NEW YORK, 6.—The city complete—Bosch, democrat, 77,188; Churchhill, republican, 47,800.

It is rumored that at Albany both parties claim the legislature.

The Tribune estimates the democratic majority at from 10,000 to 20,000. The State is doubtful, perhaps a tie; Assembly, 8 to 12 democrats.

The Tribune concedes the State to the democrats by about the same majority as in 1876, namely 15,000. The Senate seems to be republican by a majority. The Assembly is undoubtedly democratic.
