OGDEN RIVER CLOSED TO FISH-ING.

A letter was presented to the board signed by Hon. John Sharp, State Fish and game warden, in which he urged the closing of the Ogden river and its tributaries above the Ploneer Power Dam for the period of three years, for Dam for the dall fishing purposes, in order that the allotment of trout may be placed in the river and not be distributed for that length of time so that the river may become well supplied with trout. Mr. Sharp intends sending about 50,000 trout fry to be placed in the streams and this allotment will be repeated once or twice each year, so that in the three years, this section of the State will be well stocked with fish. The recommendations of Mr. Sharp were adopted. and Ogden river was ordered closed aganist fishing for a period of three
