JOSEPH F. SMITH,
FRANKLIN D. RICHARDS.

FRAGMENTS.

AFTER Booth comes Carleton, and then, probably, Bernhardt.

A SETTING of the law and motion calendar was made in the Third District Court this afternoon.

THOSE who thought winter had departed for the season, must have felt the keen and frosty edge of disappointment to-day.

WE understand a local minstrel combination is one of the likely things of the near future. There is certainly plenty of ability here, and good ability too.

ON Saturday night the little child of W. Hanson, at 14 n., First West Street, died from diphtheria. The child of Bro. John Alford also succumbed to the dread disease.

LAST week Wm. D. Miles, John Miles, Wm. Orgill and John McArthur were placed under bonds of $500 each, to await trial on the charge of engaging in a riot at Paradise, Cache County.

MR. JAMES CAMPKINS, of Three Mile Creek, Box Elder County, while out hunting for the spring duck a few days ago, accidentally shot away part of the ends of his two middle fingers.

ON Thursday Jacob Houtz and Jesse Gardner of Springville were arrested on the going charge. Both were taken before Commissioner Hills, waived examination and were held.—Provo Enquirer, April 8.

LAST week there went east from the Shoshone agency 26 young Indians to attend the industrial school at Genoa, Nebraska. They were Arapahoes, and were in charge of Prof. H. Gudmundsen. Twenty-five of the number were males, from 12 to 22 years of age, and the other was an Indian woman named Chipera, 17 years old, and the wife of one of the young men.

MISS CROXALL, a daughter of Mark and the late Mary Croxall, while in the art rooms of Mrs. Ruff, on First South Street, turned very pale and Mrs. Ruff rushed to her assistance, but before she could get to the girl the latter had fainted dead away, and had to be taken home in a carriage, being perfectly unconscious. It seems she is subject to such spells.

YESTERDAY morning about 8 o'clock the Chinese laundry house of Charley Sing in the upper part of Chinatown and in the gulch back of Newell's butcher shop caught fire and was totally destroyed. The heathen built a fire in his stove with coal oil and in short time his carelessness culminated unprofitably. The total loss will not fall short of $200.—Park Record, April 9th.

EXCOMMUNICATED.

To whom it may concern:

This certifies that at a meeting of the High Council of the Morgan Stake of Zion held in the Stake House, January 5th, 1887, Fred. Kingston was excommunicated from t he Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints for conduct unbecoming a Latter-day Saint.

W. G. SMITH,
President.
C. A. WELCH,
Clerk of High Council.

Escaped from the "Pen."—Today Hank Wheeler and Fred Smith, both of whom were serving terms for grand larceny, escaped from the penitentiary. The Marshal offers a reward of $50 each for their capture and delivery to him.

Elevators Wanted.—A note from John W. Snell say we need elevators, that will, in different sections of the Territory, take care of grain at minimum cost, protecting it from mice, weevils, etc., and at the same time give the owner a collateral security to prevent his sacrificing it at the lowest prices, aiming to give him a chance, if desired, to hold for higher prices, or redeem and keep if he deems it advisable. Again it supplies a medium of exchange, in the certificates or negotiable receipts, that by transfers would do a great deal of business. The necessary grading would give its quality a well defined value in all markets and thus probably save litigation and trouble.

Hotel Burned.—Shortly before four o'clock this afternoon it was learned that a big fire occurred at Wells, Nevada, last night, whereby the Union depot hotel and the restaurant were destroyed. The proprietor of the hotel is named O'Neil. It is also stated that one man is supposed to have been burned to death. Bob Hamill, an old telegrapher, who had turned from employment in the lightning foundry and had gone into the more lucrative business of stock-raising, was staying at the hotel. He retired to his room at 12 o'clock, and since the fire he has not been seen. It is supposed that he perished in the flames. The hotel is said to have been a very pretty two-story structure, with elegant grounds surrounding it. The details of the fire up to this date are meagre. It is not known what was the cause of it, and there is some surprise that the building was totally destroyed, as it is said that there is plenty of water quite handy.—Ogden Herald, April 9.

Motion for Dismissal.—To-day, in the Third District Court, Attorney F. S. Richards moved for the dismissal of the extra indictments now standing against the following named gentlemen, who have each served a term for violation of the Edmunds law, and whose cases have been segregated:

H. W. Naisbitt—three indictments; G. H. Taylor—three; James H. Moyle—three; John Penman—three; Thomas Jones—three; J. Y. Smith—three; J. W. Snell—three; J. C. Poulson—three; Wm. J. Jenkins—two; Robt. McKendrick—two; Ishmael Phillips—three; Stanley Taylor—four; S. F. Ball—four; Hyrum Goff—three.

The motion was taken under advisement. There are also a number of others against whom there are indictments under similar circumstances to those stated.

THE CRIMINAL CALENDAR.

The People vs. George Lawrence.

Prospective Indian Trouble.—A Fort Benton special to the Helena, (Montana) Independent, says: G. W. Friends, superintendent of the Walrand Ranch Co., at MacLeod, arrived in this city to-day. He says the Blood Indians are on this side of the line in great numbers and that the authorities in the northwest are making strenuous efforts to prevent them leaving their reservations. It is well known that a number of our own Indians (Piegans) are with them, and their object is undoubtedly to steal horses and kill those who may possess them. It will be well for the stockmen in the vicinity and in Judith and the Musselshell regions to be on the lookout. Mr. Friends left MacLeod on the 1st inst., and on his way in saw a band of horses just beyond Rocky Springs. At Fort Conrad it was reported that John Spencer's horses had all been stolen and his cabin raided. Inspector Watts was at Conrad, but left for the Sweet Grass country yesterday. Indian Agent Pocklington, agent for the Blood Indians, has done everything in his power to prevent the Indians from crossing the line, and mounted police have scouted the country clear to the boundary line to turn the Indians back, but without avail. If the military is not more successful than heretofore, the settlers will organize and protect themselves.

Deputy Registrars.—The Utah Commission have made the following appointments of deputy registration officers:

Emery County.—Castle Dale, J. W. Seeley; Huntington, J. T. Wakefield; Lawrence, J. T. Wakefield; Price, B. H. Young; Green River, J. T. Farrer; Moab, C. J. Boren; Orangeville, J. K. Reid; Ferron, M. Molen; Molen, J. D. Killpack; Muddy, John Lewis; Wellington, R. B. Thompson; Scofield, S. J. Harkness.

Millard County.—Fillmore, John Ridley; Holden, Nicholas Paul; Scipio, George Monroe; Oak City, George Finlayson; Lemmington, William Bean; Deseret, William A. Ray; Kanosh, George B. Chesley; Meadow, John Stredder; Snake Valley, Charles Rowland.

San Juan County.—Bluff Dale, Peter Allen; McElmor, Joseph Dougherty; Buena, Joseph Fields.

Uintah County.—Browns, Andrew Riggs; Riverdale, Heber Orser; Ashley, C. D. Brooks.

Weber County.—Plain City, Thomas Stocker; Slaterville, Brig. J. Webb; Wilson, William Sewell; West Weber, Samuel F. Jenkens; Hooper, John Everett; Uintah, M. C. Daniels; Eden, Edward Sewell; Huntsville, Joseph Smith; Pleasant View, Temple Short; Harrisville, T. W. Hurd; Lynn, A. I. Stone; Riverdale, George Ritter.

"Let Dogs Delight," Etc.—The City Council of Park City is not a very dignified nor loving body, if we are to judge by the minutes of its last meeting as published in Thursday's Call. One member, Mr. Condon, said that Mr. Robson had voted just as his "boss," Martin Conrell, told him to, when the following is reported to have occurred:

Robson as chairman of the relief committee took up the cudgel in his own defense and in talking referred to the case of Mrs. Byrne, he said that "he had only relieved Mrs. Byrne once since he had been on the committee."

Waddill made some remarks in reply to Robson, and said that what he said he did without fear or favor, notwithstanding "the grinning monkey at the other end of the table," alluding to the Record's local.

Gerraty made some remarks in regard to the city attorney, and said that he was generally to be found in some gin mill asleep in a chair, drunk, and claimed that the copy for bonds should have been furnished long ago.

Waddill replied in like manner and said that he came in the council chamber as an honorable man, and that was more than Gerraty could say honestly, he also stated that it was none of Gerraty's business if he did get drunk.

Don't Like Them.—The Salt River News, a sprightly and well-conducted little paper, published at Tempe, Arizonia, does not approve of a Christianity which does not Christianize, and in a recent number thus pays its respects to a roving band of alleged evangelists:

"The Holiness Band is now in Phœnix and, we understand, will visit Tempe. To use a very expressive vulgarism, we have "soured" on this organization. Going about ostensibly in aid of Christian development, they have, by abusing other denominations, adopted a very poor course toward that end. We find in the San Francisco Herald of Holiness, of which the Rev. Newton is editor, some notes from him regarding this section. We intended to extract from it, but a portion of the letter is so grievously wrong—a slander, in fact, upon an intelligent and excellent family—as to rob the commendatory remarks of value. They will meet with a cool reception upon their return here."

A Fraternal Note.—In a note to the editor, Mr. Edward W. DeKnight, of Pomeroy's Democrat, says, under date of the 9th:—"I regret that I am unable to see you ere leaving, as I should like to give you some personal expression of my appreciation for your kindness. I also feel grateful to the people generally for their attentions, and trust that you may convey to them through the NEWS the satisfaction and pleasure which my visit to Salt Lake has afforded me. I stop at the Broom Hotel, Ogden, until Wednesday."

Still Another.—Articles of incorporation of the Oregon Southern Pacific Railway have been filed with the secretary of the state of Oregon. Salt Lake City will be the eastern terminus of the road. It will run nearly parallel with the Short Line, through Southern Idaho. This, with the Boise Branch, the Chicago & Northwestern, the Malheur Valley and the projected line from Nevada north through the Territory will make lively times here this summer.—Idaho Register, April 9.

THE GRAND JURORS.

Seven Secured and a Special Venire Ordered.

THE LIST NEARLY EXHAUSTED.

A WELL-READ JUROR—BUT HE IS TOO LIBERAL FOR THE PURPOSE.

The opening session of the April term of the Third District Court commenced at 11 a.m., to-day, and the time was occupied in the work of impaneling a grand jury. The following answered to their names:

GRAND JURORS.

123 H. W. Haight,	194 John Pack, Jr.,
112 Joseph Bull,	33 Augustus Podiech,
140 Reuben Gardner,	198 B. S. Kimball,
153 L. B. Yerxa,	180 T. M. Roberts,
36 David McKenzie,	121 G. F. Ralston,
196 John Boyer,	100 J. M. Wardrobe,
118 C. L. Miller,	120 G. W. Jenkins,
163 Geo. F. Hicks,	130 Wm. C. Allen,
86 W. C. Squires,	75 J. F. Corker,
40 Henry Moore,	15 J. R. Walker, Jr.,
72 Chas. J. Brain,	170 D. H. Caldwell,
80 Orson D. Romney,	85 E. Wilkes, Jr.

Three of the names on the venire, E. L. Preston, Albert E. Smith and Alma Young, were reported not served; two, Fergus Coalter and M. Jurgenson, failed to answer; the latter was excused as he was not a citizen.

Those excused for their belief in plural marriage were: Reuben Gardner, David McKenzie, Wm. C. Allen, David H. Caldwell, J. M. Wardrobe, C. L. Miller, Thomas M. Roberts, Orson D. Romney, Charles J. Brain, Henry Moore and Walter C. Squires.

The Joseph Bull who was summoned was an aged gentleman who came to this country about a year ago. He was excused on his stating that he was not a citizen.

H. W. Haight, of Davis County, possessed all the necessary qualifications and was accepted.

L. B. Yerxa said he had never paid any taxes, but owned taxable property. He was a satisfactory grand juror in all other respects and passed.

John Boyer was next called, and Wm. Boyer said he had been summoned under that name, though not the individual. He was, however, retained and proved acceptable. When he replied that he did not believe plural marriage to be right, Mr. Varian seemed to doubt the statement and asked, "Are you a member of the Mormon Church?" "No, sir; nor of the Gentile church either," was the response, and he was passed.

J. R. Walker, Jr., and E. Wilkes, Jr., were also accepted.

G. Washington Jenkins was called and said he did not have any opinion as to whether or not plural marriage was right; I am not a member of the Mormon Church and never have been; have never formed an opinion about plural marriage; don't think it right nor wrong the law; I havn't any opinion on the subject; have never been on a grand jury; do not know the duties of a grand juryor; I think if a man violated the law against polygamy knowingly he should be punished; I have heard of people who have violated the law; I would prosecute them if I was sworn; I believe the law ought to be enforced against polygamy and unlawful cohabitation; there's nothing to prevent it; I am not yet a member of any church; have investigated some; have not studied the subject of plural marriage; have read the revelations; do not know whether they were inspired or not—I could not say; I have read almost everything that comes along, from up; I have read the revelations on the doctrines of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints; I am an American citizen, born in Philadelphia, "sweet Philadelphia;" I dont believe it right for a man to have more than one living wife; I am not hampered by reason of any of my relatives being members of the "Mormon" Church, and in polygamy; I would not screen them; if I knew a man who had violated the law I would indict him; if he married before the law of 1862, I would not indict him for living with them.

"WILD BILL"

Mr. Varian—If he married his wives 30 years ago would you indict him?

Mr. Jenkins—No, not if it came down to that.

Court—You are excused.

Mr. Jenkins—All right, sir.

G. F. Ralston was not a tax-payer and was excused.

John Pack, Jr., said: I am a farmer and stock-raiser; live in Summit County; I do not believe it right for a man to have more than one living and undivorced wife; I am a member of the "Mormon" Church, but not in

FIRST-CLASS STANDING;

I have never been cut off; believe in a good many of its doctrines; don't know whether they are inspired or not; I condemn the revelation on plural marriage; I think it is false doctrine; never believed it true; believe the law should be enforced, and would do what the law requires for its enforcement; would indict a man who violated it; I would make a difference with men who had two wives before the law—yet I would indict them; I have relatives in the church, but that would not influence me; it is immaterial to me whether I'm on the grand jury or not; I propose to do what the law directs. He was accepted.

Augustus Podiech and J. F. Corker also gave satisfaction and were accepted.

B. S. Kimball said he did not believe in plural marriage; he had been cut off the "Mormon" Church; thought the law should be enforced; he would do it against friends and relatives; would make a distinction slightly in favor of those who embraced plural marriage prior to the passage of the law against it; he would then want conclusive evidence against them; would want direct testimony. He was excused.

Geo. F. Hicks was not a taxpayer, and was excused.

This exhausted the list, and but seven jurors had been secured. The Court ordered that a special venire issue, returnable at 10 a. m. to-morrow. The following names, all that were in the box, were drawn:

138 C. D. Harmno,	148 Marion Brady,
167 J. Linman,	185 D. McDonald,
159 T. J. Wilcox,	26 D. E. Fullmer, Jr.
173 G. B. Brastow,	74 G. E. Bourne,
6 J. M. Leffer,	70 John H. White,
65 Lewis Rogers,	117 H. D. Jones,
39 M. Hirchman,	187 H. Monahan,
45 Jacob Alt,	132 W. R. Waples,
50 E. G. Holden,	168 Orrin Bates,
6 T. Mitchell,	187 G. L. Bemis,
44 J. H. Reese,	31 F. M. Lyman,
95 Jacob Weiser,	108 Henry Bruce,
191 W. Fennemore,	148 W. J. Poulton,
177 P. S. Fox,	160 S. M. Orme, sen,
169 Wm. Carter,	158 Wm. M. Rydalch,
20 Richard Brimley,	176 R. Guerden.

Several of the foregoing were residents of Park City, Stockton, and other places at a distance from the city, and these names were returned to the box, leaving 18 on the venire.

Supreme Court.—On Saturday evening the Territorial Supreme Court held a short session, all the Judges being present.

D. P. Whedop, of Summit County, was appointed United States Commissioner for that county.

Lindsay R. Rogers was appointed to a similar office for Weber County.

Frank Pierce also received a similar appointment for Salt Lake County.

A petition for the appointment as commissioner of John Kirby, of Juab County, was taken under advisement.

It was announced that in a number of cases yet pending, decisions had not been prepared, and the court adjourned sine die.

Police Court.—In the Police Court to-day Peter Knox was mulcted in the sum of $5 for having been drunk.

Sam. Newton, arrested for disturbing the peace of his former wife and raising a fuss generally, was required to give $200 bail for his appearance for trial.

Mary Jenson was notified to be ready for trial this afternoon on a charge of lewd conduct.

Mary Howell escaped from the jail yard on Saturday night, and being retaken, is to be tried for a violation of the city ordinance, in thus taking French leave.

Loss of Sheep.—A letter written at Piedmont, Wyoming, to Mr. Jas. S. McLaren, from his son, states that there have been heavy losses among the extensive sheep herds in that section. It is said that about 25 per cent have died from the inclement weather and scarcity of food. At one place, the writer says, he saw over 2,000 from one flock lying dead.

Capt. Greenman Discharged.—On Saturday night Deputy Marshal J. W. Greenman was dismissed from service by United States Marshal Dyer. Capt. Greenman has held the chief position on the staff of deputies for over 11 years, having ceen appointed in the spring of 1876. He has conducted his official business in a gentlemanly manner, and by his demeanor has made a great many friends. The reasons for his removal are not known.

DEATHS.

ALFORD—In the 19th Ward, of this city, April 9, 1887, of diphtheria, after six days illness, Fannie May, the beloved daughter of John and Margaret R. Alford, born May 1, 1878.

The funeral took place yesterday, the 10th.

And just as she was opening in beauty to the day,
Down came the heavenly gardener and took my bud away;
Yet not in wrath He took her, a smile was on His face,
As kindly and tenderly He bore her from her place. [COM.
