

BACK FROM A SOUTHERN TRIP.

Apostle A. O. Woodruff Returns From Arizona and Mexico.

HAD A PROFITABLE JOURNEY

Nothing New in the Notorious Apache Kid Killing Case—Just as Reported to President Snow.

Elder A. O. Woodruff, of the Apostles' quorum, returned last evening from an extended visit in Mexico and Arizona. He left this city on November 1st going directly to the "Mormon" colonies in Mexico. He visited among the mountain settlements organizing a ward at Chihuahua, and was joined at Juarez by President Joseph P. Smith and Elder Seymour B. Young. The party attended the quarterly conference there and then went to the Mariposa conference. Before returning they attended the Snowflake and St. Johns Stake conferences, where they found the people in excellent spirit. The best of tropical fruits grow in Arizona and the oranges raised there are not only earlier, but are of a superior quality to the oranges of Southern California.

Elder Woodruff enjoyed his trip exceedingly well and returns in good health. In regard to the killing of the notorious Indian "Apache Kid," he says that he said all there was to say in his letter to President Snow, which was published in the "News." He only adds that he thinks that the Indian has been absolutely identified as "Apache Kid."

President Smith was to have reached the city this morning, but he missed connections in some way. The St. Johns Stake academy was dedicated last Sunday. President Smith offering the dedicatory prayer. The building is a magnificent structure of pressed brick, costing $150,000. It is all paid for and reflects great credit upon the enterprising and public spirited citizens of St. Johns.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Theater will open tonight for Nat M. Brigham's second lecture. The wide advertising Mr. Brigham has received from his first effort ought to insure a good audience for tonight. Popular prices will prevail.

The Grand will be dark till Monday, when Haverly's minstrels appear. George Wilson, the old time and man, still remains a member of the organization.

MARKS AND BRANDS.

Attorney General Delivers an Important Opinion on the Subject.

The attorney general delivered an opinion today in reference to the law providing for the recording of marks and brands. The opinion was given State Auditor Morgan Richards, Jr., who, in a communication to the attorney general, stated the discovery had been made that in former years numerous marks and brands had been recorded to persons erroneously. "That is to say," said Mr. Richards, the same mark or brand has been given to more than one person." He asked whether in the re-recording of said marks and brands he had the authority to correct the errors that had come to light, and to inform persons affected thereby that they could no longer legally claim the marks and brands.

Attorney General Bishop advises that wherever it clearly appears that a mark or brand has been duly recorded to one party, and subsequently the same mark or brand is recorded to another party, it would be the duty of the state auditor to refuse to re-record the said erroneous mark or brand. The rights of the first party cannot be affected, even by an error or mistake of the officer recording the brand or mark of a second or third party. It is further held that an infringement of the rights of the first party would be liable to an action to prohibit the use of the mark or brand by any other person, no matter if an officer having charge of the records had recorded it in favor of the second or third party.

FUNERAL OF MRS. JAMES.

An Estimable Woman Buried from the Twentieth Ward Yesterday.

The mortal remains of Mrs. Mary Ann James, widow of the late George James, who died in this city on Monday morning last, were laid to rest yesterday afternoon in the city cemetery. The funeral took place at the Twentieth ward meeting house, being attended by a large number of the former friends and neighbors of the deceased.

The speakers' stand was draped in white and covered with potted plants, while the casket containing the remains bore evidence of many beautiful and appropriate offerings. Elder George P. Gibbs, first counselor to Bishop Romney, presided over the meeting, and the speakers were: Elders William N. Williams, David L. Davis and David R. Gill. Each speaker paid a high tribute of respect to the departed, and referred to her many noble traits of character, and particularly emphasized her unwavering fidelity to the cause of truth and righteousness. The music was furnished by the ward choir, under the direction of Prof. W. C. Clive. The places rendered were: "I need Thee Every Hour," "Come Ye Disciples," "Nearer My God to Thee," "Home, Sweet Home," "Elder Levi W. Richards offered the opening prayer and Elder D. J. Watts pronounced the benediction.

The pall-bearers were Samuel Allen, John James, T. F. Thomas, Alma Watts, John Allen and D. J. Watts, nephews, sons-in-law and intimate friends and acquaintances of the deceased and her family. At the grave-side thanks were returned to all who had rendered Mrs. James service during her life time and since her death, and the dedicatory prayer was offered by Elder T. F. Thomas, Sr.

NUMEROUS SHOTS FIRED.

Officers and Citizens on the Trail of James Fitzer.

Residents of Twelfth South and State street were startled shortly after nine o'clock last evening at hearing a dozen or more shots, which came from the direction of Thirteenth South. Upon enquiry it was learned that James Fitzer, recently discharged from the Montana state prison, and wanted here on the charge of attempted murder, had been seen by Deputy Sheriff Harries and Johnson, and two private citizens, with the news that the latter opened up a regular fusillade on the fugitive, who, they said, they saw crawl into a vacant barn near the roadhouse.

Fitzer is still at large, but the officers this afternoon thought they would have him before nightfall.

JUDGE TIMMONY'S COURT.

Six hard looking men were on the list today, each charged with vagrancy. They were arrested last evening by Officers Gillespie and Hunt. Four of the men were brought down by the Oregon Short Line depot, and those who refused to give them alms were

When the men were searched at the station, a dozen pair of "phony" spurs were found on them. Here is a sample of one of the cards on Lee: When you see a brother on life's rugged road, Who is struggling to carry his burdensome load, Remember the maxim so good and true: Do unto others as you would have them do unto you. Today a poor cripple appears for your aid. Don't turn with a sneer or a frown, For God in His wisdom is the only one who knows. But loved ones of yours, may go down.

This is another. To the public: Being crippled in such a manner that it is impossible for me to secure employment, I am trying to support myself by the sale of the enclosed card plaster. I ask your kind consideration of the circumstances, and assure you of my deep gratitude for your patronage. Price: Give what you wish.

But this one caps the climax: THE CRIPPLE'S PLEA.

Lift a little, lift a little; Neighbor lend a helping hand; To a paralyzed, sickened brother. Who for weakness scarce can stand.

What to thee, with thy strong muscle, Seems a light and easy load, Is to him a ponderous burden, Cumbering his pilgrim road. Please help a paralyzed man.

The "paralyzed man" was Tom Lee, and when arrested the "unfortunate cripple" was dancing a jig in a saloon. The case against the "paralyzed man" was continued until tomorrow afternoon. The others were given three months each at hard labor.

PERSONAL.

HANDIWORK OF LITTLE FOLKS.

Beautifully Displayed at the Free Kindergarten Exhibit Today.

IT WAS A GALA AFFAIR.

Tots Enjoy Themselves Immensely in the Midst of a Scene of Artistic Splendor.

It was gala day at the Free Kindergarten today. For weeks the little ones, under the efficient charge of Miss Davis and her able assistants have been busy making kindergarten gifts for their parents, and the results of the industry of the little tots were this morning displayed on a great Christmas tree, while the parents, with a number of the kindergarten teachers from other schools and other visitors were present to enjoy the scene. Nearly forty children were present, in best attire, and with faces beaming with happy anticipation. The opening exercises consisted of the singing of several of the kindergarten songs and the narration of the story of Christ's birth by Miss Davis, after which the blinds in the room were drawn down and the myriad wax candles on the tree lit to give color to the scene.

When all were lighted the children in separate groups formed a ring about the tree singing a Christmas song as they circled round it. Then the candles were blown out and each child was given the articles made by his hand to present to the parents. Afterwards came the children's surprise—the distribution of presents—each child receiving a framed crayon copy of a classical picture, and an outline picture book.

They were generously donated by Mrs. Simon Ramberger and Mrs. J. E. Ramberger, the former giving the books and the latter the pictures. These last were framed graciously by Mrs. MacMahon, and together with the books made a most desirable possession for the little ones.

The exercises ended with singing by the children. The school has been invited to be present at the Congregational church next Thursday to enjoy another Christmas tree.

A delightful entertainment was given by the University Kindergarten on Thursday night. The event occurred at the State Normal building and was under the direction of Miss Mary C. May. The feature of the evening being a Christmas tree, which was decorated with numerous articles made by the hands of the pupils for their parents. The tree was lighted with small electric globes and wax candles, and a brilliant showing. The kindergarten songs were sung by the children and the story of the birth of Christ was related by Miss May. There was a dance around the Christmas tree and the presents were afterward distributed to the parents of the children who were present. The affair was a most enjoyable one.

ELDER JORGENSEN BETTER.

Recovering from Smallpox in Liverpool—Elder Haffen Down With It.

A letter from President Platte D. Lyman of the European mission, received at the office of President Snow, conveys the statement that Elder Jorgensen, who was in a hospital at Liverpool suffering from smallpox, is now convalescent and will be around in a few days.

The letter further states that Elder John L. Haffen of Sugar House, who went to Europe in the same company as Elder Jorgensen, is in a hospital at Berne, Switzerland, suffering from smallpox. Elder R. T. Merrill of Smithfield was taken to the hospital with him because he had been exposed, although the disease had not broken out on him.

RESERVOIR SITE ENTRIES.

Decision Thereon Made at the General Land Office.

Abuse of the Existing Law Will Not be Available to the Advantage of Those Doing It.

Washington, Dec. 21.—The commissioner of the general land office has rendered a decision, holding that the filing of reservoir site declaratory statements in the West upon the public domain with the intention of constructing reservoirs, is done with the understanding that filings or other adverse entries will be allowed by the general land office during the pendency of the reservoir declaratory statement and take precedence of it in the event that the party first filing does not comply with the law.

This ruling on the part of the commissioner is the result of information reaching him of an alleged abuse of the existing law permitting the filing of declaratory statements. It is said that many persons avail themselves of the right merely to appropriate land thereunder, having no intention of constructing reservoirs, thus preventing in the mean while the initiation of other rights subject to a non-compliance with the law under the first filing.

AFTER THE GROUT BILL.

Stockmen Oppose the Measure Now in Congress.

Washington, Dec. 21.—The Senate committee on agriculture today continued its hearing on the oleomargarine bill, the only witnesses being opponents of the bill. The first of these was W. W. Miller of the Armour Packing company of Kansas City, who attacked the creamery organization as the authors of the pending bill and accused them of furthering their own interest by participating in politics.

J. S. McCoy, a member of the Kansas City live stock exchange, said that if

The fat of beef cattle could not be manufactured into oleomargarine there would be an average loss of 12 per cent, and on hogs of 20 cents per head. On the beef cattle of the United States at this rate there would be a total loss of $5,000,000 on cattle and of $7,000,000 on hogs. He said that experts had testified that the ingredients of oleomargarine are healthful and nutritious and that the coloring matter used in coloring oleomargarine was used for the same purpose in butter. He pronounced the bill selfish and unjust and an effort in the direction of ultra-class legislation.

HEAVY STORM RAGING.

It is Sweeping Down the Atlantic Coast—Schooner Wrecked.

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 21.—A severe storm prevails today on the coast between Cape Hatteras and Henry. The wind blows at 40 miles an hour and increasing hourly.

On account of the heavy sea, the North Atlantic squadron was prevented from leaving the roads this morning. All the small craft have sought shelter.

Heavy rains accompanied the storm all along the Virginia coast. Snow is reported at Charlotte, N. C.

Cape Henry, Va., Dec. 21.—A report was received by telephone from the Dismal Neck life-saving station, eight miles south of here, that the heavy storm prevailing has blown ashore the schooner Jennie Hall, Captain Lamson, bound from Trinidad to Baltimore, laden with asphalt. The captain and one of the crew have been drowned, and the vessel is being pounded to pieces.

Duer to be Senator.

St. Paul, Dec. 21.—A Helena, Mont., special to the Dispatch says: It is deemed more than possible that Charles E. Duer of Fort Benton, may be chosen U. S. senator from Montana for the short term. Duer is a pioneer of the early sixties, a large sheep owner and head of the famous stockmen's national bank. He is an old-line Democrat and a warm friend of Senator Clark. He will probably receive several Republican votes from cattle counties; certainly three Republicans from Choteau, his home county.

Will Have a Ball.

Washington, Dec. 21.—Secretary Hitchcock today granted the inaugural committee a commission to hold the coming inauguration of President McKinley in the pension building. The spacious court of the pension office with its architectural beauty and enormous proportions, is well fitted for the inaugural ball. It has been used on former occasions.

Another Candy Poisoning.

Everett, Wash., Dec. 21.—An attempt to poison at least one member of the family of W. B. Bell by means of poisoning candy has come to light. Mrs. Bell discovered in a refrigerator, the cover of a large pill, partly filled with chocolate drops, placed exactly where the family candy box was kept. The candy was taken to the hospital with him because he had been exposed, although the disease had not broken out on him.

CLOSE FINISH AT TANFORAN

Greyfield, Ridden by Dangman, Got the Decision by a Nose.

The Race Was Thought by Many to be a Dead Heat—Weather Was Fine, Track Slow.

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 20.—The handicap at Tanforan today resulted in a close finish. Greyfield, ridden by Dangman, getting the decision by a nose from Greenock, with Tommy Burns in the saddle. This was Burns's initial day. Many people thought the race between the two horses was a dead-heat. The weather was fine, but the track slow. The victory of Alas, a 5 to 1 shot, over Walkenshaw, the favorite, in the fifth race, was the surprise of the afternoon.

WHAT JEFF EXPECTS TO MAKE

He Figures on Profits to be Realized in His Coming Contest.

Champion Jim Jeffries is already figuring on the profits of his coming contest with Gus Ruhlin at Cincinnati in February. In a letter to a friend in this city he says:

"I suppose it will cost $5,000 to $10,000 to square the theaters for which we are booked, because I will have to take a month's salary for the mill, but $5,000 or $10,000 is a long way away, and I'm out for all the money I can win fairly. I think I'm the best fighter in the world. I think I've proven that by beating John L. Sullivan in that respect."

"I'll but your jaw if ever you make a proposition of that kind to me again." But, alas, those days have passed.

Jim is right about getting the money to say about the present day champion, but we must all admire. His name has never been attached to the slightest breath of suspicion, and I think he intends to follow the footsteps of the once mighty John L. in that respect. Sullivan was honest, just, when it came to ring matters. The writer remembers an incident when Sullivan fought Slade, the Maori, Jim Mace, who was handling Slade, went to Sullivan with the proposition to let him (Sullivan) keep all the gate receipts if he would agree not to knock Slade out in four rounds. With the snarl of a tiger Sullivan turned upon the old-champion and said: "I'll but your jaw if ever you make a proposition of that kind to me again." But, alas, those days have passed.

About Mayor Harrison.

The Denver Post has the following to say about the Mayor Harrison of Chicago, and prize fights:

"When on the last day of October, 1893, Carter Harrison was shot the city of Chicago lost a man who could have been mayor of Chicago forever if he had been killed. His son, Carter, Jr., the present mayor of Chicago, seems to be following his father's footsteps and bids fair to be mayor as often as his father was. He is a fighter, and he has been in the city council last Monday night prohibiting glove contests, he says it is all a piece of sentimental business, and not binding on him whatever, and issued a permit for Edwy Carroll to give a show next Friday night at his private residence. He will probably let him (Sullivan) keep all the gate receipts if he would agree not to knock Slade out in four rounds. With the snarl of a tiger Sullivan turned upon the old-champion and said: 'I'll but your jaw if ever you make a proposition of that kind to me again.' But, alas, those days have passed."

McConnell Knocked Out.

San Francisco, Dec. 20.—Otto Cribb, an Australian welter weight, knocked out Frank McConnell of this city in the fourth round tonight before the Columbia Athletic club. The fight was a fast one. The Australian was the aggressor and puzzled McConnell with a series of swift lights on the body and face. McConnell was put out with a right on the jaw.

Football at Provo.

The football team representing the Salt Lake Business college has gone to Provo to play the Garden City team. The Provo boys have made elaborate preparations to entertain the visitors, and will give a ball in their honor. The home team's line-up is as follows:

ELECTRIC FLASHES.

A Berlin dispatch says that Von Meerschmidt Hullesem, the chief of the criminal department, who was suspended in connection with the Sternberg trial, died today.

Philip D. Armour of Chicago, who, after an illness of several weeks, suffered a slight relapse last night was considerably better today. No apprehension is felt by his friends.

The three lower floors of Sears, Roebuck & Company's five-story warehouse in Chicago, were burned out this afternoon. The loss amounts to $50,000.

By the explosion of a large boiler at Blankenbecker's saw mill, Sneedville, Tenn., today, Wm. Edwards, engineer, and Pleasant Trent, fireman, were instantly killed. Jesse Mahan and Lee Gordon were fatally injured.
