GOING TO LAW WITH A BRO-

THER "DARE any of you, having a matter against another, to go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?" - This question was asked of the Corinthians by the Apostle Paul. He mentioned to their shame a great evil that existed among them:

"But brother goeth to law with brother and that before the unbelievers.

This was forbidden to the formerday Saints, and is also forbidden to the Latter-day Saints.

In order to prevent the necessity of brother going to law against brother and sister against sister, the Lord, knowing the weaknesses of mankind and recognizing the need of established authorities among his people, for the settlement of dis. putes, organized tribunals, in the early days of this Church, to which all litigants within its fold might resort for justice and judgment, Until these tribunals were cal Society.
