DEDICATION OF THE BASEMENT OF THE LOGAN TABERNACLE.

(Concluded.)

SUNDAY, 10 A. M.

Choir sang—

"Joy to the world the Lord will come."

Prayer by Samuel Smith.

Choir sang—

"The spirit of God like a fire is burning."

Elder L. F. Monch addressed the congregation. He touched upon the benefit of building houses to the Lord in which the ordinances could be observed for the living and the dead. Also upon the subject of marriage for eternity, the beauty of union and the harmony which is displayed in all the works of God, and the necessity for our unity in carrying out the behests of the God of the universe.

Elder Franklin D. Richards spoke upon the necessity of a fraternal union among the Saints, and a parental form of government among them, and the filial love which would prompt obedience in the eternal world to the great Father of our spirits. The time would come when all the families of earth would be so connected and associated that their interests would be one, and their grand object be to carry out the will of God. The ordinances of God's house would aid in bringing us to this union so much to be desired.

Elder Richards then touched upon modern skepticism as imbibed by scientists. He showed that there was no conflict between true religion and true science, and urged the importance of the Saints employing, as teachers, men who have faith in God and will not lead our children to infidelity.

The speaker concluded by referring to the magnitude of the work to be done in the Temples of God for the dead, and the importance of each person doing all that is possible towards their redemption.

Elder John Taylor, alluding to the notions of skeptical scientists, touched upon by Elder Richards, related some of the ideas which Joseph Smith expressed to him forty years ago, showing that the earth was formed from remnants of pre-existent worlds which might have existed for millions of years, and that the solar system revolved around another and that around another and so on, until the central body which governed lesser systems required a thousand years for one revolution, thus "one day with the Lord was a thousand years, and a thousand years as a day." He went on to show that all truth is eternal and it never conflicts with itself. If we were taught of God we should comprehend things as they are, and be led to glorify him for ever.

The choir sang—

"Wake the song of jubilee."

Dismissed with prayer by Elder Moses Thatcher.

Two p. m.

Choir sang—

"All hail the glorious day,
By prophets long foretold."

Prayer by Bishop Wm. Maughan.

Choir sang the anthem—

"Hosannah."

The Sacrament was administered.

Bishop W. B. Preston made a few remarks, inviting the Saints of Logan to attend meeting in this house regularly, the people of Cache County generally to come when convenient, and the leaders of the Church to visit this place as often as possible. He congratulated the Saints on the work they had done, and exhorted them to continue in well doing.

Elder Lorenzo Snow referred to the inspiration which led Joseph in Egypt to counsel the storing up of grain against the famine which was coming upon the land. He read the account from the Book of Genesis, and made an application of the subject to our own time. He spoke of the prediction of the servants of God that wheat would be worth its weight in gold. He asked what preparation had been made for that time. He would say that if the Elders would not hearken to this matter, let them help the sisters to do it. When this nation became disrupted by civil strife, thousands would flock here and we should have to feed them. It was no small thing to despise the word of the Lord. Yet the Elders had treated this thing lightly, and now the sisters took hold of it. As sure as there was a God in Israel, the famine predicted would come to pass.

Bishop W. F. Littlewood reviewed the progress of the Saints and their success in carrying out the counsels of the servants of God, and showed that if we continued to live by their precepts, we would continue to prosper.

Elder Moses Thatcher expressed his faith in the words we had heard, and his belief that the time was coming when those who would not take up the sword against their neighbor must flee to Zion for safety. He trusted we should turn our hearts to God, dwell together in union, bring up our children in the faith, preserve a humble spirit, and obtain power to overcome.

Elder John Taylor spoke of the providences of God and his dealings with his people, to try and prove them in all things. He instanced Abraham and Job, and the servants of God in our own times, and showed that we should endure trials in patience and work together in one grand phalanx under the direction of the Holy One, until the kingdoms of this world became the kingdom of God and his Christ. He counseled all to be sincere in their religion, and honorable in all their co-operative and individual transactions, putting away hypocrisy, sustaining all who seek the welfare of Israel, and God would bless them. He blessed the people and invoked upon them the favor of God in the name of Jesus Christ.

Bishop Preston read a list of subscriptions from the various settlements towards building a temple in Logan, amounting in all to $27,268.00.

Choir sang a glee—

"Let the hills resound with song."

Benediction by Elder F. D. Richards.

In the evening at 6.30 the Young Men's Mutual Improvement Association and the Young Ladies Retrenchment Society held a meeting in the New Tabernacle, at which many of the older members of the Church attended, making a very large congregation.

Elder Geo. F. Gibbs, president of the Young Men's Mutual Improvement Association, having been removed to Salt Lake City, he was released from the presidency, with a vote of thanks and confidence, and Elder E. M. Curtis was selected to fill the position.

The meeting was addressed by Elder C. W. Penrose, followed by Elder F. D. Richards. Much valuable information was given to the young people, and a most excellent spirit prevailed.

Altogether the services in the new Tabernacle were intensely interesting. The singing by the choir was one of the pleasurable features of the services, and every hymn and anthem was rendered in a highly creditable manner. The teachings of the Elders were received with interest and pleasure, and the opening ceremonies of the new building will long be remembered with satisfaction by the people of Cache Valley.
