

AN ANSWER

TO SEVERAL QUESTIONS IN RELATION TO THE HISTORY AND DOCTRINE OF THE LATTER-DAY SAINTS AND THE SETTLEMENT AND PROGRESS OF UTAH TERRITORY.

Continued.

Pacific Isles.—In October, 1843, Elders Noah Rogers, Addison Pratt, Ben. F. Grouard and Knowlton F. Hawks started on a mission to the Pacific Isles. Elder Philip B. Lewis paid their passage as a donation to the Mission. K. F. Hanks died of consumption and was buried in the sea, the other three reached the Society Islands and were successful in establishing the gospel and baptizing upwards of twelve hundred of the natives. Elders James S. Brown, Alva Hanks, Whitaker and others subsequently followed to these islands, and continued their labors with commendable zeal and uniform success until the establishment of the French Protectorate; after which the French authorities expelled the Elders from the Islands, and prohibited them from ever returning, and compelled the native converts to discontinue their worship. This occurred in the year 1851.

Notwithstanding the constant scenes of persecution and the distress incident thereto which the Saints in Illinois endured, after the return of the Twelve from England, Elders were constantly sent to reside over the conference, strengthen and encourage the native Elders and extend the work of the ministry.

Elder Wilford Woodruff went to England in 1844, and presided over the British Mission. Upon hearing of the exodus of the Church from Nauvoo he returned in 1846; when Elders Orson Hyde, P. Pratt and John Taylor were sent to England. They returned early in 1847, to Council Bluffs, where they found the Saints encamped.

At the October conference in 1849, several of the Twelve Apostles and other Elders were sent on missions.

France.—Elder John Taylor visited Paris and established a small branch of the Church and had the Book of Mormon translated into the French language and published an edition of the same, but the stringency of the laws prohibited public meetings and measurably tied his hands. He also published a volume of a periodical entitled Etoile du Deseret. The work was continued in France by Elders C. E. Bolton and L. E. Bertrand until the latter was prohibited by the Prefect of police from preaching the gospel or attending meetings.

Elder Taylor also visited Hamburg and procured the translation and publication of the Book of Mormon in the German language, and a few numbers of a pamphlet, entitled "Zion's Banner." In Germany the mission was continued by Elder Daniel Carn, until expelled by the authorities of the free city of Hamburg. Subsequently Elders Geo. C. Riser, J. F. Secrist and Geo. Mayer were imprisoned and expelled the Confederation for attempting to preach.

Switzerland and Italy.—Elder Lorenzo Snow proceeded to Switzerland and Italy, and established branches of the Church and published the Book of Mormon in the Italian language, also pamphlets in the Italian and French languages.

In these labors he was assisted by Elder Joseph Toronto, from Utah, and Elders T. B. H. Stenhouse and Jabez Woodward, of the British Mission. Elder Stenhouse published a periodical, entitled "Le Redempteur," in French. Subsequently, the Swiss Mission was continued by Elders Daniel Tyler and John L. Smith. Elder Tyler commenced the publication of the Deseret in the German language, which was continued by Elder John L. Smith on his first mission. On his last mission Elder Smith published "The Reform" in the German. He also translated and published in the French language, Elder P. P. Pratt's "Marriage and Morals in Utah." An edition of the Book of Mormon in German was also published from the stereotype plates.

Some of the Cantons would not allow publishing, but allowed preaching, others prohibited preaching, but would allow publishing, and some would not allow either.

Scandinavia.—Elder Erastus Snow arrived in Copenhagen, Denmark, in June, 1850, and in September a branch of the Church was organized, which numbered fifty members. Elder Snow was accompanied by Elder P. O. Hanson and John E. Forsgren; the latter proceeded to Sweden and endeavored to introduce the work there, but was summarily banished. In 1851, Elder Snow had the Book of Mormon translated and commenced the publication of the Scandinavian Star. He also baptized and ordained three mechanics from Iceland, and sent them to their native land to preach the Gospel. In February, 1852, the Book of Doctrine and Covenants and a large edition of the Hymn Book were published, also a pamphlet of fifty pages entitled "A Voice from the Land of Zion."

Chili.—In 1851, Elders P. P. Pratt and Rufus Allen went on a mission to Chili, where they remained several months, not having the opportunity of even teaching in private, except in violation of the most rigid laws; they were obliged to return to California, where Elder Pratt continued to preach and publish until he returned to Utah.

Australia.—In 1849, Elder George A. Smith ordained Wm. Barrett an Elder, at Burslem, England, and set him apart to a mission to South Australia. Elder Barrett proceeded thither and commenced teaching the principles of the gospel and was enabled to sow the good seed which afterwards bore fruit.

Elders John Murdoch and C. W. Wandell arrived in Sydney, Australia, in October, 1851 and commenced to preach and publish concerning the Latter-day work, and in January 1852, organized a branch of the Church in Sydney, and published a pamphlet on the persecutions endured by the Latter-day Saints, and a periodical entitled Zion's Watchman.

Elders Augustus Farnham, Wm. Hyde, Burr Frost, Josiah W. Fleming and others landed at Sydney early in 1853. These missionaries extended their labors to Van Dieman's Land and New Zealand and continued the publication of Zion's Watchman.
