LOCAL NEWS.

Thorough Bass and Harmony.-Next Thursday evening at 6 o'clock Prof. Careless will commence a class in thorough bass and harmony. This is a spiendid chance for leaders of bands, choirs and others to acquire a knowledge of the beautiful science of music.

Wants Employment.-Joseph Mc-Lachlan would like to obtain a situation as reporter, correspondent, bookkeeper, cashler, assistant architect or surveyor. His address is Logan, Cache County, Utah, where a card or letter from anyone desiring to secure his services, will find him.

----A Journalistic Change.-We understand that Mr. B.F. Cummings, Jr. has resigned the position of editor and business manager of the Utah Journal, published at Logan, and that the paper is gabout to change hands, John P. Smith, E. A. Stratford and John E. Carlisie becoming the proprietors.

Encouraging Result .- Another attempt at glass-making by Brother O. B. Shaw, on Saturday last, with an ordinary iron-molder's furnace, and after a six hours' heat, resulted in producing a light-colored glass, with a slightly greenish that, which, with the exception of a few white specks in it, due to the imperfect means of melting and manipulating the materials at hand, is beautifully transparent. It is by far the finest specimen more fully than any previous one the excellence of the silica used.
