JUBILATION IN LEHI

Over the Location of Central Experi-

Special Correspondence. Lehi, Utah Co., Jan. 8.-There was great rejoicing in Lehl Saturday when it became known that it had been decided to locate the central experiment farm here. A special meeting of the Commercial club was held Saturday evening, the rooms being filled with members and interested citizens, who came to hear the glad tidings from Hon. George Austin, president of the club, who came down from Sait Lake City to attend this meeting. To fit-tingly celebrate this occasion it was decided to hold a mass meeting in the new tabernacle at 3 p. m. and a banquet in the Opera House and a grand ball in the City pavilion in the evening of Friday, Jan. 12, to which all state and county officials and commercial clubs in Utah county will be invited to attend as guests of the citizens of Lehi and American Fork. The banquet and ball will be $1 per plate to all citizens of Lehi and American Fork who ob-tain tickets before Wednesday evening. A special committee of 15 citizens from

The Commercial club received a telephone message from the Provo Com-mercial club, congratulating Lehi and American Fork on getting this station and stating the club would be up in a body to attend the banquet next Friday. The citizens of Lehi and American Fork, and especially the Lehi Commercial club have been unceasing in their effort to obtain this station and are ready in every way to fulfill their obligation to the state. Special praise should be given Hon. George Austin. president of the Lehi Commercial club, who introduced the bill in the Legislature for this farm and who suggested the site between Lehi and American Fork, and through whose diligent and untiring labors Lehi has been able to obtain this experiment farm, which will e an impetus to the further develop ment of Lehi, for which the Commercial Britt finally consented to use his influence in getting this amount for Nelson, and even went so far as to offer it out of his own pocket.

The scrappers decided to put up the money two days after the McGovern-Neison right.

Jimmy Britt wired Brother William the following telegram this morning:

"Noian has signed Neison to meet me thirty days after he meets McGovern, provided financial difficulties over which we have no control are settled."

The telegram refers to the $5,666.67. Whether this money is paid to Noian or not there is every indication that public sentiment will force the Dane into a return match with James Edward. And the Dane should be willing. After he licked Neison Britt generously took him on again. Britt could have avoided the Dane and gotten easier game, but he was generous enough to give to Nelson a return match. That's all he is now asking of Nelson. Were Noian out of the way the chances are that this return match would be consummuated immediately. But William does not like to let things take a smooth course.

The public make fighters and their demands must be heard. There is a clamor for a return match. Even one of the deadened ear can hear the rumble if he will put his ear to the earth.

This fact will drawn on Noian. Of course, William will be the last to be struck by the current of events, but when the blast hits him he will have to consent to let his bread ticket fight Britt. After this bout it would be a good idea to match Sweet William with the foolkiler, and if such a match were arranged the public money would certainly make Willam a second choice in the bout.

It is very unlikely that McGovern and Nelson will fight as scheduled. The chances are that Noian will find a way to crawl out of that match. If there is chances are that Nolan will find a way to crawl out of that match. If there is any loophole in the articles William may be depended upon to run out.

Starter Cassidy at New Orleans Has The Proper Method.

The Proper Method.

From New Orleans come the most flattering reports of the work of Starter Cassidy. It is said that his work is almost faultless, notwithstanding he is handicapped by bad horses and bad riders. The readers will naturally ask this question: "How is it that Mars Cassidy at New Orleans can do such brilliant work, while on the Jockey club tracks in the east his work has been subjected to violent criticism?"

The reason is that at New Orleans Mr. Cassidy is starting by the only method that can ever give satisfaction on a race track, and the only method that should ever be used in the starting of race horses. He makes the horses line up behind the barrier and walk to it. They keep in line and when twenty or fifteen feet or ten feet from the machine, or wherever thy may be and the starter sees his chance, away they go in motion and in line. Show Girl at Butte Says She Will File Charges Against Nelson.

BREACH OF PROMISE. FOR

Lizzette Howe Declares Bat Promised To Marry Her and That He Gave Her Diamonds and Money.

The Butte News has discovered that Bat Nelson is to be sued for alleged breach of promise The s.tory, which tollows, will be of interest to Salt Lakers: There is a heap of trouble brewing for Battling Nelson the champion lightweight because of his entanglement of the heart. One of his sweethearts has brought suit for breach of promise and is going to upset his engagement to Gertie DeMili if the law can help her. She is Miss Lizzette Howe, an actress, who is appearing actic Howe, an actress, who is appearing at the Grand theater this week with the Watson Buriesque company. Miss Howe is determined to see the suit through and will make it warm for the Dane if ne persists in carrying out his latentions of throwing her over. She wrote to New York last night and engaged the services of a lawyer to look out for her innerests. She says she will leave the company and go east if necessary to prevent the marriage.

ENGAGED TWO MONTHS AGO. ENGAGED TWO MONTHS AGO.

Miss Howe says that she was engaged to the fighter two months ago, while he was appearing with the company in which she is one of the principals. Their courtship although brief, terminated in an engagement before Nelson left the company on his tour of the east and they were to have been married this summer as soon as Miss Howe returned to the tour of the east and they were to have taken a trip through Europe and Nelson had premised to star his bride in a company of their own.

Now it is all off, if the dispatches from Springfield are true, and Miss Howe is heartbroken. She does not believe that Nelson is going to throw her over for the DeMitt girl. She says he is still true to her. She has taken the precaution, however, to see that he does not prove false to his promise. o his promise.

FIANCE A BEAUTY.

Miss Howe is one of the beauties of the show. She takes a leading part and her singing is one of the features of the performance. She is a brunette, tall and slender. Her admirres have been many since she has been on the road with the company. They describe her as one of the willowy types of beauties which are now in vogue on the stage. She resembles Maxime Elliot, the most famous of stage beauties, and is accomplished. LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT.

It was a case of love at first sight with Miss Howe and the little champion. They were together nearly all of the time that the company was traveling in Ohio and Pennsylvania Nelson joined the company at Toledo. The first night that he made his appearance at the theater he was introduced to Miss Howe.

SHE KEPT HIS BANK ROLL. SHE KEPT HIS BANK ROLL.

Nelson was the constant companion of Miss, Howe for the lo weeks that he remained with the company. He gave her all of his money to keep for him. She carried it in a little canvass bag in her breast while she was appearing on the stage. In the show she wore all of Nelson's jowelry and was the envy of the other actresses in the company. There were diamonds all over her which Nelson had showered on her. She wears many of his glits now when she appears before the rootlights. She has a pair of pearl and diamond earrings which Nelson gave her before he left the company.

Miss Howe carries a photograph of the fighter in her breast. His pictures are hung in every corner of her rooms in the Butte hotel. One of them has the inscription, "To my loving friend Lizette.—Bat" When the news of Nelson's engagement to Miss DeMilt reached Butte Miss Howe at first would not believe it. She wired to New York and Springfield, Mass, for confirmation. She had received a letter from Nelson only a few days before and there was no mention of his contemplated marriage in it. When a friend in New York wired to her yesteray that the news was undoubtedly true she wiped away her tears that had been flowing for a day and started legal proceedings to stop the marriage by bringing suit against her fickle lover.

Miss Howe was waiting for her cue in the wings of the theater last night when a reporter asked her about her suit against Nelson. She at fifst refused to tak about her love affairs, because she said it was sacred with her. She finally consented to talk. KEEPS PHOTO AT BREAST.

WON'T BELIEVE HE'S UNTRUE.

"I can't believe that he is going to marry Miss DeMilt." she said. There was nothing vindictive in her manner. "It can't be true. I know it can't. He was sincere in his promise to me and we understood each other fully. I have letters from him since he left the company, only a few weeks ago, in which he tniks of nothing else but our engagement. He cannot have changed his mind so suddenly. I know he is still true to me. There is some awful mistake somewhere. It will come out all right in the end, as soon as this misunderstanding is cleared up."

"But about your breach of promise suit?" she was asked.

Miss Howe silently wiped away a tear. "I hope there will be no necessity for it." she replied. "I have instructed my lawyer in New York to investigate the story of this reported engagement to Miss DeMilt. If it is true I will turn everything upside down to prevent it." WON'T BELIEVE HE'S UNTRUE.

Who Have Performed Great Stunts.

Basebal fans who have been looking over musty files are now asserting that while Mathewson is a wonder, his feats have been duplicated several times.

Baseball history, they assert records no greater pitching performances than the work of Bobby Caruthers when he twirled the St. Louis Browns to victory in the American association pennant race in 1887, and then pitched the Browns to victory in a world's championshipseries against Anson's Chicago White Stockings.

Charile Radbourne also won a National lengue pennant for the Providence club many years ago by his wonderful work in the pitcher's box, and capped the climax at the end of the season by pitching his team to victory over the Metropolitans for the world's championship.

Tim Keefe pitched the old new York Giants to victory in the National lengue pennant race of 1888, and then beat Comiskoy's Browns for the world's championship.

"Lady" Baldwin, a southpaw, was the pitching mainstay of the Detroit sluggers in 1889, when they beat the Browns for the world's championship.

Caruthers. Keefe, Radbourne and Baldwin were all aided more or less by other great pitchers, as Mathewson was helped this season by Joe McGinnity. The latter is one of the greatest pitchers on the diamond, but his glory is eclipsed to a certain extent by the schullisting Mathewson, just as Dave Fours was by the more brilliant Caruthers.

PATENTS.

We beg to announce for the benefit of our readers and inventors generally that we have established in connection with our paper a patent bureau and have associated with us at Washington, D. C., an attorney who has been in continuous practise for the past 20 years and we will guarantee that any patent matters placed in our hands will receive prompt and careful attention, and that the charges will be moderate in all matters relating to patents.

Inventors are requested to send us a rough sketch and description of their inventions and we will have our attor-ney give a free opinion as to whether a patent can be secured.

If an inventor desires a search of the patent records made and a report sub-mitted giving opinion as to securing patent and sending copies of all patents in the line to which his invention relates, he should send $5.
