purpose of attending a banquet given by the telephone company to the managers of the various exchanges and other officials, which was held Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Webb of Payson, have been in Eureka the past few days visiting the family of Mr. and Mr. Alex Brown.

LEHI.

New Year's was spent very quietly here, family parties being the order of the day.

A special New Year's eve hall was given in the City pavilion which was largely attended and much enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Carter of Salt Lake City spent New Year's with Mr. and Mrs. John Y. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Wells spent New Year's with Salt Lake relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Earl of Eureka are visiting Lehi relatives and friends.

According to Mr. Hall Caine the natural tendency of criticism is to assume that if a book is popular it is bad, and that it is usually bad in the degree in which it is popular. The novelist inveighs against this "false statement and illogical inference." It is based on a contempt for the public judgment and the critics who make it are apparently neither afraid nor ashamed to insult the people for whom they write. But their courage or their conceit is generally not so remarkable as their poverty of intellect, their want of logic, and the general inconsistency of their own conduct.

Mr. Hall Caine impeaches criticism on the ground of its anonymity. The agony suffered by Keats might have been less if he had known and if the public had known that the purblind person who described "Endymion" in "Blackwood" as "a young, staid, imperious, drivelling idiot" was merely a political and literary enemy of Leigh Hunt, and that he was being whipped as the stalking horse of his friend, the poet of Coleridge might have been sensibly diminished if he had been told that the mulish blunderer who described "Christabel" in the "Edinburgh" as "one of the most notable pieces of impertinence of which the press has lately been guilty" was a former friend made blind by bad passions.

Finally, we are told that "the critics, with notable exceptions, have been either the young writers who have not had time, or the old ones who have not had talent, to succeed as authors."

As for himself, Mr. Hall Caine says in conclusion, "I am not an author with a grievance."

RENT VALUES IN ST. GALL, SWITZERLAND.

House and rent values here are dependent on the prosperity of the export trade. Within eight years these have risen, according to the convenience of their situation for business, 40 to 100 per cent. The United States government now pays $800 rent for rooms which, although not in the business center, eight years ago cost $500. Exports to the United States of over $12,000,000, as compared with about $4,000,000 four years ago, explain the prosperity mentioned and account for the present almost mushroom growth of St. Gall. Buildings are going up everywhere, the population is increasing and demand for dwellings, or rather quarters or flats, so far outruns the supply that at present buildings not yet started are completely rented for occupancy upon completion next year. Incidentally, exclusive of the rent question, St. Gall is the most expensive residence city in Switzerland, which, in view of the standard fixed in the Republic's cities to some extent by the liberality of extravagance of tourists, is saying a great deal. It might be also interesting to note that there are no single or detached houses for rent to one family. Only under exceptional circumstances, and at enormous rental, can such premises be secured.

The usual form, from which there are few variations, is a three or four story structure, with a flat or complete premises for one family upon each floor, each flat having assigned rooms in the attic for servants and boxes and a cellar for fuel and stores, and each having a right to specific use of wash and ironing rooms in the basement. There are no housekeepers, as usual elsewhere on the continent, where the middle or better class of such houses now going up, each flat has also bath with instantaneous heater, an independent hot water heating apparatus for living rooms, kitchen gas stove, shelving, closets, etc., all furnished by landlord. Such flats of, say, from five to 12 rooms, rent according to location size and character of finishing, from $450 to $1,500. Above this maximum in renting property are only to be found special cases, while below it range all grades of tenements.

Favorably situated building lots in the town have risen 300 per cent in value in the last two years, since which time a number of bankers and more important exporters have erected, or intend to erect, splendid buildings. This is only possible by reason of the quite enormous development of the principal industry of this place—embroidery.

and lace. Some speculators in house buying or building do so on the chance of a favorable resale. Others again, builders of large banking or business houses, give the management of the building operations into the hands of an experienced architect, paying for the latter's plans for the building and a commission of about 5 per cent of the value of the building for the entire building management. The architect trusts the execution of his plans to a master builder after examination of and agreement to his estimates of cost and erection; the architect's thus supervising authority and the master builder executive authority. In quiet business times, when the spirit of enterprise is checked and ground values are low, architect and master builder collaborate in speculative building.—Consular Report.

HOW TO AVOID PNEUMONIA.

You can avoid pneumonia and other serious results from a cold by taking Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough and clears the throat, and keeps the system as it is mildly laxative. Refuse any but the genuine in the yellow package. E. J. Hill Drug Co., "The never substitutes."

"That good Coal" $5.75 delivered $5.25 at yard. Bamberger, 161 Meighan St., U. S. A.

Plans for Rent, 23 West 1st South.

CLASSIFIED AND REGISTERED AT LLOYDS.

There is always matter of public interest in the annual report of Lloyd's Register of British and Foreign Shipping, and the story for the year ending last June is no exception to the rule. At that date no fewer than 10,281 merchant vessels, representing about 19,750,000 tons gross, held licenses assigned by the committee of Lloyd's Register. The number of new vessels classed during the twelvemonth was 750 with a registered gross tonnage of nearly 1,500,000, which constitutes a record in the history of the society. These craft included vessels of a great variety of types, chief among them being the leviathan Lusitania, about which and her sister, Mauretania, the report makes some congratulatory remarks. The tonnage in course of construction under the inspection of the society's surveyors at home and abroad on June 30 was 1,045,244, which was 145,000 tons less than on the corresponding date of 1905.

This surveying staff, which now consists of 308 officers, is scattered about the world, and includes in its duties the testing of plates, chains, anchors, etc. No fewer than 87,490 tons of ship and boiler steel, 431,282 fathoms of chain cables and 8,196 anchors were thus dealt with last year. In addition to the recognized works and public proving-houses in the United Kingdom there are 17 anchor and cable testing machines on the continent and 19 in the United States.

"It may be noted," adds the report, "that the diameter of the largest stud link chain cables tested, which were intended for the Lusitania and Mauretania, were 34 inches. The weight of each link of these cables is 34 hundredweight, and of each complete cable 124 tons. The heaviest anchor tested during the year weighed over 10 tons, and is for use on board the latter vessel."—London Chronicle.

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL TOILET POWDER

AN IDEAL, ANTISEPTIC TOILET POWDER FOR INFANTS AND ADULTS.

This is an exquisitely perfumed, antiseptic toilet powder. It is a household necessity for the nursery and toilet. It keeps the complexion clear and preserves the velvety texture of youth. It should be used freely after bathing giving a delightful and refreshing effect.

Prepared by FERT. T. HOPKINS, N. Y. City, Proprietor of

GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM.

For sale by WILLES-HORNE DRUG CO.,

No. 4 Main St. By the Monument, SALT LAKE CITY.

TAILLESS ERMINE IS FASHIONABLE THIS WINTER.

When ermine is used in a warp such as that pictured the tiny black tails do not mark the snow white surface. This is one of the most beautiful garments of the kind shown by an ultra fashionable furrier of New York. It is kimono like in shape, the fronts hanging straight and loose over a gold cloth vest embellished with gold soutache and hand embroidered showing threads of emerald green. The sleeves slashed under the arm and held together with heavy silk cords and buttons are edged with wide gold braid like that forming the cuff on the white chiffon undersleeve. The lace and ermine hat is set off with a huge white ostrich plume and a single pink rose. The ermine muff is pillow shape.

When ermine is used in a warp such as that pictured the tiny black tails do not mark the snow white surface. This is one of the most beautiful garments of the kind shown by an ultra fashionable furrier of New York. It is kimono like in shape, the fronts hanging straight and loose over a gold cloth vest embellished with gold soutache and hand embroidered showing threads of emerald green. The sleeves slashed under the arm and held together with heavy silk cords and buttons are edged with wide gold braid like that forming the cuff on the white chiffon undersleeve. The lace and ermine hat is set off with a huge white ostrich plume and a single pink rose. The ermine muff is pillow shape.

In too many cases an unjust and arbitrary power, acting to the injury of literature and the misreading of the public. Indeed, I should say broadly, that the worst tyranny in the world at this hour, whether in religion, politics, literature, art, music or the drama, is the tyranny of the critic.

Certain manifestations of that tyranny are then dealt with. Mr. Hall Caine contends that the "contemporary criticism of literature is nearly always against the public." As a general rule, he says, "criticism has resented public opinion in the discovery of talents and the appreciation of worth." For more than a hundred years it has been so, he says, and "it is so still."

It is wonderful to witness the complacent consensus with which some dull-witted nincompoop who has written a "serious" book will regard a novel that is the result of years of reading, invention and thought. Appearances in journals which have a certain influence and authority, the dullard's sneer, or more frequently his faint praise, sometimes goes far, and the speciousness of statesmen, and the pomposity of clergymen, not to speak of the astonishing reports of some of the officials of public libraries, are constantly found to echo his clouded doctoredness. But all this is according to a law of nature, against which it is useless to rebel, inasmuch as the critics of a class never are and never can be imaginative writers, and the imaginative writers as a whole never are and never can be critics.

According to Mr. Hall Caine the natural tendency of criticism is to assume that if a book is popular it is bad, and that it is usually bad in the degree in which it is popular. The novelist inveighs against this "false statement and illogical inference." It is based on a contempt for the public judgment and the critics who make it are apparently neither afraid nor ashamed to insult the people for whom they write. But their courage or their