

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

High Council.—The members of the High Council are requested to attend the Council House, to-morrow (Friday) evening, at half-past 7 o'clock.

WILLIAM W. TAYLOR, Clerk.

Stake Conference.—The Utah Stake Conference will convene at 10 a.m. on Saturday, the 28th inst., at 10 a.m.

Will Open.—The Brigham Young Academy, at Provo, will open its annual term on Monday, the 30th inst., at 9 a.m.

Closed for Stock Taking.—On Tuesday next, Z. C. M. I. will close for stock-taking. Patrons of the institution will take notice and act accordingly.

Purse Found.—The owner of the pocket book, advertised in our columns last evening, will please call on our office and get her property. It was brought in this morning.

A Fine Likeness.—A fine portrait of George C. Cannon, a window of Savage's Art Studio. This is a crayon work, and is a very fine likeness of the rising young artist, John Hafen, of this city.

Home Again.—Hon. Wm. Jennings has returned from his two-week visit to Soda Springs. We congratulate him on the improved state of his health, as manifested in his looks, and bid him welcome home.

Shot and Killed.—A special to the New York Herald, from the U. S. R. R. states that a man named Jackson was shot and killed there about a quarter to 10 o'clock this morning. The person who killed him was named Fisher. There had been an old grudge between the two, for three or four years, and it is said Fisher acted in self-defense.

Severe Illness.—We regret to learn of the illness of Dr. Ellen B. Ferguson, who is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatic fever. On account of her sickness she will be unable to give any attention to her professional duties at the Conservatory, until a week from next Monday. Pupils will please take notice.

Board of Equalization.—All concerned should read the notice of Recorder Caine, respecting the city assessment for 1880. The City Council will sit as a board of equalization on Monday the 30th inst., at 2 p.m., to determine all complaints made in regard to assessments, and also to hear and consider petitions for remitting or abating the taxes of insane, idiotic, infirm and indigent, (an amount not exceeding $5 for the current year).

Pleasant Grove Items.—A correspondent to the Enquirer, from Pleasant Grove, gives the following bits of news in that locality:

Wm. Ashton, Esq., of Pleasant Grove, left on Monday, August 16, with his family, for Ashley Fork, where they will reside permanently. Mr. Ashton holds the office of assessor and collector for the county of Utah. Our neighbors may well feel proud of their accession. We wish Mr. Ashton and family continued success in their new home.

Rishon A. Gardner, of West Jordan, sold his fine grist mill to J. Erickson of Cottonwood, on Monday, Aug. 23d.

Cooper Bros. are erecting a fine grist mill of rock and brick in place of the old one.

The Old Telegraph smelting works will close sometime during the present month (August), for how long, however, rumor does not say.

"Forget Me Not."—A medium-sized audience witnessed the second performance of the Piercy combination on our city last evening. The play "Forget Me Not" is in some respects an inferior production to "Deception," but every character in it was sustained in an admirable manner, and the critical audience was thoroughly satisfied with the evening's entertainment. The play is peculiarly French in its character, and is full of the dramatic situations and tableaux in which the latter piece abounds. Its dialogue, however, is much less terse, the language being elegant and abounding in wit and repartee. The leading part was sustained by Miss Kate Denman, who carried off the honors of the occasion by her really superb impersonation of the crafty, unscrupulous female gamster. It is a most difficult character to represent, but was rendered in a faultless manner. In the last act particularly, where "Gamie" by fear of meeting the desperate man whom she had ruined and who was bent on her destruction, her acting was grand beyond description. Miss Eleanor Carey enacted her part with care and fidelity, and fully sustained her reputation as a first class actress. The other lady characters were excellently presented. Mr. Samuel Piercy as the indolent but good hearted English aristocrat was very good, playing all through with grace and finish. Mr. John Wilson made a hit in his remarkably fine impersonation of the Italian Prince. His broken English, and his extreme gallantry and susceptibility were all received by the audience with thorough satisfaction, as true to nature in every respect. Mr. Barrows, the comedy man of the company, appeared in a new role—the wronged and revengeful Italian, and acted exceedingly well. The minor male characters were all faithfully presented, and the whole performance from first to last was an unquestioned success, deserving of better patronage than it received.

This is really a first class company, and those who fail to see them miss a dramatic treat not often offered upon the Salt Lake stage.

Romeo and Juliet.—The performance to be given at the Theatre this evening is an unusual attraction. It is seldom we are favored with a Shakespearean visitation in these days, the public are always ready to appreciate one of the immortal bard's productions. "Romeo and Juliet" is a beautiful tragedy, a favorite everywhere, and this evening it will doubtless be rendered in exceptionally fine style. Mr. Piercy who is now an established favorite with our public, will enact "Romeo," a part in which he is said to be almost unsurpassed. Of his delineation of this character the Chicago Tribune has the following:

"The scene at the tomb was carefully acted. Juliet was fortunate in having one of the best Romeos we have seen here for some time. Mr. Piercy played the role. Instead of treating us to a picture of weak sentimentality and nauseating effeminacy, he gave us just such a lover as Juliet would be likely to die for, a character vigorous, passionate, impetuous, manly. Where he murders Tybalt he gave a fine piece of acting, and won a recall. As the curtain rose we were glad to notice something that other actors would do well to emulate. Instead of coming in front of the footlights to bow his acknowledgments, he maintained the illusion of the scene, which terminates with the death of Tybalt, by assuming an expression of horror at the deed."

Mr. Lewis Morrison, who created such an impression by his fine acting in Tuesday evening's "Deception," will assume the role of "Mercutio," one of his specialties; he will perform it to perfection. Mr. John Wilson will play the fiery "Tybalt," a character to which he is well adapted, and the old favorite, Mr. J. H. Vinson, will personate "Friar Lawrence." Mr. Barrows, the talented eccentric comedian, will double on the parts of Peter and the Apothecary. Other male characters by the gentlemen of the company, excepting that of "Capulet," which will be played by Mr. Wilton, of the Salt Lake Dramatic Association.

The ladies will be cast as follows: Miss Carey as "Juliet," Miss Kate Denman as the "Nurse," Miss Wetherill as "Lady Capulet," etc.

It is a fine cast, and the performance will no doubt be greeted by a crowded house.

Back Again.—Our genial friend, Justice A. C. Pyper, has returned from his four days' trip to Provo Valley. He was accompanied on the journey by Messrs. Joshua Midgley, J. R. Walker, and Louis Hook, the party taking their own team and "roughing it" by the way. They came back via Park City, where they remained a quarter of an hour, and, like visitors to Salt Lake, who remain here a day and learn all about the "Mormons," they return well laden with information respecting that locality. However, our tourists made good use of their time in the Park. The Judge informs us that the Empire Mining Works are booming. A large smelter is being erected, and machinery is ready waiting to be put in. Mr. Liddell, of this city, is manufacturing brick for the Empire. His machinery turns out 25,000 brick per day. A great number of teams is engaged at the mining works at present.

While the Judge was sauntering up the street in Park City, he was met by a sombre looking individual, who was whittling. "Aint your name Pyper?" he asked. "Do you remember fining me once?" "I do not," again replied the Judge. "Well," said the whittler, "you were mighty hard on me, Judge." "I don't remember anything about it," said the Judge, and they separated. Soon after this our friend encountered another person, who said, "Don't you remember me, Judge?" "Can't say that I do," said his honor, drily. "My name is— I'm the man what's got the property in soak, in Salt Lake, for a fine you gave me. Judge, you were mighty hard with me, I think." The Judge, laughing, says, "Thinking I had got into a nest of hornets I cut short the conversation, and fearing other colloquies of this character, took the first opportunity afforded to bid good by to the Park."

Tit For Tat.—Two four-year-old youngsters, a boy and girl, children of neighbors, were wont to play together and as is sometimes the case with older persons, did not always agree. The other day the little girl, in a fit of passion, struck her companion a severe blow. The little fellow could not restrain his tears but did not offer to retaliate, and to all outward appearances, had forgotten his trouble, and forgiven the cause of it. But there was a demon lurking within. A game of housekeeping was proposed and met with approval. Our young hero, at his own request, was appointed father, and his young companion represented one of the children. As soon as he was duly installed in his new office, he picked up a good sized stick and belabored his newly acquired offspring in a manner that caused her screams to attract the attention of the neighbors, and while his sobbing victim was being carried home by her sympathizing mother, the young child-beater remarked: "Well, that's the way father does, anyhow."

Coming.—Perhaps—Miss A. A. Adams, actress, formerly of Salt Lake, writes to a friend in this city, that she has recently made a tour of the Pacific Coast, from San Francisco, her present home, visiting Oregon, Washington Territory, and Victoria, and playing to a very nice business. She is at present engaged at the Baldwin, but hints a possibility of her coming on a short visit to Salt Lake, at an early day.

"Deception" Repeated.—By general request, this thrilling and emotional drama will be repeated to-morrow evening. All who missed seeing it before, should seize this last opportunity. The Piercy Combination will give a matinee on Saturday afternoon.

IF PESTERED BY AN ERUPTION, USE GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP

The ruling specific for diseases, irritation and abrasions of the skin, and a most salutary beautifier of the complexion. This admirable article is an inexpensive substitute for sulphur baths, and is equally as effective in banishing cutaneous maladies, and relieving the pang of rheumatism and gout. It cleanses and roughness, tan, freckles, pimples, and indeed every imperfection of the cuticle is entirely removed by it. It is avouched by ladies who have used it, to be the most effective means of clarifying and softening the skin that they have ever employed; its health promoting properties are widely recognized by medical men, and evidence in its behalf, emanating from other and equally respectable sources, precludes any reasonable doubt as to the genuineness of its claims to public confidence. Clothing and linen from the sick room are disinfecting by it, and it prevents contagion when the danger of obnoxious diseases has been incurred by contact. Sores and ulcers, that resist the action of salves and lotions, are healed by it, and it soon relieves the swelling and pain caused by bruises and sprains. The opening of the pores, resulting from the whole-some action of the sulphur, and the blood vessels that it produces, is the effect best calculated to ease the circulation when overheated, and carry off those offensive granulations which disfigure the cuticle and render existence a state of martyrdom while they remain. Eruptions, ailments that ointments will not cure, are entirely eradicated by GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP. Sold by druggists. Price 25c, per cake, 1 box (three cakes) 75c, sent by mail, prepaid, on receipt of price. C. N. Crittenton, proprietor, 115 Fulton St., New York.
