Correspondence:
SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 2, 1871.
Editor Evening News:—While the attention of many of the citizens of Utah is attracted to the efforts made by the champions of modern "civilization," to turn the current of our hitherto quiet and peaceful social relations into a channel, that, at the least, is a certain extent, conducive to the moral elevation of our citizens, it behooves every lover of good order and purity to pay some attention to the different methods by which the "reformers" arrive at their "ultimatum," and to scan closely the means they use in bringing about the desired result. By so doing, counter efforts can be made that may in a measure counteract the baleful influences brought to bear.

The grand army of Orthodox brethren, Clerical-Judicial magistrates, Regulators, Beggars, that are expected to produce their "ultimatum" in our midst, appear to have called to their aid a no less delectable influence than the demoralization of our youth. I base my conclusions on the written testimony of the correspondents who have favored Utah with their attention, from Bowles down to the last "penny liner" who retains the state stories that have gone the rounds for the thousandth time. To a man, almost they speak with apparent relish of the introduction of new fashions among the females and non-marriage ideas among the males, coupled with a general desire to copy after the manner of prevalent civilization outside of Utah. One of the results of this peculiar style of moral teaching has been the rapid increase of drinking saloons and the fumes of tobacco and whisky close by the man who profanes the name of the Deity, hand and glove with the adulterer, the seducer and the whore-monger. All these necessary aids to the crusade against "Mormonism" follow rapidly in the wake of the orthodox influx, that was to purify the moral atmosphere of Utah and educate the people to the standard of the modern Christian, which could welcome it within the bonds of brotherhood. Saloons and churches were joined, wall to wall, covered in by the self same roof each performing its separate functions, both tending to bring about that interesting time when, with perfect propriety, ministers of various denominations might, if allowed, with great advantage, be made to stand in the same "What a poor, sin-cursed, miserable world, and what poor miserable sinners its inhabitants are." Saloons and haunts of vice are rapidly on the increase and every inducement is being offered to catch the unwary, fill up the halls of these saloons and carry out the programme in all its parts, including very questionable methods of procedure in the courts, in relation to the impugning of jurists, &c., overriding of law and order, the distribution of religious tracts, the incitement of orthodoxes, and the leading of our youth, from the hitherto trodden paths of purity, into the many ways of vice and degradation that accompany the foregoing peculiar style of bringing about the millennium.

PACIFIC COAST DISPATCHES.
SAN FRANCISCO, 2.—John McCollough has purchased for $1,000 the right to play Florence's "Althea Opera" on the Pacific coast, and is now preparing to bring it out in magnificent style in the California theatre.

There was a drunken row at School-house station, San Mateo county, last night, in which two men named Morrison and Murphy and two Carry brothers, all more or less intoxicated, were engaged. Murphy was horribly whipped and mangled with a hatchet by the other three. Murphy is dead, and his assailants are arrested.

The excitement in wheat is such that no sales are taking place; $2.50 would be paid, and is a fair quotation, but holders are asking all the way up to $3, and no one appears anxious to sell.

Edward Kelly called on Edwin Hall and wife, a new married couple, last night, demanding sixty dollars, which he claimed was due him from the lady with whom he had been acquainted before her marriage. A fight with knives ensued, in which Kelly was stabbed in the hands, arms and breast, and cut in the face, and Hall had his hand-wipe severed. Kelly is in the hospital, Hall is at home, and both are in a critical condition.

GREAT BRITAIN.
LONDON, 2.—The scissors grinders, cutlers and carpenters of Sheffield, and the spinners of Dundee and spinners of Bolton and Sheffield, have struck work. The strikers in Newcastle held a mass meeting to-day, and passed resolutions to insist on their demands and persevere in the strike until the objects are accomplished.

A Racine girl wanted her lover to swear on the Bible that she was all the world to him, and when he wouldn't she knocked him down with the sacred volume.
