By mutual consent the withdrawal of he deeds and money put up in the option on Capt. De Lamar's interest in the Wall group, was accomplished this morning. This means that Col. Wall's option on Capt. De Lamar's holdings in the famous group at Bingham-consisting of a one-fourth interest-is off. The option was for 90 days and called for the payment of $100,000. This was tendered by Col. Wall on May 29th but, owing to complications which have aris. en between the captain and Victor M. Clement, the bank was not able to turn over deeds to the property. Under the terms of the option Col. Wall was required to sell another one-fourth interest in the group to captain De Lamar for $50,000 if he did not take up his option on the captain's present holdings. When Col. Wall could not take up his option on account of legal complica-tions the captain put up $50,000 as payment for another one-fourth interest in the group. The matter was adjusted to-lay, however, and Capt. De Lamar point allowing for the dividend off. There was a somewhat abrupt lift to prices of a few stocks which created uneasiness among the shorts and they covered heavily in the railroads and high priced specialties. Rock Island made the most extensive rise, 3 points. Union Pacific was offered freely when It crossed 110 and reacted 1%. Other stocks weakened sympathetically, Rock Island's loss reaching 2. At 11 o'clock support was manifest in spots, Brook-lyn Transit and Metropolitan street railway rising 6¼ but the general tenency was lower. Speculative interests shifted into various stocks which are ordinarily neglected. There were no new developments to account for large advances some of them made Movements in the active stocks were narrow but the undertone became bet-ter when Louisville sold up to 110%. American Tobacco fell off to 140 and Continental Tobacco recorded below the opening. American snuff issues, on the other hand, advanced 1 to 3 for the preferred and common respectively. Bonds were quiet and irregular.

There was some selling of Union Pa-cific, Atchison and U. S. Steel, but the general list was sluggish and indiffer ent. The closing was dull and irregular.

Genter, who went out to the Yankee Con. last evening, returned from the mine this morning very much much pleased with conditions in the Humbug crosscut. This crosscut has been run from the Uncle Sam tunnel and after passing through much iron stained quartz entered the lime several days ago. The face is now some ten or 12 feet into the vein, which discloses streaks of galena and crystalized lead mixed with vein matter. While a solid body of ore has not yet been encoun-tered the outlook for a big ore chute is said to be very encouraging.
