MORE CARELESS SHOOTING.

Narrow Escape of Reno Vance - His Horse Struck by Bullet.

Special Correspondence.
American Fork, Utah, July 26.-Reno, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Vance of the 2nd ward of American Fork, narrowly escaped being shot this morning by an unknown party, doubtless through carelessness. The boy was driving a horse-drawn wagon loaded with goods for the Chipman Mercantile company, he was started by a loud report of a gun and his horse started up on vigorous canter. They ran two blocks before they could be stopped, when it was discovered that one of them was severely wounded and bleeding profusely, being struck in the head by a bullet. The driver only escaped by the narrowest of chances, as he was in the line of the shot. Dr. Noyes stopped the wagon and took the boy to the hospital. The city marshal is looking for the shooter, although a violation of the city ordinance.

It is claimed that the defendants claim to own a certain spring which has been developed and the water flowing from it has been run into the main channel of Haight's Creek east of Kaysville, thus diverting a large quantity of water from the creek lower down, and diverted to defendants' lands through their ditches, and so on and so forth. The court is now hearing the case.

FIGHT AT THE SALT PALACE.

Bicycle Riders Have a Tropical Time - Three Suspensions.

THE RACES WERE SPLENDID

Pretty Exhibition in the Fifteen Mile Lap Race - Hot Finish in Tandem Handicap.

But for the timely interference of Officer Sperry, Manager Rishel and two or three others, Ben Green, the colored rider from Colorado would very likely have been severely handled at the Salt Palace track last night by a crowd of at least fifty angry men. As it was, he received a bad eye, a painful cut on the nose, a smash on the jaw and was then placed under arrest. After the excitement subsided somewhat, Referee John Sharp announced that Green, Gus and John Lawson were temporarily suspended from the track for their part in the disgraceful melee. The trouble started in the last lap of the postponed five-mile motor paced professional. Gussie Lawson had the pole following the pace of two or three other riders when Green came around him and deliberately cut down on him. It was impossible for Gussie to get out of the way because he was securely pocketed. Every person in the arena saw Green's foul work and waited breathlessly for the inevitable. It came with a crash and both men were thrown head long on the track and into the arena. Both were stunned for a moment but young Lawson was first on his feet. He was howling over with rage and yelled "Where is that nigger? Let me get at him for just a moment." and Gus jumped around like a madman finally landing a sharp kick on the colored man's nasal organ. Of course all this time Green was allowing his angry passions to arise and when Gus struck him he retaliated with a blow that put the speedy young Rishel to the back and out. Then the crowd, as one man, rushed for Green yelling: "Kill the cool! kill him! kill his head in." Green tried to defend himself and struck out with his right hand, but he was caught by the throat held him as in a vice until Officer Sperry reached the scene. Mr. Rishel and the officer separated the crowd and rescued Green from this dangerous embrace. Iver Lawson explained that he did not intend to harm the colored rider, but that he was provoked by the crowd and was well patronized and there are many who agree with him.

When the spill occurred in the five mile professional race last night, Billy King had a close call, but by keeping his head and by darting up the steep bank with lightning speed he escaped without a fall.

Ben Green, the colored rider, will in all probability be suspended from the track for his foul riding last night. Referee Sharp told him he would be kept off the track for the balance of the year. Green has the reputation of being an unclean rider. Charles Turville and Gus Lawson have each been charged with foul play. Referee Sharp is determined to stamp that kind of business out if he can.

The Ogden team has consented to play the proposed game with a picked team from Lagoon and the Salt Lake for a side bet of $1,000. Ogden's money is up and it only remains to set the date and put up the other $1,000.

The successor of Announcer Shearman at the Salt Palace bicycle meets is a success. The girls say he "has a charming voice and speaks so distinctly."

THE RACES.

The program aside from the imprudent features, was very interesting and furnished an excellent evening's entertainment for the 3,000 spectators present. The events were all good and wound up with hot finishes.

Samuelson, who is rapidly becoming the favorite was the scintillating star of the evening, and his work has solidly earned him the title of "The Young Utahman." He improved in every race meet and now has the best of the fifteen mile lap race by his heels with bull dog determination and greyhound swiftness from start to finish and forced the riders to go at a killing pace. He won the greatest number of laps, 41, which he gets $20. He also won the greatest number of miles, making $6 more and came in second to Vaughan.

His total earnings to the race are $41. King got third and Harry Gibson fourth. This race was one of the prettiest exhibitions that ever took place on the famous track.

Vaughan and Gus Lawson took first in the one mile professional tandem handicap. It was a race for keeps and ended in the sum time of 1:50.25.

Postponed five-mile professional motor-paced race, W. R. Lauchett first, W. F. King second, Gus Lawson and Ben Green disqualified, and no third or fourth named.

LAWSON COMING BACK.

Iver Will Remain Away Only About a Month.

After the races last night Iver Lawson, Bob Waite and Jack Green left for Buffalo. Iver says there is no place like Salt Lake, and that he will return very likely about September 8th or 9th. It is very likely that some of the fast easterners will return with Iver and there will be some interesting match races towards the close of the season. Manager Rishel told Iver last night that arrangements would be made to give him some races when he returned.

be on the slab for the locals and Borchers for the Lobsters.

What Borchers Did.

"George Borchers, who has returned to his position in what he terms the Ogden branch league, claims that on report that Jimmie Whalen and Geo. Hudson received big offers from the league he is connected with is false. You say for that those men are not to be assured a hundred or a hundred and twenty-five plunks but no more," he said before he left. We play on the co-operative plan and the players divide the gate. We take the 60 and 40 per cent basis, the winning team taking the long end. Base ball is handled for the "and" and not to allow three or four men to eat rich on the labor of the players. In one game last month the players won $44 apiece. Now that's the way to make money, and another thing, when the season is over there is always a job provided for the player. A man on this coast has nothing to show after the season is over. He has a few dollars in the bank, but the reputation he has made for himself and a hearty doing because he is going backward. I have got all the ball players on the coast, and will become a fixture in the International league. Bobbie McPhee and a number of the good ones of the Denver team are all with us, and doing well financially and they will all stick."

"Apropos of the above, a fan said to Stanley the other night: 'I hear that the boys are going to have a game between Stricklett, Courtney, Hanlon and others back with him to play in the International league. How about that?' 'You mean the Old Red Sox?' 'Yes, without the ghost of a smile, 'He's going to take their pictures.' - San Francisco Bulletin.

Sporting Notes.

His evening another league meeting is to go on record. Just what the balance is as yet a matter of doubt. There has been much talk of some radical changes with reference to the present schedule, but it is not likely that Ogden will consent to any change whatever. President Beardsley is heartily in favor of continuing down the games, form a new schedule and by admitting another team, start another season, and start it right. He believes that four or five games a week from now until the first of October would be a well patronized and there are many who agree with him.

When the spill occurred in the five mile professional race last night, Billy King had a close call, but by keeping his head and by darting up the steep bank with lightning speed he escaped without a fall.

Ben Green, the colored rider, will in all probability be suspended from the track for his foul riding last night. Referee Sharp told him he would be kept off the track for the balance of the year. The Ogden baseball boys were taken up the canyon last evening and treated to chicken dinner, Judge A. G. Horn and George Watts standing the expense. The team was very appreciated. Judge Horn acted as toast master, and Nagle answered the toast of "The Ladies," while Casey amended was toastmaster. The drive up the canyon only occupied about three hours - Ogden Standard.

Bill Morrow, ardent center fielder for the White Wings is making arrangements to go to California where he owns some property. He has had offers from Denver clubs but would rather go west and is now waiting to hear from that country. Morrow was released this week.

Salt Lake fans will be pleased to learn that little Ernest Asbury will be with the White Wings from now on. The youngster is a rattling good player and is improving right along with the stick.

This is what the Ogden standard has to say about the "roasts" Catcher has received from the fans here:

The Salt Lake papers and baseball fans have directed many little slurs at a member of the Ogden baseball team, claiming he struck a ball player with the east with a bat, and insinuating that the act was unprovoked. To give the standard readers an idea of the type of man the Ogden player hit, the following in relation to him is taken from the Denver News of Wednesday. It was a rattling good player and is improving right along with the stick. This individual referred to cannot be clubbed too often. The News says:

"Dirty Bill Wilson was yesterday run off the grounds of Broadmoor by half a dozen policemen. It did not take this number to show him the way, but nearly all the officers on the grounds seemed to take particular pleasure in boosting the good work along. Bill hasn't a grain of fight in him and his little game with Burt Davis was nothing more than the coarsest destruction of fourishing. Davis did the right thing at the right time. An umpire that will stand for any of Wilson's offensive sputtering deserves abuse. A riot seemed imminent when Wilson was asked by Davis to leave the grounds. The fans were unsparing in the epithets which they hurled at Wilson."

CRESCUS THE WINNER.

Is Now the World's Champion Trotting Stallion.

Cleveland, O., July 26.-Amid the enthusiastic cheers of nearly 10,000 people Crescius, world's champion trotting stallion, again demonstrated that he is the peer of all trotters by trotting a mile this afternoon over the Glenview track in 2:02 1/2. This establishes a new world's trotting record for both sexes placing the former world's record of 2:04, held by The Abbe, out of better than 2:05.

Owing to the heavy rains of last night the track was not in the best condition today, and it was about 4:30 p. m. before the track was deemed to be in sufficiently good shape to warrant making the attempt. At that time the sun's heat had been replaced by cool breezes. Even then there were few horsemen who looked for a mile better than 2:05.

After having been given several
