four years. There is another store at 15 and a second-hand store at 38, but the upstair rooms are empty. No 42 is a cigar store but the upper rooms are vacant. Another store is located at 42 and has been open just two months. At 53 there is the notorious Americus club. The old Green Light by colored men. The old Green Light saloon is still there but all the up-stairs part of the building and at 53's is empty, deserted by the women who have scattered or gone to the "stock-ade." The same condition of affairs exists at 60 and 62 and the place where Ada Wilson had a resort, 33, is empty. Gradually business interests are tak-ing a footheld on the street and it is predicted that before long it will be-come really respectable.

The local land office is being smoth ered with letters and telephone communications from all over the state and city regarding the opening of the land for entry under the enlarged homestead, or Smoot act. The inquiries are more often in regard to Boxelder, Tooele, Jueb and Millard counties, those coun-ties seeming to be most favored by farmers who intend going into dry-farming more extensively. The officers in the land office know nothing at present as to the date when these lands may be filed on, though, with the people who are inquiring after them, they ex-pect that something will be announced from Washington in the near future. or Smoot act. West, the contractor, and the im-provements are expected to cost about $35,000. The building has a frontage of 68 feet on Second South and is 272 feet deep. At the same time that this addi-tion is being built the company will renovate the interior of the present building and also make a few changes, the whole of which will cost about $35,-000.

REAL ESTATE MEN WORKING.

The real estate men are pushing things in the line of success for their annual outing which comes on the 29th inst. The number of prizes is steadily increasing, as is the public interest. which points to a record-breaking attendance at Saltair on that day. Spe-cial attention is called to the fact that the profits of this excursion and outing are to be used to continue and enlarge the exposition of Utah's resources at the chamber of commerce, and for the promotion of Salt Lake's general prosperity. Under the circumstances it is everywhere felt that the real estate men ought to be supported by the public, and no doubt a large and healthy sum will be realized.

had been placed in the jewelry box. W. T. Rowe one of the proprietors, said he was awakened about 3:45 this morning by a telephone message from the watchman. He dressed and hur ried to the store, arriving there at 4.15 when he learned that the watchman in making his rounds had noticed a plank leaning against the window in the Kearns alley on the north side of the store. The window is about two feet by three feet and investigation showed a broken light. He then tried to get in the back door, but before he could do so the burglar was alarmed and made his exit through the front door, which he left wide open. From the fact that he left the plank where he did he is supposed to be a novice at the business. The hole in the window is only large enough to admit a small man. He used a com-mon glass cutter in cutting the glass mon glass cutter in cutting the glass away from the jewelry boxes, on one of which only one cut had been made, but the glass in the other was cut out clean. Another attempted burglary was re-ported last night at the home of Wil-liam Armstrong, 50 Seventh East. During the absence of the family the transom of the back door was broken, in the effort apparently to get inside the house. Finger marks were plainly scen all over the paint, but it appeared as if the intruder promptly vacated owing to the early return of the oc-cupants, for there was no sign of any disturbance nor was anything missed disturbance nor was anything missed in the house.

MONUMENT UNVEILED.

Memory of the Late President Willard Richards is Perpetuated.

The memory of the late President Willard Richards was appropriately observed and honored today by the unveiling and dedication of a splendid monument recently erected to his name in the city cemetery by some of his sons. Toduy being the one hundred and fifteenth an-niversary of his birth, a number of his descendants and near relatives met at the grave, at 10 oclock this morning when the hymn "When first the glorious light of truth burst forth in this last age" was sung, after which the mon-ument was unveiled by Willard B. Rich-ards. President Joseph F. Smith then made a short speech in which he re-ferred to the many good qualities and failinfulness of Willard Richards. The services were then closed by a dedica-tory prayer which was offered by President Joseph F. Smith. and dedication of a splendid monument
