Ward, March 18, 1877, LYMAN LEONARD. Deceased was the third son of Ezekiel and Rhoda 'Leonard, was born in 'Bpringfield, Mass., June 3rd, 1767; emigrated with his father's family to Bradford Co., Pa., in 1863. At the age of sixteen he commenced the hatter's trade, at which he served an apprenticeship of four years. On Yeb. 17, 1820, he was married to Miss Abigail Calk-ins, with whom he lived in happy wedlock, for more than fifty-seven years. In 1832 he, with his family, moved to Jackson Co., Mo., when the Latter-day Saints were driven from that place by the mob. He, however, with several others, re-on the 20th of that month, they were again attacked by a mob, and he was besten al-most to death. He then moved into Clay Co., thence into Caldwell, and subsequently to Nauvoo, in Illinois. Here he remained till the Saints emgrated to Sait Lake Val-ley. He was among the placers to this place, and has resided in this city ever since.

Mr. Leonard was among the first who embraced the goppel of the Latter-day Saints, passed with them through their trials, shared in many of their perils, was ever faithful to their principles. We learn from Mr. Leelthat there are some obstacles in the way of the progress of the Indians in these industrial pursuits; as for instance, there is a percentage of them, some of them the more able-bodied, who seek and obtain individual aid aside from the farm and then take their share of its proceeds as well. He thinks the purposes of materially aiding the Indians would be "better subserved if the assistance were to go directly to the farm and be given directly through those in charge. The reason for this is obvious, there being among those Indians, as among white men, a percentage who have a disposition to refrain from labor if they can obtain sup-195 Savage, 651 2455 Con Va, 401; 401; 41 175 Chollar, 49; 50; 491 735 H & N, 41; 4; 4; 50; 41, b 30 1210 Point, 81; 81; 8 125 Jacket, 101; 101 port without it; the lesson to be taught them is therefore that farming and other kindred pursuits is not only their main but their sole dependence for subsistence, and by France; The Ideal of Old Age; Our this means this class would be measurably compelled to take on industrial habits.
