the district court by Malissa Marriotts against Lorenzo Marriotts. The complaint sets forth that they have been married for over thirty-four years, and that they have thirteen children born to them, three of whom are under the age of twenty-one years; that the defendant is the owner of over 200 acres of land worth $8,000 and some live stock and money; that he has for a long time been an habitual drunkard; that he has committed adultery and has, for the past few months, spent the most of his time in Ogden, drinking and as-sociating with questionable characters, and that on several occasions he has threatened to kill his wife, and has, in other ways, been cruel to her, she therefore prays that the bonds of matrimony be disolved, and that the custody of the three minor children be granted plaintiff, also that the court award her a portion of the defendant's real estate and money, and such other relief and alimony as the court may see proper to grant plaintiff.

The four boys who ran away from school on Sunday have been found at Shurtliff's ranch in Morgan county, as expected. They have been telegraphed for, but have not yet returned home.

NEWS NOTES.

The benefit ball Friday night in the Second ward amusement hall for Andrew Bowman, who departs for a mis-sion in a short time, promises to be a grand affair. The old Boyle building on Washington avenue, is being remodeled and fixed up inside for the new Ogden Im-plement house which will open up here about February 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Patsey Healy have gone to Seattle for a few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Noble have gone to Blair, Neb., to the bedside of Mr. Noble's brother who is seriously ill. A marriage license was yesterday granted to Samuel Rawson, 39, and Miss Amanda Hiatt, 18, both of Egin. Idaho.

Dr. A. W. Shields has returned to his home in Blackfoot Idaho.

CLEVER CAPTURE OF TOUGHS.

On Tuesday night F. E. Moore and E. C. Wainwright, two Salt Lake gen-lemen, came to Ogden and left their grips in the Union depot waiting room while they went up town on some busiess. On returning about a half hour ter they were surprised to find that heir three valises had disappeared. They contained catalogues, wearing apparel, a fine mandolin and other articles The of the value of about $100. department was notified of the affair and a description of some men who were suspected was given. Detec-tive Pender and Patrolman Burton had an idea where the men were, so the officers started out, and in less than an hour four hard-looking cases were arrested in a room in the "Little Broom dging house," three of them were in ed, and the other lay under one of the bunks, they were placed under arrest and taken to the city jail where they gave their names as George P. F. Roach, James Banks and Brown . H. Williams. The officers returned to the room and found part of the stolen goods in the beds, behind pictures and hid in other parts of the foom, but only one grip was found, so some old shacks in the rear of the lodg-ing house were next searched, and in an old out house which was securely halled up, the other two grips were discovered. The guartet had their hearing yesterday afternoon before Poe Judge Hall, and made a very weak defense, and the judge bound them over to the district court under $500 bonds.

Smallpox Scare Vanished into thin Air-Suit for Divorce.

Special Correspondence. Logan, Cache Co., Jan. 10 .- Drs. Parkinson and Ormsby, county and city quarantine physicians, respectively, today made a thorough examination of the case of suspected smallpox in the Short Line repair car, with the result that the patient, Christian Jenson, was released from quarantine and allowed to go his way. The affection with which he was suffering proved to be a skin dfsease, technically known as dermititis, so the smallpox scare has dwindled away. Nevertheless, all needful precautions will continue to be taken for the prevention of the introduction here of the dread disease. SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

Mrs. Alice S. Lundberg today filed suit in the First district court for divorce from her husband, Gustave Lundberg, alleging failure to provide as cause of action. She also asks for the custody of three minor children and for costs of suit. Lundberg is at present in Victor, Colorado. He was formerly a prosperous business man of this city, and gained some note as the inventor of a computing commercial scale.
