bation officer in this county to succeed Charles B. Hahn, who resigned to go to Lake Winona, Ind., to assist in the management of the boy's summer camp. Mr. Brown was formerly a member of the police force or this city and during the recent session of the legislature was the governor's messenger. Recently he has been employed as nightwatchman for the Oregon Short Line company. The commission in-creased the salary of the chief proba-tion officer from $750 to $200 per year, so that the new appointee will re-ceive the benefit of the increase. Other probation officers were appoint-ed by the commission in outside coun-ties as follows: George Christensen.

CHURCH NOTICES.

The quarterly conference of the En-sign stake will be held Sunday next, the 23rd inst., with sessions at 19 a. m. (in the assembly hall) and 2 p. m. (in the tabernacle). The Eleventh and Twelfth ward Sunday schools will be present at the morning session and furnish the music. Evening meetings in the wards as usual. RICHARD W. YOUNG, JOSEPH S. WELLS, JOHN M. KNIGHT, Stake Presidency.

Mr. Morgan was just 21 when he hung ut his shingle. That was 62 years go. He used to tell that he started in-120. ago. He used to tell that he started m-to practise law on a Tuesday and got his first case on the following Satur-day. "My first case," he called it. From the start he succeeded, although he never became wealthy. He married before he was admitted to the bar. His people were Whigs, but he became a Democrat and thus brought about fam-ily dissension. In the Civil war he en-Democrat and thus brought about fam-ily dissension. In the Civil war he en-listed as a private in the confederate army, and rose to the ranks of briga-dier general. There was nothing about Mr. Morgan, however, to suggest the soldier. He was always the lawyer and the legislator. Society never saw Mr. Morgan. He lived in an old but attractive house in a part of Washington once fashionable, but now in the business section. It is John Marshall Place, a shore distance from the District Courts building. Here

The prototype of the above reproduction has the distinction of having been recently awarded a valuable diamond pin for outclassing all competitors as an insurance writer for the Colorado National Life Insurance company. Many states in the Union were represented in the contest, but Utah won out through the effort put forth by Mr. Candland. This is not his first victory along similar lines. Three years ago he was given a gold medal for holding sixth place in the writing of insurance for the Phoenix Mutual.

Considering the keenness of competition in insurance business, and the further fact that the Colorado National's prize was competed for by many men of ability and years of experience. Mr. Candland's victory is the more a matter for congratulation. He is a Utah boy, and his numerous friends throughout the state will be glad to know of the success with which he is meeting.
