

BOUT EVERY NIGHT IN PHILADELPHIA.

There Are Now Twelve Clubs in Running Order in Quaker City.

M'COVERN CAN HAVE A MATCH

For a Dozen If He Likes—May Meet His Old Rival, "Young Corbett" Again.

If County Attorney Christensen were in Philadelphia and held the same position there that he holds here, he would have his hands full in the fighting game.

Slowtown seems to take to the boxing game like ducks take to water. There are 12 organized clubs in the Quaker City andights, of the six-round order, are booked every night.

A Philadelphia fight fan has taken the pains to look up the different clubs with a view to making matches. He writes as follows:

The indications are that this will be a jolly winter for the Queensberry sport in this vicinity. Another fortnight will see the season opened in all its bloom and glory.

The other who wants to come here and play up a few stray frogskins for pampering his lean man or being pummeled will do well and get off scot-free.

No less than fifteen clubs will be running before the chilly zephyrs of October set in.

Here's a list of clubs which will do up show in winter: National, Highgate and Kensington, Saturday nights; Washington Sporting club, Monday nights; Southwark, Tuesday nights; Mayan Club, Wednesday nights; Broadway, A. C., Thursday nights; Keystone and Franklin, Friday nights.

And there's a boxing show every night except Sunday. Some of the halls are laughable. They are so small that the sports have to crawl in sideways, but when a pugilist comes along he's a real romp in the sporting world and will spend a quarter to see six round bouts with the most ridiculous amateur imaginable.

If Terry Corbett and his manager are anxious to prove that the once "terrible" pugil is still in the pugilistic running I have it made ready and anxious to make good.

Terry can have at least two contests with local boys here, just to show that he is not out of the ring, among them.

Then if he wants to go six rounds with Young Corbett or Abe Attell the gentleman who asks me to see about putting Terry in the ring.

Terry is always a great drawing card here and I still believe he can draw to the full capacity of any hall in town.

With Young Corbett and his manager here Terry's game is among the hundreds of philadelphian fighters Harry Lewis or Uncle Russell, he would draw a gate that would pay him for running.

Terry and Young Corbett would break in records, and I think Philadelphia would give a throw to see these old pro ex-lambs in the merriment, merry for fifteen minutes.

Here's luck to you, Bill.

Not Fatal.

No Matter What Doctors Say—We Know That Heart Trouble in Many Cases Can Be Cured.

There are seven main features of heart disease, viz.: (1) Weakness or Debility; (2) Rheumatism or Neuralgia; (3) Valvular Disorder; (4) Dilatation; (5) Enlargement; (6) Fatty Degeneration; (7) Protrusion.

Documentary evidence will prove thousands of so-called "incurables" have been absolutely cured by Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure.

Patients often have no idea their disease is heart trouble, but ascribe it to Indigestion, Liver Complaint, etc.

Here are some of the symptoms: Shortness of breath after exercise, Smothering Spells, Pain in Chest, left Shoulder and arm. Discomfort in Lying on one side. Fainting Spells, Nervous Cough, Swelling of Feet and Ankles, Paleness of Face and Lips, Palpitation, Nightmare, Irregular Pulse.

"I have great faith in Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and speak of its merits whenever opportunity presents. I can now get up and down stairs without difficulty three weeks ago I could hardly walk one block." One year later—"I have punched their ribs to good advantage and had no trouble. Attendance, 1200.

Philadelphia 7 7 2
Batteries—Eubanks, Kitson and Down, Heyne, Waddell, Bender and Schreier.

Corbett that works in a bank, and I think he is one of the cleverest fellows I ever met. I will take him over to Saenger's where Burke was stopping, and hopefully get the gloves on with him.

The next bout is with Jim Jeffries on the gloves, and the way that Jim showed up made even so old a veteran as Burke open his eyes in surprise. When he began boxing Burke said, "I'm going to give him some local flavor, and knock him out." Delaney had convinced us that all that Delaney had said about him was true.

When Delaney went to Carson City to train Corbett for Fitzsimmons, he went to Jim and said, "There is big strong fellow down in Los Angeles named Jeffries, and I think he will be just the man to work with you here."

Jeffries was sent for and remained with Corbett till the time he was training for Fitzsimmons. Jeffries and Delaney went to Frisco and Woods was taken under their wing. Woods came east and Billy Delaney had long talks with him.

Now comes Kaufman as his third man to give heavyweight honors, and if Billy will be successful two big words of having trained and managed these world's champions will never be equaled in ring history again.

Here's luck to you, Bill.

DUCKS NEXT SUNDAY.

Hunters Getting Ready for the Festive Bird-Slaughter Expected.

Thousands of duck hunters are getting ready for the opening of the fall season this week. The market men and stores are now doing a big business in sale of shot guns and ammunition.

A hunter does not belong to a gun club, but when he gets a gun he is mighty sly. Whether the gun is to be used at shooting, hunting, fishing, or whatnot, the land is taken up. Many now clubs have been organized and all places will be crowded Sunday.

I am not in the habit of saying my boy, but I am. "Neither is that one of that kind, but he is a good boy." Mr. Hughes has not allowed any of us to want for anything, and when he has a swelled head over his many ring victories and I don't think he even will get that way. I sat down with him and thought Britt, and from the first round I felt certain Britt, while I did in the last round of all, he does not throw his money away. He has got a swelled head over his ring victories and I don't think he even will get that way.
