WALTHOUR LOWERS WORLD'S RECORD

But is Beaten by Men Whom He Had Given Six Laps in Twenty Mile Race.

EXCITING FROM THE START.

Clarke-Kramer-Pye Combination Pulls Down Money on Two Mile Handicap.

Bobby Walthour learned last evening that there is a limit to all things including his ability. The lesson was in the shape of a 20-mile race, in which Walthour gave Samuelson and Downing six laps. The local lads could not help Walthour gaining three laps and 10 yards and reducing the world's record to 27:45. The old record for this distance was 33:28 1-5 held by Samuelson. Walthour and Samuelson started the doings and the Provo peddler hung with his man for eight rapid miles. He weakened during the ninth giving the easterner a lap and another in the tenth. While Samuelson and Downing were changing places on the tenth Walthour added another lap to his credit and before Downing could pick up on a poor start he had almost been lapped by Walthour. Downing then picked up and made it interesting right up to the finish. The crowd was on its feet making a noise like a band of Indians when the two riders came around on the last lap. Walthour had a big advantage in being behind Gussie Lawson's machine. McCormack's machine went back on Downing and the anxious speedster had to ride up ahead of his pace to follow Walthour as best he could.

CLARKE PASSES KRAMER.

Clarke, Kramer and Pye got together in the two-mile handicap and this combination pulled down the money. Clarke was right behind Kramer from the "go" pop. When the middle men were reached Pye took the lead and the pair stayed behind him until the head men were reached. Pye slowed down, and it was between Clarke and Kramer. A short distance from the tape Clarke livened up and managed to pass Kramer. This event had the best finish of the evening.

SUMMARY.

The chilly weather did not keep the crowd at home and a big gathering watched the events which resulted as follows:

Half-mile open, amateur—Final: Demara, Crebs, Wright, Hollister. Time—1:03 4-5.

Half-mile, invitation—Final: Downing, Hopper, Wilcox, West, MacDonald. Time—1:02 3-5.

Two-mile handicap, amateur—Giles, 45 yards; Diefenbacher, 35 yards; Demara, scratch; Hollister, 85 yards; Wright, 55 yards. Time—4:03 3-5.

Two-mile lap handicap, professional—Clarke, scratch; Kramer, scratch; Hopper, 45 yards; MacDonald, 135 yards. Time—3:53.

Twenty-mile motor paced—Walthour gained three laps, failing to gain the six laps handicap on Downing and Samuelson, each riding 10 miles. Time—27:45.

THE MURRAY FIGHT.

Young Sharkey of this city and J. Downey of Denver have been signed for a six-round preliminary at the Bell-Selby contest at Murray next Saturday night. The last named bout is scheduled for 20 rounds, and Larry Burns has expressed a determination to go against the winner.

UMHOLZ AT OGDEN.

Rudolph Umholz has arrived in Ogden from Denver, and is in training for his coming contest with Cyclone Thompson. He says he will give the latter the battle of his life, and he certainly is in fine condition for the contest. Umholz was in training for two weeks in the Colorado metropolis.

SALT LAKE LEFT OUT.

The Dubel baseball team will play the Bountiful aggregation at Lagoon next Saturday, and the day following will go to Park City to meet the Miners. Thus Salt Lake will be left without games on the two days mentioned, unless some of the minor teams play. Disagreements have arisen between the Dubels and the Lobsters, and there probably will be no more games between those organizations.

GLOVE CONTESTS AT PARK.

Fred Jacobson is in Salt Lake to arrange preliminaries for the Watkins-Walcott bout, scheduled for Labor day at Park City. It is to be a 20-round contest, and will be preceded by a set-to between Young McLaughlin and Kid Center. If the Labor day program proves a success, Jacobson promises to furnish a similar one each month to Parkites.

WILKES DEFEATS KID PALIN.

(Special to the "News.")

Kemmerer, Wyo., Aug. 27.—Young Wilkes of Frontier Saturday night defeated Kid Palin of Kemmerer in the third round of what was to have been a 15-round go. Wilkes floored Palin twice in the final round.

A New Tobacco Cure.

"The anti-spitting ordinance in Fulton did a good thing for me," said Claud Mountjoy, a Round Prairie township farmer, who was here last Saturday. "I happened to be in town one stock sales day, just after the law went into effect, and for fear I would spit on the sidewalk before I thought I failed to take a chew of tobacco all day and went without till I got home. I told my wife about it, and she suggested to me that if I could quit chewing that long I could quit altogether, and from that day to this I haven't used it."—Fulton Gazette.

To Cure Rheumatism

The excessive accumulation of uric acid must be eradicated from the system. Dr. Miles' Nervine used as directed for rheumatism, is alkaline in nature. It neutralizes this acid, and its soothing effect upon the irritated condition of the nerves relieves pain and induces sleep and rest.

"I was suddenly taken with a severe pain in my foot. My physician could not tell what was the trouble. In a few days I had the same trouble with the other foot. I was so crippled that I could scarcely walk and at times I had to crawl on my hands and knees from my bed down stairs. After having my shoes on for an hour or two I could manage to walk by suffering the pain. I suffered more or less all summer, and tried almost everything but got no relief. Then I began to have pains all through my system. My doctor told me I had an acute attack of inflammatory rheumatism. I was in the hospital for weeks, but I was scarcely able to walk when I left it. I read about Dr. Miles' Nervine, bought a bottle and also wrote the Miles Medical Co., for advice. They advised me to add salicylate of soda to the Nervine, and I commenced to get better from the start and for the past six months have scarcely any pain, and am able to walk as well as ever." JAS. H. SANDERS.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

MYERS DEFEATS KREIGH COLLINS

Former Western Tennis Champion Plays Listless Game At Country Club.

TODAY'S GAMES.

Mrs. P. C. Thompson and partner vs Miss Williams and Miss Thorn, 4 p. m.

Mrs. Thompson and partner vs Miss Taylor and Miss Miller, 4 p. m.

R. Badger vs W. Thompson, 4:30 p. m.

Brown vs Rainsford, 4:30 p. m.

Conrad and Richards vs Myers and C. Roberts, 5 p. m.

Miss Lyons vs Miss Lewis, 5:30 p. m.

Thos who journeyed down to the Country club yesterday afternoon saw A. Myers defeat Kreigh Collins, former western tennis champion. Collins was in poor form and played almost listlessly at times. Myers played hard but steady and his smashing backhand drives simply went through his opponent. Myers is coming to the front rapidly and is regarded as a coming champion.

Brown and Badger met F. Roberts and W. Salisbury yesterday in one of the prettiest games ever seen on the Country club ground. When Roberts and Salisbury took the first set by brilliant work throughout the spectators exchanged glances and predicted that the champs had met their Waterloo. But Brown and Badger were playing steady, heady tennis, leaving the flashing, smashing work to the younger player. The champs won out by careful placing finally.

Mrs. Griffin and Miss Thorne put up a pretty game also, the outcome being in doubt until the last few minutes. Mrs. Griffin won out in the series of three by careful placing.

Neel and Whitney took the match from Badger and McLeod. The match between Thompson and Badger was called off after each had a set on account of darkness.

PUNTS—SPURTS—UPPERCUTS

Sonoma Girl, the famous mare, was sold at Readville to Lotte Crabtree, the price being $30,000. Her time is 2:06¼. Folks who follow the track say she isn't handsome, but her gait gets the money and that's better than looks any day. She is bad at breaking, however.

Jack Welsh is to referee the Gans-Britt contest.

Some one with lots of time has figured out that $300,000,000 was wagered on the ponies last year.

Fair sized crowds journey down to the Country club now-a-days as the privileges of the club are extended to visitors during the tennis tournament.

Fishing is reported good in almost every stream in the intermountain region.

Jim Flynn of Colorado will meet a big fellow named Mowry at Swink, Colo., today. Pueblo sports are going along to look for fellows with an idea Flynn will not stop Mowry in the six rounds. The Pueblolte have money to say he will.

Freddie Weeks, the Colorado featherweight, and Frank Carsey of Chicago, meet in Denver Friday night. Both will weigh 122 pounds and a lively little battle is promised.

"Fighting Dick" Hyland is in Bridgeport, Conn., where he is training for his coming bout with Tommy Murphy at Philadelphia, Sept. 11. Dick Howell of the Bridgeport Herald has this to say of Hyland: "It begins to look like the good old times over at Bond's training quarters. Dick Hyland, the California lightweight, who is matched to fight Harlem Tommy Murphy before the National Athletic club of Philadelphia on Sept. 11, has been at Bond's for a week. With him are his manager, Sam McClintic, and George Decker of Philadelphia, as sparring partner. This week Dick will settle down to harder training. Young Corbett may come up to help out in the sparring in another week. Frank Bryson is also at the training quarters. Hyland and Murphy fight for a purse of $2,500, catchweights, straight Queensbury rules. Hyland was willing to make the lightweight mark, but Murphy wanted catchweights and McClintic accepted. Hyland can't weigh much over 133 pounds and be fit to fight. This kid from California looks pretty good to me, but I'll have more to say of his chances with Murphy later. Hyland is 22 years old."

Married Women

Every woman covets a shapely, pretty figure, and many of them deplore the loss of their girlish forms after marriage. The bearing of children is often destructive to the mother's shapeliness. All of this can be avoided, however, by the use of Mother's Friend before baby comes, as this great liniment always prepares the body for the strain upon it, and preserves the symmetry of her form. Mother's Friend overcomes all the danger of child-birth, and carries the expectant mother safely through this critical period without pain. It is woman's greatest blessing. Thousands gratefully tell of the benefit and relief derived from the use of this wonderful remedy. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Our little book, telling all about this liniment, will be sent free.

ROMANCE OF A MAYOR'S DAUGHTER

Helen Overton of Santa Rosa Elopes With C. H. Douglass Of San Francisco.

BRIDE TIRED BUT VERY HAPPY

Registered at the St. Francis as "Fred Jones and Wife"—Irate Father In Hot Pursuit.

San Francisco, Aug. 27.—A tale of a hurried love affair, a wild elopement by night in an automobile, a hasty marriage en route, and an irate parent who is still somewhere between this city and Santa Rosa looking for his daughter, was uncovered when "Fred Jones and wife" registered at the St. Francis. The heroine is pretty Helen Overton, daughter of the mayor of Santa Rosa, and the hero is C. H. Douglass, a safe agent of this city. The irate parent is the mayor of Santa Rosa and he is as yet unaware of his daughter's whereabouts.

All night the attendants of the St. Francis were trying to discover who the mysterious couple were. The irate parent was burning what wires he could get with messages. The bride is tired but happy, and the groom, when he was last seen, looked confident to face the parent in the morning.

A mixture of romance and mystery pervaded the St. Francis when the young couple entered the lobby without luggage, gloves, or wraps, and the man registered in big, bold, evidently disguised hand: "Fred Jones and wife, New York City."

Motioning to the young woman, who had dropped into one of the big cushioned chairs, the man jingled the key and led the way behind the bellboy to room 19, quite near the office.

The clerk on duty looked expectantly toward the front door to see the baggage come in. There was none. No carriage had arrived outside. The couple had come afoot, possibly from the nearest car line.

The young woman attracted immediate attention in the lobby by her large black picture hat decorated with a big sweeping ostrich plume. But her thin India silk waist and her unprotected forearms at once suggested something out of the ordinary on so cold and foggy a night. The register increased the suspicion that there was an elopement, and a hurried one at that.

Queried over the phone to his room, the man at first declared that there must be some mistake. "You've got the wrong room; that's all," he said, and hung up the receiver.

To a second inquiry he replied, "There's a mistake somewhere. Why, we've been married 10 years. You'd think so if you'd see my gray hair. When were we married? We were married at Old Orchard Beach, up near Portland, Me. Where? I said at the Chicago annex. Yes, it was an elopement. We were married at Old Orchard Beach, and then we went to various places, and then came out here. Yes. We arrived in San Francisco last night. Where did we stay? At the Hotel Savoy. Yes. Certainly, if you'll come up to the hotel now I'll have a talk with you and show you that there is no mystery about any of it. Come up, and we'll have a drink."

A few minutes later when a card was taken to his room he sent back word to call at 10 o'clock in the morning. To notes he refused answers. Meanwhile the house detective and the clerks were in a quandary what to do. A telephonic inquiry of the Savoy brought the reply that no such persons had been there.

The young woman was of medium height, of rather a graceful, lithe figure, with very light brown, practically blonde, hair, and a fair skin, and appeared to be about or less than 20 years of age. She had not even a purse or a handkerchief in her hand. The man appeared about 25 years of age, of medium height and build and with dark hair.

While the couple were in hiding in the St. Francis and trying to avoid an interview till they could make good their escape at an early hour this morning, a telephone message came to the Chronicle from Santa Rosa announcing that the mayor's daughter had run away with a young easterner. And the missing young woman's description tallied closely with that of the feminine refugee who sought the shelter of the St. Francis.

The Santa Rosa message read:

"Miss Helen Overton, daughter of John F. Overton, mayor of this city, has eloped with C. H. Douglass, a San Francisco agent of safes. As Mayor Overton is president of the Savings Bank of Santa Rosa, Douglass tried to sell him a safe."
