EASTERN.

Fire on Board the Bark "Europa" and Loss of Life.

NEW YORK, 7.

A fire broke out to-day in the German bark Europa, at pier 43, East River. She was in the dry dock, being caulked, when a large quantity of hemp took fire. John Casey, caulker, of 92 Sheriff Street, was fatally burned, and John Severance, a workman, probably fatally. After a short time the flames were extinguished and the firemen examined the hold, when were discovered the horribly burned bodies of Thomas Ingraham, Lewis Sullivan, George Sell, Wm. Furlong and James McDonald, workmen employed in making the repairs. The Europa was engaged in the petroleum trade, and the timbers being saturated with the oil the flames spread with frightful rapidity.

Appointment.

WASHINGTON, 7.—The President to-day appointed Lafayette McLaws postmaster at Augusta, Ga., vice Charles H. Prince, superded under the tenure of office act. The previous appointment of McLaws to be postmaster at Savannah is thereby cancelled, and Postmaster Clark continues in that office.

Railroad Changed Hands.

DAVENPORT, Iowa, 7.—The Rockford, Rock Island and St. Louis Railroad was sold some days ago to the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road, which took possession today, and put its men in the management. The new officers are Robert Harris, managing director; Robert Harris, Jay Gould, Walter Trumbull, George Armour, L. O. Stoddard, J. M. Walker, and G. S. Hastin, directors; R. T. Dana, general superintendent. The purchase price was $1,800,000.

Wool Market.

BOSTON, 7.—Wool quiet, with a fair demand from manufacturers, and sales foot up 1,800,000 lbs. Prices are well maintained, with a firmer feeling on some grades. There is a very small stock of desirable fleeces and combing and delaine. Selections and spring California, sales of Ohio and Pennsylvania have been 354,000 lbs., including X and No. 1 at 38, 41, 45; XXX and Picklock at 47. The sales of Michigan were 95,000 lbs., at 37 and 38; sales of 30,000 Wisconsin at 35 @ 35½; sales of 25,000 lbs. of western at 38½; sales of 198,400 lbs. of combing and delaine at 47½ @ 50 for combing, and 3,545 for delaine. California wool has been sustained at full prices. Sales of 405,000 lbs. at 18 @ 32, and sales of 64,400 lbs., of pulled wool at 28 to 40.

Thrown from a Carriage.

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., 7. — Gen. Sherman and Secretary Cameron arrived from the west this morning and spent the day as the guests of Col. D. W. Flagler, commander of the arsenal. In the afternoon, while riding, the horses became unmanageable and threw the party from their carriage, inflicting a serious but not dangerous wound on Col. Flagler, and bruising the others of the party. This evening Gen. Sherman and Secretary Cameron left for Chicago.

A Fugitive Escapes $15,000 Fine.

DETROIT, 7.—E. G. Miller, the fugitive brought here to answer an old charge of smuggling escaped last night from the officers while being conducted from the Michigan Exchange to the jail.

A fire this afternoon at Lapeer, Mich., destroyed the Masonic block and several adjoining frame buildings; loss $15,000.

Yellow Fever Interments.

SAVANNAH, 7.—The interments, to-day, were twenty-two, of which thirteen were yellow fever, of the burials nine were colored.

FOREICK.

WEST INDIES.

Capt.-Gen. Jovellar Returns—A Merchant Suicides.

HAVANNA, via Key West, 7.—Capt. General Jovellar unexpectedly returned to this city yesterday morning. His sudden return, after the papers had said he went to make arrangements for a Winter campaign, excites comment. Some say he could not go beyond Las Cruzes on account of the rebels in that neighborhood; but the most probable reason is that he has received intelligence of his being superseded in the Captain Generalship. This change would make the present precarious situation still worse. General Jovellar, when he started from here, took $150,000 in gold with him to pay some of the arrears to the troops. Two battalions of Spanish troops are reported to have revolted for not receiving their arrears of pay.

The Diario emphatically denies the report that General Jovellar is to be relieved from the Captain-Generalship.

Carl Munder, commission merchant and importer of jewelry, committed suicide last night, by shooting.

TURKEY.

Bistics For Peace or Armistice.

BELGRADE, 7.—It is stated in diplomatic circles that Bistics, the Servian minister of foreign affairs, is making great efforts to obtain peace or an armistice.

CHINA.

Apology for the Yunnan Outrage.

SHANGHAI, 7. — An Imperial edict has been published expressing regret for Margary's murder, and affirming the right of foreigners to travel throughout the country and enjoy the protection of the authorities. An envoy, with a letter of apology for the Yunnan outrage, is to go to England at once.

Injury to Sheffield by the U.S. Heavy Protective Duties.

LONDON, 7.

The Sheffield Telegraph to-day publishes the following: In consequence of the injury to the Sheffield trade by America's heavy protective duties, representations have been made to Earl Carnorvan secretary for the colonies, suggesting that heavy import duties be imposed in retaliation on American products, both in England and her colonies. To these representations Lord Carnorvan replied, on Friday, that as will be seen on reflection, the proposal is not one which her majesty's government could entertain.

Last Night's Dispatches.

EASTERN.

Governor Chamberlain's Proclamation Unwarranted.

COLUMBIA, S. C., 8.—The State Democratic Executive Committee issued an address denouncing Gov. Chamberlain's recent proclamation as unwarranted by law or facts, and as issued to furnish a pretext for asking for troops. In response to a letter from Gen. Hampton, Chief Justice Moses says: He knows nothing to lead him to conclude that South Carolina is an armed camp or that any army is needed. Associate Justice Willard, and Judges Mackey and Cook, republicans, have written letters denying the knowledge of the statements in the proclamation. Mackey charges Chamberlain with conspiracy against the free ballot.

Another Reported Fraud.

PORTLAND, Me., 8.—There is some excitement in this city over the reported failure of John Randall, a prominent grain merchant, who had been ill some time, and intrusted his business to his son, the well known oarsman. He has left town, as is said, with a considerable amount of funds.

Strike of Railroad Hands.

The employes of the Portland and Ogdensburg R.R. struck last night for arrears of pay. They have five months pay due them. The strike embraces engineers, conductors, station agents, and lower grades of employes. They assert that if they are not paid to-morrow no trains shall run over the road.

Storm and Loss of Life.

NEW YORK, 8.—During a heavy storm at and about Whitehaven, Pa., yesterday, several persons were killed, trees uprooted and houses demolished.

More Cartridges for Turkey.

NEW HAVEN, 8.—The British steamer John Bromeil cleared yesterday for Constantinople with a cargo of fifteen million cartridges, valued at $375,000, for the Turkish government.

Yellow Fever Interments.

SAVANNAH, 8.—To-day's interments from yellow fever were eight.

Meeting of the Army of Tennessee.

WASHINGTON, 8.—Arrangements for the meeting of the army of Tennessee in Washington, October 18th and 19th, are completed. The annual address will be delivered by Hon. John M. Thayer, of Wyoming, who commanded a division in that army.

Unveiling of the McPherson Equestrian Statue.

The McPherson statue will be unveiled on the 18th, when Hon. John A. Logan, who commanded the army after McPhearson's death, will deliver the oration, and Gen. Hyckenlooper, corresponding secretary of the society, will give the history of the statue. The statue is equestrian, and very beautiful and chaste in design. Lewis F. Robins, of Cincinnati, is the artist. Extensive preparations are being made for the reception and entertainment of the members, including an excursion to Mount Vernon. The headquarters of the society will be at the Arlington Hotel.

WESTERN.

Centennial Anniversary of the Mission Dolores.

SAN FRANCISCO, 8.—The centennial anniversary of the founding of the Mission Dolores, of San Francisco, was celebrated to-day, with much spirit. The exercises included a grand pontifical military mass at the old mission grounds. The procession moved thence through the principal streets to the Mechanics' Pavilion, where musical and literary exercises were held, followed by the laying of the corner stone of the new church, near the old mission church. The procession included military, religious, benevolent and educational societies of the United States, State officers, and clergy of various denominations. The demonstration being of an unsectarian character, was imposing in numbers and appearance, consuming about two hours in passing a given point. Governor Irwin acted as president of the day, and everything passed off in the most satisfactory manner.

Concerning Crook's Command—Horrible Condition of the Troops.

CHEYENNE, October 4.—A man named George W. Lindsey, a prospector belonging to the Union Stock Yards at Chicago, arrived here to-day from Crook's command. He left the command at Custer City on Sunday, September 24th. He says the whole party were worn out, barefooted, infested with parasites, and in a horrible condition. On the 16th Crook sent out a party of 150 on a foraging expedition from the Little Missouri, where the command was at that time. The scouts of the party on the second day after leaving Crook discovered a village of thirty lodges of Sioux. The whole party lay in ambush until the next morning, when they attacked the Indians. After a slight resistance they fled to the rocks and trees. The Indians kept up the fighting until Crook's command arrived, when they sent a squaw out, and Crook, through an interpreter, told them if they surrendered he would not hurt them. The Indians had but one round of ammunition apiece left. During this time the bucks of the party made their escape. There were but seven surrendered. Yellow Head, a noted chief, was killed. The whole command then proceeded to Crook City. Their sufferings were terrible. Being out of provisions, they had to live on horse flesh for nine days. Crook procured provisions from the residents and kept on to Custer City, where they arrived last Saturday week. There they meet their supplies. Crook will await orders there, though he expects to be ordered to keep on the Red Cloud agency, which is about forty miles north-east of Laramie. There were over 2,000 men with Crook. It will take two weeks for them to be able to start again. There is general dissatisfaction among the troops against Crook, who is reported to have said that the soldiers were afraid of Sitting Bull; that a number of times he knew where the Indians were but would not attack them on that account.

CHICAGO, October 4.—A Sioux city special says the latest from the Upper Missouri says the Indians at the Cheyenne agency have nearly all left the agency and joined the hostiles. Of 7,000 at the agency there are but 200 remaining. The hostiles are encamped near the agency in a large body.—S. F. Chronicle.

Records! Records!

WE ARE NOW PREPARED to receive orders for BRANCH and WARD RECORDS, of a new and improved form, which has been approved by the presiding Bishopric and others.

We shall make them of four, five and six quires each, holding 2,040, 2,568 and 3,090 names each, respectively, and the price will be for four quires, $12.00, five quires, $13.00, six quires, $15.00. Each book will contain a suitable Index, and be well bound in Cloth and Russia Leather with ornamental lettering pieces for name of the Ward on the side. The book being of a large size, we do not think it advisable to make them over six quires.

Specimens can be seen at this Office, and orders received for size of book required.

Bishops in the Country desiring Records can order by mail, and we will make accordingly and forward to them.
