LOCAL NEWS.

Constitutional Convention.—The Constitutional Convention will meet, according to adjournment, at the City Hall, in Salt Lake City, on Monday, April 7th, next, at 7 p. m.

JOSEPH F. SMITH, President.
ARTHUR STAYNER, Sec'y.

Primary Conference. — The Primary conference of the Stake will be held in the 14th Ward Assembly Rooms to-morrow at 10 a.m., as usual.

Spring Goods.—See Hardy Brothers & Burton's new advertisement of spring prints, fancy goods, notions, clothing, hats, shoes, etc., in another column. Mr Burton has just returned from the East where he purchased largely for the firm.

Sketching.—Messrs. C. E. Dallin and John Hafen, artists, were out sketching to-day, taking as a subject the old mill wheel at the mouth of City Creek. This antiquated object is a favorite study with knights of the easel, who are perhaps the only ones who know how to appreciate its merits artistically.

Recovering.—The many friends of Brother B. Y. Hampton, who met with the misfortune of falling and breaking his leg, while trimming a tree on his premises last Monday morning, will be gratified to learn that he is progressing favorably toward recovery. It was the right limb that was broken, just above the ankle. Dr. Benedict waited upon the patient.

Providential Escape.—It is said that the snow slide which recently visited Pleasant Valley, and demolished the Meeting-house and another dwelling in its vicinity, came down in a zig-zag course, winding in and out among many houses, and only striking the two buildings which contained no inmates. The mighty torrent seemed to be under the control of an invisible power, which had in view the preservation of the lives of the people in its course.

Flood at Kanab.—A letter from Kanab, Kane County, dated the 12th, to President L. John Nuttall, states that it had rained in that region for five successive days and nights, up to time of writing. There had been another flood in the cañon, the swollen creek rushing down with great velocity and tearing out the town ditch, doing damage to the amount of at least $500. That part of the country has never received such a soaking as of late, from its first settlement.

New Firm.—We are informed that the Wasatch Woolen Mills, now owned by Messrs. Smoot, Sharp and Burton, are about to change hands, Messrs. James Dunn, of Provo, and John C. Cutler, of this city, being the purchasers. The figure of purchase is $13,000.

Z. C. M. I. will take the agency for the Provo Woolen Mills, which has been superintended so long and ably by Mr. Dunn, and for which Mr. Cutler has acted as the live and eheregetic agent in this city for several years. The new firm of Cutler & Dunn ought to do well, and undoubtedly will in their new enterprise.

Railway Accident.—It is reported that on Tuesday night, about 10 o'clock, the Utah & Northern passenger train ran over a cow about a mile and a half beyond Dillon, Montana, and the engine, mail and baggage cars, and one passenger car were thrown from the track. The engine was thrown on its side and badly damaged; the cars were not injured much.

The fireman was caught under the engine and one of his legs was severely scalded. The express messenger had his face cut, and an Indian who was riding on the platform between the mail and baggage cars, had one foot mashed. No one else was injured, but several had very narrow escapes. Another train was made up, and the mail, baggage and passengers transferred, which reached Ogden yesterday morning.

The Theatrical Outlook. — By courtesy of Manager Mc Kenzie we are enabled to give a brief horoscope of dramatic attractions, without dates, save in one instance, expected at the Salt Lake Theatre between this and next August. April 4th we will have Leavitt's European Specialty Company, all stars, and following at different dates the appended list, in order as follows:

Rice's Surprise Party—"Pop" with Mackay and Kate Castleton.
Leavitt's Gigantean Minstrels.
Ranch No. 10.
Herne, with "Hearts of Oak."
Evans, Bryant and Hoe's Meteors.
Mrs. Langtry.
"Young Mrs. Winthrop."
Devil's Auction Company.
Callender's Minstrels.
Lawrence Barrett.

The above all represent engagements, Barrett's being in August. Or course, other attractions are liable to come along, interspersing the above named.

GRAND AND PETTY LARCENY.

A CASE OF EACH BEFORE JUSTICE SPIERS.

A man named John Ford, the same who was fined $10 for drunkenness and profanity yesterday, made affidavit at the City Hall to-day, that he had been robbed of $45 in money and a watch, by two men named respectively William Haley and H. Newman. The men were arrested by officers Mallu and Pickett, and will have a hearing to-morrow before Justice Spiers.

Ford states that the men decoyed him out of Benites' saloon, Second South Street, into the back yard, yesterday morning, and having thrown him down, robbed him of his property. He yelled lustily and they decamped in haste, but were not fast enough to elude the pursuit of the police, who soon appeared on the scene and took the two thieves into custody. This case, if it holds good, constitutes grand larceny, and will go to the District Court.

Another case of watch-stealing was disposed of by Justice Spiers to-day. The offender was James Keaton and the victim the same John Ford who figured in the case above mentioned. It seems that Ford had two watches on, one of them loose in his right vest pocket, and the other on a chain in his left pocket. He asked Keaton for a chew of tobacco and the latter, after giving it to him, began handling his watch in a playful manner. Keaton walked away and almost immediately afterward Ford missed his watch and started in pursuit of Keaton, who gave it up, but was afterwards arrested by the police and sent up for 50 days.

It appears that he took the watch off the chain and pocketed it, and then attached the loose watch to the chain and put it back into Ford's left pocket. The stolen watch was valued at $16.50. Ford has not yet recovered the watch and money stolen from him by Newmna and Haley.

ARTISTIC WORK.

PLASTER PORTRAITS IN BAS RELIEF.

Mr. C. E. Dallin, the sculptor, has just finished two fine portraits in plaster, of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Popper, of this city, the order for which was given about three weeks ago. They are profiles in bas relief, and have occupied about a fortnight's time in actual work.

They are excellent likenesses, life size, and bust portraits. They will cost $75 apiece. Mr. Popper is delighted with the work, and says the likeness of his wife is perfect and could not be better. They will be placed in frames, probably of plush, and are made to rest on easels.

The modus operandi of such productions is as follows. The subject, unless a portrait or an ideal, sits before the artist from one to two hours, on an average, and a model thereof is first taken in clay. Over this is run plaster of Paris, and into the mould thus formed is run more plaster, thus taking the duplicate of the clay model. This done, the waste mould of plaster is chipped off carefully, piece by piece, and the work is complete. The artistic part of it, as is evident, is in the clay model, the subsequent processes being mechanical.

An Excellent Journal.—Readers of the Woman's Exponent cannot fail to be interested and profited by the excellent character of the matter to be found upon its pages. The editor is an indefatigable worker, and notwithstanding her varied vocations and the many calls of duty to which she is subject, her paper never lacks in topics which keep fairly up with the times and the established reputation of this valuable journal.

The March 15th number has in its table of contents the following: "On a Sea-shell found in Ruins in Arizona," verses inscribed to B. A. by Hope; "Be Careful What You Say," a didactic article signed M. F. C. M.; "Some Interesting Facts," by Dr. E. S. Barney; "The See-Saw," a poem by Mrs. M. F. Richards; "Willingness to be Taught," E. M. S.; "Improvement is our Aim," Tina.

The editorial is on the Washington Woman's Convention, and is followed by notes and an article from the Juvenile Instructor, written by its editor on the anniversary of Sister E. R. Snow Smith's Birthday." A letter from Berne, Switzerland, written by Mrs. Annie W. Cannon, describing the Relief Societies of the Swiss and German Mission, furnishes some items of interest, and is followed by a communication from C. O. Card, on the "Nickel Fund." The number concludes with an interesting dialogue or colloquy, by M. Elizabeth Little. The Exponent should be read by everybody.

A MAGIC POWER.

A Secret Agent at Work.

We were surprised the other day to learn that certain individuals in this city, who had for many years yielded to what was apparently an inevitable fate, were startled from their torpid condition of semi-stupidity, into asserting their right to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." These parties had been bound by an influence as powerful as it was incomprehensible. They knew not the cause, yet they were victims to the result. They were enchained, but they could not discern by what means they had been manacled. They had long sought deliverance in vain. Their appeals to science and the knowledge contained in books were equally unavailing. At last, relief came! It was not through any action of the President, or of Congress, for their trouble was not of a political character. Neither did the Governor's Message relieve them, nor any action of the new Legislature, for it was out of their power, and foreign to their jurisdiction. Yet they were suddenly and effectually released from the bondage they suffered, and placed on the equal scale of human happiness. "What was their trouble?" is what our readers will ask. They had been rendered helpless by that universal enemy —rheumatism. They had not walked or even moved without pain for years, and on the strong recommendations of friends "who had been there," they tried Britannia, and were at once relieved and radically cured. Britannia is what did it. It acted like a magic power. This secret agent quietly coursed through their veins, removed the cause of the trouble, liberated the captives from their doomed condition, and now they congratulate each other on the accomplishment of such a triumph, and the acquisition of the knowledge, by which they can at any time resist the encroachments of their common foe. We could give the names of the parties, but will wait a future time.

C. H. Lewis, druggist, of Cedar Vale, Kansas, writes: "I have sold 'Prickly Ash Bitters' for the past seven or eight years, and consider them one of the most reliable proprietary medicines I handle, as is evinced by the continual increase in sales and the almost universal satisfaction which attends their use." d&w

Remarkable Escape.

John Kuhn, of Lafayette, Ind., had a very narrow escape from death. This is his own story: "One year ago I was in the last stages of Consumption. Our best physicians gave my case up. I finally got so low that our doctor said I could not live twenty-four hours. My friends then purchased a bottle of Dr. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, which benefitted me. I continued until I took nine bottles. I am now in perfect health having used no other medicine."
