SENATE.

WASHINGTON.—The Senate met at noon.

The Vice-President laid before the Senate a letter from Senator Caldwell, saying that he had resigned his seat in the Senate, enclosing the copy of a letter that he had sent to the office of the Governor of Kansas. The resignation is to take effect immediately. He also sent a receipt to the Governor of Kansas, now in this city, to whom he handed a copy of his letter of resignation.

EASTERN.

CHICAGO.—About two inches of snow fell here last night.

A Washington special says the new Secretary of the Treasury, Judge Richardson, since his nomination, has been inundated with letters from business men in the leading northern cities, inquiring whether he intends to depart from the policy of his financial predecessor. Being personally interrogated he responded that he could not depart from the well established policy of Boutwell, and that he could not deviate from it if he would, because he regarded the letter of the President to the retiring secretary as mandatory on himself. He said this letter approved what had been done by Boutwell, as well as what that official proposed to do in future, and in it the President announced that the people of the country desired no change of financial policy, as certainly he did not himself.

NEW YORK.—Sheriff Brennan, yesterday, telegraphed Governor Dix, asking him if he had any communication to make in regard to Foster. The Governor replied briefly in the negative. This has driven all hope from the minds of Foster and his friends. Foster's spirits are rapidly breaking down. He passed the day moodily, his wife remaining with him from morning till night. Rev. Tyng called in the afternoon and prayed for some time with him, and Father Duranguette called and conversed with him. Foster refuses to see his children; he says he could not bear the interview. He has their portraits in the cell. He had his photograph taken to-day at the request of his wife and friends. His father and brother-in-law called on him to-day, as did also his sister. Friday next is the day fixed for his execution, and every hour increases the public interest in his case.

The Senate confirmed the following nominations.—John Goforth assistant Attorney General of the U. S., to take effect April 5th; David Noggle, Chief Justice Supreme Court, Idaho; R. P. K. NEW YORK, 24.—The proposed movement for a general strike among workmen for the maintenance of the 8 hour law is gathering strength. At a meeting of German shoemakers held yesterday, addresses were made favoring a strong organization so as to participate in the coming strikes. The international association proposes taking legal measures against employers who refuse to comply with the 8 hour law. Members of that body think that all sections and trades should strike this year to enforce that law.

The latest developments in the Goodrich murder in Brooklyn are that a mock marriage, in which the deceased was one of the principals, took place in his house a few weeks ago. The outraged woman afterwards discovered the deceit, and it is believed she murdered him. A woman's screams were heard by the neighbors on several occasions lately. Letters found on the lady contain it is said full particulars of the mock marriage, together with the name of the woman and the scoundrel who officiated. Two Brooklyn detectives have been searching the city all day to-day for the woman, but unsuccessfully. The inquest takes place on Monday night, when startling developments are expected.

Revs. Tyng, Beecher, and Hepworth preached on the Foster case yesterday. The two latter praised Gov. Dix's action. A woman fainted at the vivid description by the latter preacher of the hanging.

Harris and Stapleton returned the fire, killing Pat Vaughn, one of the ringleaders, and mortally wounding Pat McNamara. Harris and Stapleton subsequently went to Hannibal, where they were arrested.

WINNEMUCCA, Nev., 17.—A serious accident occurred a few miles west of this place, last evening. SAN FRANCISCO, 18.—Katie Gordon, the girl who charged her father, A. P. Gordon, with incest in Oakland, confessed to-day to the court that the case was a conspiracy on the part of her lover, Robinson, and herself, to shield the latter. She declared her father innocent, and said Robinson was the person who had had improper intercourse with her. Gordon was dismissed and Robinson kept in jail to answer to a charge of perjury. The feeling against him in Oakland is intense. Gordon received the hearty congratulations of his neighbors on his release and triumphant vindication.

EUROPEAN.

LONDON, 17.—Gladstone will probably resume the premiership in the Commons this afternoon. He stated last evening that he had received communications from the Queen, announcing that there was no prospect that the opposition would form a new government, to which he replied, placing his services at her Majesty's disposal. He was now engaged consulting his colleagues what steps they should take, and he proposed in the meanwhile that the House adjourn till Thursday.

Disraeli said he had informed the Queen that he was quite prepared to organize a new ministry, but could not undertake to carry on the government with the present Parliament.

The House then adjourned until Thursday.

In the Lords Earl Granville made a statement identical with that of Gladstone in the other chamber, and the Duke of Richmond repeated Disraeli's explanation. The sitting was then adjourned to Thursday.

LONDON.—A demonstration by the Irish population in favor of home rule for Ireland and amnesty for the imprisoned Fenians, for which arrangements have been making for some time, took place in Hyde Park yesterday afternoon, and was participated in by a very large number. In the scuffle which ensued, the arm of the soldier was broken.

A resolution was adopted at the beginning of the sitting, that the chamber would not adjourn until the subject had been disposed of. Figueras announced that the ministry had decided to stand or fall with the measure. Contrary to the general expectation the House resolved not to continue the debate, and subsequently, by a unanimous vote, passed the bill for the immediate emancipation of the slaves in the Island of Porto Rico. The announcement of the result was received with cheers. The bill declares that the Republic of Spain will preserve the integrity of the Spanish dominions, and provides that the emancipated slaves in Porto Rico shall enjoy all the political rights accorded to a citizen of Spain. The government took ample precautions against any disorderly demonstrations in the city.

The emancipated slaves will, however, be obliged to serve three years with their present masters or other residents on the island, and will enjoy the political rights of Spanish citizens after five years shall have elapsed. Indemnity will be paid to the slave owners, and is to be charged, exclusively, to the account of the Porto Rico budget.

Soon after the adoption of the abolition bill the dissolution of the Cortes was unanimously voted for, and the house broke up amidst great excitement.

WEST INDIES.

HAVANA, 10.—On the strength of cable dispatches from London the police here have arrested Austin Byron Bidwell, alias Warren his wife, and Harry Mun, a servant. Bidwell is supposed to be the principal operator in the recently discovered frauds on the Bank of England and answers to the description telegraphed by the London Police. Travelling with an American passport, he went through France into Spain, and reached Santander, where he embarked on a French steamer for Havana. The steamer arrived here on Saturday, when the whole party were taken into custody. Bidwell and his servant Mun are in jail and forbidden to hold communication with any one or each other. The lady was permitted to remain at the hotel, where she is under surveillance of the police. Although there is no extradition treaty between Spain and England, the authorities will send the whole party back to London if proper proofs are furnished, a detective is expected from England soon to identify and take in charge the prisoners. It is stated that the confession of Moyes the confederate now under arrest in London, fully implicates Bidwell in the forgeries.
