VIRGINIA CONFERENCE.

The Virginia Conference was held at the Chestnut Branch, Sontag, Franklin County, Va., March 6th and 7th, 1880, at 11 a. m.

Elders John Morgan, H. W. Barnett and Seth A. Langton, were present.

After opening services, Elder S. A. Langton spoke on the first principles of the Gospel. He said that according to the Apostle Peter's declaration, the promise of gospel blessings was not only to the generation then living, but to the most distant generations of mankind.

Elder H. W. Barnett made a few remarks in relation to the gifts and blessings enjoyed by the Saints of the Primitive Apostolic Church, and which were again restored and enjoyed by the Latter-day Saints.

Prest. John Morgan addressed the congregation on Pre-existence and Restitution, showing that man was an eternal progressive being, constituted morally, intellectually and spiritually for the enjoyment of the blessings of immortality and glory, through the holy gospel of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, and that the earth, when sanctified, will be the Saints' celestial abode. Singing.

Prayer by Elder H. W. Barnett.

6.30 p. m. After opening exercises,

Prest. John Morgan addressed the audience on the restoration of the everlasting gospel and the universal reign of righteousness.

Sunday, 11 a. m. After singing and prayer the authorities of the Church were presented and unanimously sustained. Elder John Morgan was sustained as President of the Southern Mission. Elder H. W. Barnett was sustained as President of the Virginia Conference. Elders Seth A. Langton, Mathias F. Cowley, W. W. Fife, Richard G. Hill and Richard A. Ballantyne

were sustained as traveling elders in this conference. Elder Thomas Pinckard was sustained as President of the Chesnut Branch. The statistical report showed, baptisms 65, and emigration 52 since July 1st, 1879. Future prospects appear favorable for the accomplishment of a good work.

President John Morgan delivered an excellent discourse on the fundamental principles of the Gospel, taking as a foundation for his remarks the 10th verse, 8th chapter of Isaiah, "To the law and to the testimony; if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them."

God's Spirit; richly prevailed during the meetings.

Conference closed by singing, benediction by Elder H. W. Bar-H. W. BARNETT. nett.

CACHE COUNTY EDUCATION AL INSTITUTE.

LOGAN, CITY HALL, March 13, 1880.

Editors Deseret News:

The Cache County Educational Institute met per appointment. Prayer by J. E. Carlyle. Roll called. Minutes of February read and adopted. Joseph Howell was appointed critic.

William H. Apperley answered the question asked at the last session regarding the uniformity of hours taught by the teachers. Said children should not be kept in school longer than they can be actively employed. Also spoke of the surroundings of our school houses, the inconvenience of out-buildings, and the poor condition generally of the school-houses.

J. E. Carlyle gave a lecture on "The Cultivation of the Imagina- . tion."

On motion of the members, F. J. Cannon favored the association with a short address. Said he was pleased to see the interest taken in the Institute, and the progress that had been made. Was pleased also to note the interest taken by the members in starting a Library.

The following motion was made and carried: That a fund be raised for the Library by donation of 25 cents from persons wishing to donate, and that a committee be appointed in each settlement to solicit such donations, The Librarian was authorized to appoint the committee,

Catarrhal

Wei DeMeyer's Treatise on Catarrh explains the following important facts:

1. That Catarrhal Colds become a poisonous infection, at first local, and Enally constitutional.

2. That, being Constitutional, the infection is beyond the reach of mere local remedies.

3. That impurities in the nostrils, are necessarily swallowed into the stomach and inhaled into the lungs, thus poisoning the Digestive, Respiratory and Genito-urinary organs.

4. That Catarrhal virus follows the mucous membrane and causes Deafness, Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhoea, Bronchilis, Leucorrhæa, ond Consumption.

5. That Smokes, Douches, Inhalations, and Insoluble Snuffs, cannot possibly remove infectious inflammationfrom the organs named.

6. That an antidote for Catarrh must possess an inoculative affinity for, and the quality of being absorbed by, the purulent mucous wherever located.

Eased upon these plain theories, Dr. Wei De Meyer's Catarrh Cure has proved to be infallible. It not only re-Heves, it cures Catarrh at any stage. Home testimony.
