FRAGMENTS.

A pocketbook has been lost. See adv.
 The Union Pacific and the Utah Northern trains are reported on time.
 Tickets for the Mapleson opera will not be sold until next Tuesday morning.
 ONE hundred shares in the Molecular Telephone Company are on the market in Ogden.
 A BUNNY case was dismissed this morning, as will be seen from the Court minutes.

SILVER, New York, $1.05. Silver, London, 48 1/2-49. Lead, New York, 20-21 per hundred pounds.
 McCORMACK & Co. have to-day received one lot of Europe ore, $2,400; one lot of Mayflower, $1,710.

The Eighty Quorum of Seventies met in the City Hall this evening at 7:30. A full attendance is desired.
 The grand jury convened again this morning at 10 o'clock. After their late respite they will doubtless be ready for lively work.

"NATIONAL EQUAL RIGHTS" is the name of a new paper devoted to advance of woman's rights in Washington and San Francisco, the editors of which are L. R. A. Lockwood and Marietta L. Snow, who, by the way, are announced in it as candidates for the offices of President and Vice-President of the United States in the campaign of 1888. By taking time by the forelock and tooting their own horn these ambitious and talented ladies hope to work up a public sentiment during the next four years that will enable them to attain to the highest positions in this republic. Lofly aims are very commendable under some circumstances, but we cannot help thinking they are likely to prove illusory and impossible of attainment in the present case.

LOCAL NEWS.

A Holiday.—Washington's birthday, which is now a legal holiday, and is generally observed as such, comes on Sunday this year; but the leading business firms of this city have decided to close on Monday, and observe it as a holiday instead. The News will accordingly not be issued on that day.

Tenth Ward Entertainment.—The Fourth Ward Dramatic Association will give a performance in the Tenth Ward this evening, partly for the benefit of the Sunday school of that ward.
 The two dramas to be presented are and the music to be furnished will make up a good entertainment. The performance will commence at 7:30.

Buried To-day.—The bodies of Mrs. Ford and infant, both of whom were beautifully dressed and occupied one casket, were buried to-day at one o'clock from St. Mark's church.

The remains of the four Ballou children, who were victims of the Atterbury disaster, were buried from Sexton Taylor's office, at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The Armory.—The Armory will be opened by Mr. George A. McCarron on First South Street, half a block west of the Theatre, to-morrow. The design of the proprietor is to provide a place where respectable people can go and indulge in innocent exercises of skill which train the eye and the nerve, while excluding everything of an immoral or improper character. See advt.

Jeffries.—If William Jeffries, who emigrated from the city of Bristol, England, thirty or more years ago, and who is now living, I believe, somewhere in the southern part of this Territory, will send his address to me, I will send him a letter which has been addressed to me by his sister, and which I believe, is from his sister.

WM. JEFFRIES, Grantsville, Tooele County, Utah.

United.—The News extends its congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph G.
 Savage, the latter formerly Miss Mary LaBelle Davis. An informal reception was held at the residence of the bride's brother, Mr. Ray Davis, last evening. There were a few friends present, the designing being to have everything conducted as quietly as possible; but all who know the happy couple will join in wishing them a happy and prosperous career through life.

Sanpete Stake Conference.—We have received from Brother George Taylor an elaborate and well written report of a Stake Conference, held in Mantol on the 14th and 15th of the present month, which seems to have been unusually interesting and very well attended. The reports made showed the saints of the Stake to be improving and the work on the Temple to be progressing in a very satisfactory manner.
 We are unable to publish the report in full, with the limited space at present at our command. Stake reports for publication should be condensed, except where details of actual new business are given.

Sanitary Precautions.—Now that the cold weather is broken and a general thaw has commenced, precautionary measures should be immediately adopted to prevent sickness. Ditches and drains should be cleaned out, outhouses emptied and thoroughly cleansed with disinfectants, and garbage and refuse of all kinds now, scattered about yards and garages scraped up and placed where they will do no harm. By attention to those matters on the part of the people generally as soon as the snow disappears, much sickness and possibly many deaths may be prevented during the spring months. The old saw about Prevention discounting Cure is applicable in this case.

The Inaugural Ball.—The preparations for the Inaugural Ball, previously referred to in these columns, are going steadily ahead; the dance will take place in the Opera House on the evening of March 4th, and the regular announcements will be made in a short time. President Cleveland—or a representation of him so perfect that the beholder will be unable to detect the difference—will appear at about 10 p. m., and receive the guests, while other details necessary to the proper carrying out of an inaugural ball will be fully attended to. In the afternoon there will be music and flags in abundance, and everything necessary to the working and distribution of Democratic enthusiasm will be arranged completely.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

BEFORE JUDGE ZANE.

Oscar J. Youngberg vs. A. L. Head-berg et al. Default and judgment, and decree accordingly.
 In the case of Phoebe A. Smith vs.
 W. S. Smith, an order was issued affirming the judgment of the Probate Court, and the case was remitted.
 The case of the People vs. John Myers was continued on motion of defendant.

United States vs. Ferdinand F.
 Hintze, charged with unlawful cohabitation, came up this morning. The defendant and sureties were called, but were not present.
 The case of the United States vs.
 Thos. Henninger, charged with bigamy, was dismissed on motion of the prosecutor, on account of decrepitude of the defendant.

BEFORE JUDGE BOREMAN.

The demurrer to the complaint heretofore submitted in the case of George Bushy vs. Empire Mining Company was overruled, and an exception was taken.
 A demurrer was entered in the case of A. Thompson et al. vs. M. F. Brown.
 After being argued it was submitted and overruled. Exception taken, and 30 days allowed to answer.

Going to Beaver.—To-morrow is the last day of the lay and motion calendar, over which branch of the Third District Court Judge Boreman has been presiding the past two weeks, and that gentleman takes his departure for Beaver in a few days to open the March term of the Second District Court, which takes place on the 2nd prox. He has doubtless by this time received many useful suggestions in relation to judicial procedure and the means by which certain ends can be accomplished; and while it would doubtless be idle to expect him to vary from the programme duly arranged and outlined before his appointment to the bench here, still let us cherish the hope that his honor may have gained something by reason of past experience, and decided to employ so much of the time as may remain to him in the interpretation of law as the law is, not as he and others would like to have it. If, however, he decides to continue the course set in motion here, by having indictments drawn on hearsay and prosecutions waged before open courts (a euphemism for packed juries), his reign at Beaver is likely to be as inglorious as it is tolerably certain to be brief. We have no special ill-will for Judge Boreman, and only oppose him when he is manifestly in the wrong. His intent, meaning and application of the law, now, if he and his party are as desirous as they claim of having the laws enforced in Utah, he has a brilliant opportunity of becoming the Moses to lead them out of the whil-lous, by doing precisely what they claim for white at the same time doing nothing to which we and the people in whose behalf we speak can properly object,—and if we can't object properly, the Judge may rest assured we won't at all.
 Think of it, Judge; it is worth your while.

Stephens Surprised Again.—The University Singing Society had an unusually pleasant time last Wednesday night. Mr. Stephens met with them usual to practice, and was working diligently to prepare them for their next reunion, not overpassed, perhaps, at the rather small attendance, when suddenly the door opened and the absent members filed in, accompanied by nearly two hundred others (mostly students and teachers). Mr.
 Stephens for some time continued singing the chorus, but the members ceased one by one till finally the song was silenced in a storm of applause, in which all joined but the surprised and somewhat indignant Mr. Stephens.
 He then requested Mr. Allison, who was present in his place, to sing the new number of ceremonies was to presented and deplored, predecessor with elegant present from the society, after which an excellent programme was gone through. This ended, they retired into other rooms, where tables were covered with all manner of good things. All took part in the work of unloading them of their treasures, and to end with, for fear this would interfere with their slumbers, and their next day's studies, the large hallway was made to resound to the sound of tripping feet keeping time to excellent music from City band, until each one felt prepared for rest. There were probably almost three hundred present, who will long remember the pleasant time they had singing, eating and dancing together, but one will never forget the love and good will of so many shown towards him.

No Forfeiture.—It will probably be remembered by many of our readers, that when F. F. Hintze, of Big Cottonwood, was about to start on a mission to Scandinavia, four years ago last October, he was pronounced guilty by the minions of the law and hustled before a United States Commissioner to answer to a charge of the awful crime of polygamy. The facts developed at the examination tended to show that the complaint made against him was the result of petty spite, and no very conclusive evidence was forthcoming. It was deemed sufficient, however, by the Commissioner to warrant him in his holding Hintze over in the sum of $50 to await the action of the grand jury.
 C. H. Gold and John Matquist, becoming his sureties.

The polygamy charge failed to stick, but in due time he was indicted for unlawful cohabitation, and appeared for trial, when, of course, the responsibility of his bondsmen in the matter was at an end. This was on the 3rd of March, 1884, and the minutes of the Third District Court of that date contain the following entry:
 "In the case of the United States vs.
 F. Hintze, indicted for unlawful cohabitation, the prosecution moved for a continuance on the ground of inability to procure witnesses on its behalf, and the court granted the same." In the opinion of the prosecution, in control of such witnesses and instrumental in concealing their whereabouts if not actually guilty of hiding them away. The Court allowed the continuance, on the filing of affidavit showing the above facts.

"Defendant asked to be released on his own recognizance, and the court allowed the request."
 This case was again called up this morning, and as the defendant failed to appear, Judge Zane declared his bonds forfeited.
 Shortly after this ruling was made, Brother C. H. Gold received an order from a deputy marshal, to appear at court and pay the sum of $500. He went down to the Court room, not however, with any intention of gratifying those who are so anxious to see "Mormon" bonds forfeited. On the contrary it was to request Mr. McMillen, the obligee of C. H. Gold, to turn to the record, and upon he did so and found that no bonds had been given, it was Bro. Gold's turn to smile.

TERRITORIAL ITEMS.

CRUEL FROM LATEST EXCHANGES.

A little 2-year old son of Thomas Davis, of Provo, met with a most distressing accident the other day. While at play with his brothers he was pushed backward into a tub of boiling swill and was so badly scalded that no skin remained on him from his waist to his knees where the hot fluid burned.
 Medical aid was immediately summoned but to no avail. The unfortunate child was relieved by death after fourteen hours of excruciating pain.
 His parents are overwhelmed with grief at the sad accident, and have the sympathy of the community.

Last Tuesday a man, at Butte, named J. H. Osborn, took an overdose of morphine, which proved fatal, in spite of the immediate attendance of a physician. The evidence elicited by many witnesses at the inquest proved conclusively that the poison was taken with suicidal intent. The following letter, among others, was found among his effects: "My Little Darling—You will not be troubled with me any more.
 Another is a better friend than I. You are tired of me; that I know. So good bye, my wife, and the only one I ever loved. J. H. Osborn." Quite a serious accident occurred last Tuesday night to Mr. J. C. Livingston, a brakeman on the Crested Butte branch of the Denver & Rio Grande.
 While on a down grade near Gunnison, Colo., something gave way, and the air brakes and the train started on at a lively pace. "Down brakes" were called for by the engineer and Mr.
 Livingston climbed up on a box car, but the top being icy, he slipped to the ground, breaking his right leg though sustaining no other injury. He was picked up and taken to Gunnison where he received proper treatment.
 His escape from instant death, under the circumstances, seems almost miraculous.

Peter Roy, of Leadville, got poisoned some time ago in a very peculiar manner. He was wearing a brass ring on one of his fingers and got into a row in which he struck his opponent in such a way that the brass ring cut his own finger slightly. He did not notice so slight an injury until his hand began to swell and become painful. Simple remedies were of no avail, and he was obliged at last to have his hand ampute.
 All progressed favorably for several days, when his arm began to swell and fester, and gangrene began to appear, turning the flesh to an almost nauseating color, that rapidly extended up the limb. He grew worse, and finally had his arm amputated last Saturday. The loss of his arm is all the result of being poisoned by a brass ring.

A man named Baker and his son-in-law George Smith, both of whom resided in Montana, stopped at a small town in Wyoming the other day, where Smith got drunk and shamefully abused his wife, who was Baker's daughter. Mrs. Baker, who was exceedingly angry, was postulated mildly, whereupon Smith turned and kicked and cursed her. A Mr. McWallace, who was near, exclaimed, "What a brute! I would not see a wife abuse like that by any son of a b—b!" He then started for McWallace, who drew his pistol and shot him dead, then mounted his horse and rode to Brown's Park, Colorado. Smith's brother learned of the affair, and with two other men named Hamilton and Kelley, followed him. They found him at A. H.
 Bassett's; went into the house and sat around the fireplace half an hour talking to McWallace, who was in his shirt sleeves. He went out to attend to his horse, when the three men followed.
 Hamilton shot him in the back, Hamilton in the breast and Kelly in the ankle. The three men then left and have not been caught. McWallace died. A warrant of $1,000 is offered for Hamilton.

Sentenced.—Newton the man who stole the Indian's pony, mentioned by us some time ago, entered the court room yesterday, and pleaded guilty.
 Wagona, who lives in Weber County, is the owner of the animal, and appeared against the accused. His testimony, with that of the officers who were familiar with the proceedings, made a clear case against Newton, so he entered the plea of guilty. Judge Zane sentenced him to one year's imprisonment. In this case the rights of the red man were respected.

No Verdict.—The arguments of the lawyers in the Murphy murder case, together with the charge of Judge Zane, occupied the time of the court last evening, and the case was given over to the jury. The jury was conducted to their room, and court adjourned.
 The case was under consideration all night, and until noon to-day, when his Honor called the jury into court. They stated that they were unable to agree upon a verdict and were discharged, hence the case is dismissed for the present.
 The jury at their last voting stood ten for conviction, and two for acquittal.

Police Court.—Judge Spiers' Court maintained the quietude and solemnity of a judicial session this morning, there being nothing whatever for his honor to hear, try and determine. This afternoon, business improved considerably; a Chinaman, whose name appears to be John—as John—a name we have seen before—came before the court on the charge of stealing a ride on the Utah Central. John's face was as black as the ace of spades, and he resembled a newly-imported and revised edition of the Fifteenth Amendment more than an unregenerate and heathenish Celestial when brought in. The car-wipers who caught him had imparted this misanthropic phase to his appearance, and he seemed to be in a bad way with the law. The case was not concluded in time to announce the result this afternoon.

Business and Polley.—In conversation with a business man on Main street to-day, a News reporter learned some points which may be interesting to the reader in general and a few persons in particular. An Associate Press dispatch sent from this city recently announced alleged interviews with general mercantile men in Salt Lake, (but was careful to give no names) in which they are made to say in substance, "Business be d—d; let the laws be enforced, and if business can't stand it, let it go." The gentleman with whom our representative conversed suggested that a canvass of the business men of the city be made with the view of ascertaining if any one or more of them endorsed such sentiments as those the press agent places upon the shoulders of the great unnamed; and if any such are found, let them be put in a body with all the "Mormons" in a body withdrawn all patronage, association and recognition from them. "Then," said the interviewed, with a meaning smile, "you will see, after a month or two, whether they are so anxious for business to be d—d as as their alleged organ would make us believe. This is the gist of the whole matter, and could not say more. The "Mormons" are not opposing the enforcement of the law, but they are opposing such legal actions as the crusaders and their adherents call law, and it is the latter that is meant by the dispatch. The legal methods or means in Utah. Those who side with them in that position, if any such there be, should be recognized at the hands of those they seek to oppress.
