

EVERY MILLER HAS HIS PRICE.

Result is That Flour is Being Sold at Divers Figures.

NO MORE MILLERS' MEETINGS

New Wheat is Not Coming in Very Fast—Stow in Cache and Sanpete—Fall in Price of Oats.

There is an old saw that says every man has his price. It certainly is true when adapted so as to apply to the millers' trade in this city; for that is precisely what every member of the craft has had for the past week. There is no regular price being maintained. That effort was ended on Saturday last, when the county millers' association drifted upon the rocks and went to pieces, and that is why there was no meeting this afternoon and why there will be no more until a reorganization is effected; and as to getting together again that is altogether unlikely. As one member paradoxically put it this afternoon, "We never were together when we were together; that is just the time that some of us were widest apart."

While every dealer is fixing his own figures to best suit his individual fancy and business the most flour has been sold at the following prices: Baker's No. 1, 41.50; Straight Grade, 41.40; High Patent, 41.60.

New wheat is coming in rather slower than expected and is selling at from fifty to fifty-three cents a bushel, white and of which there is still a large amount on the market. It is going at from fifty-six to fifty-seven. Nearly all the new product has come from Tooele, Davis and Boxelder, Cache and Sanpete, the two "granaries of Utah," have shipped nothing to the local market yet.

There was a report today that a great scarcity of oats existed in this city, but that report is a modified way. They also added that it was less scarce than for any time in two weeks, and that during that period it had fallen in price from 41.50 to 41.40 a hundred weight. The price that obtained today. The Utah crop is not yet upon the market, and will not be to any considerable extent for some weeks. When it makes its appearance it is said the price will range close about $1.40 per hundred weight for the rest of the year with a steady demand from all directions, both within and without.

COLLECTOR CALLISTER HOME

Will Remove Office From Helena on Monday Next—Had a Hard Fight.

Internal Revenue Collector Callister returned today from Helena, Mont., feeling very proud over his victory in securing the removal of the revenue office to Salt Lake. The change will be effected on the 12th instant. Mr. Callister today received the following telegram from J. W. Yeates, commissioner of internal revenue:

"You are authorized to remove office to Salt Lake on 12th inst. as requested. Leave must be made for one year with privilege of removal for three years."

Mr. Callister says that Senator Carter and his friends made a hard fight to keep the office in Helena, but while they feel their defeat keenly there is no bad blood of ill will existing between them and Mr. Callister.

Those offices that are at present occupied by County Clerk James will be changed on Monday and Mr. Callister and his deputy will be installed in them by the middle of next week.

Mr. Callister says that it will not be necessary for him to make any more trips to Helena at present. He has secured the one in charge of the office up as soon as possible and come to Salt Lake.

PLENTY OF WATER.

Land and Water Commissioner Westfield Measures the City's Supply.

There is now no question but that Salt Lake's water supply will be sufficient to last out the dry season. The annual scare over a water famine is entirely groundless this summer, for there is all that will be needed and a little more. This will be welcome news to the people of Salt Lake, for there has been some little apprehension that the demand would exceed the supply.

Land and Water Commissioner Westfield, in the survey of the great tidings. He has just concluded a measurement of the flow in City Creek and in the city's part of Parley's canyon stream, finding that the sum total of the two amounted to 14,250,000 gallons for twenty-four hours. This, he says, will be sufficient to last the people until the streams swell again with the storms.

The supply of irrigation water from Utah Lake is still low, however, and the farmers are viewing the prospects with alarm.

A PECULIAR PETITION.

Father Wishes to be Appointed Guardian of His Own Children.

A peculiar petition was filed in the Third district court today. It was that of John G. Felt, who wishes to be appointed guardian of his own children. The situation grows out of a life insurance policy held by Mr. Felt, which was assigned to Mrs. Felt. When the latter died the children of Mr. Felt came the beneficiaries. Now Mr. Felt wants to borrow some money on the policy and he cannot do it without the consent of the children, and that cannot be given because the latter are under age. But if Mr. Felt can be appointed guardian of the children by the court he will be able to obtain the loan on the policy without the consent of the children.

JUDGE TIMMONY'S COURT.

The principal case before his honor this morning was that of P. P. Kelsey, charged with assault and battery upon the person of Geo. E. Hill. Hill testified that he called at Mr. Kelsey's office to deliver an abstract and collect for the same. He said that Kelsey would not pay for the document and he walked out of the office. While he was walking down the street he said that Kelsey came up behind him, seized him by the shoulders and said, "Kelsey, you, I will have the abstract anyhow." Then Kelsey seized the abstract and walked up the street. Two other witnesses, Mr. Jennings and Mr. Rogers, were next called but both said they saw no assault and battery at all. Mr. Kelsey testified in his own behalf that he did not mistreat Hill in anyway, but admitted that he took the abstract from Hill's pocket.

The court was of the opinion that Mr. Hill was more outraged in his feelings than anything else and it was not a case where the defendant should be convicted of assault and battery, and Kelsey was discharged.

WITH THE JUSTICES.

The jury in the inquest over the remains of little Vernie Parker, who was run over by a gravel wagon Thursday afternoon, brought in a verdict of accidental killing. No one was charged with blame in the death affair, it being attributed to the recklessness of the child.

Yesterday afternoon E. C. Coburn was taken before Justice C. M. Nielson on the charge of killing snipe. He pleaded guilty and was fined $10. He was caught by a party of hunters while he was by Deputy Game Warden Bingley, and could do nothing else but acknowledge his guilt. Bert Bowring pleaded guilty to ill-treating a horse and was assessed $5.

Justice Nielson this afternoon held Albert Scott to the district court on a $200 bond on the charge of having assaulted Louis J. Krueger. About a dozen witnesses were examined and it appears that the accused was provoked in a momentary passion to assault Krueger, who contends that the complaining witness had insulted his wife and that he but acted a husband's part in resenting it.

But the arraignment was postponed until next Wednesday at 10 a.m. District Attorney Eichner wrote to the young man's father to bring his son, who is out on bonds, to the city this morning for the purpose of having him arraigned. Neither the father nor the son showed up and the attorney thinking that Mr. Shurtliff had not received the letter, had the arraignment deferred until Wednesday.

It is alleged that he sold 10,000 shares of the West Morning Glory Mining company for $250 to J. J. Price, J. McGill and William Gibson, representing to them that all the assessments had been paid when in fact they had not, and furthermore Peterson was not the owner of a single share he sold.

CHINAMAN IS FINED.

Ah Sing, the Chinaman who formerly pleaded not guilty to the charge of running a gambling house, was charged with his plea to guilty, and was fined $50 by Judge Stewart.

IVER BEAT THE VICTOR.

Salt Lake Wheelman Lowered the Colors of the Mighty Kramer.

Iver Lawson's work since he went east has been of such a character as to make Salt Lake people proud of the fact that he developed at the local summer track into the world beater that he is. Although it was announced that he was to appear in last night's races at Madison Square Garden in New York City, he did not ride. This accounts for the non appearance of his name in the bill of winners. Frank Kramer, the man who won the championship last night, has been beaten by Iver Lawson, and beaten decisively. The following account from the New York Evening Journal will be interesting to local followers of events of the kind.

Iver Lawson and Frank Kramer, went through the sifting process successfully in the half mile championship race, last night and Lawson beat Kramer by a length in the final. Lawson and Jack Green of England, who came from Australia with him, joined the circuit chasers here. Major Taylor and Johnny Hansen were shut out on their trial heat.

Hansen was shut out of the first heat of the championship, Bardgett and Fisher in the second, Newhouse out of the third, and Taylor out of the fourth. "Kimble" won the first semi-final, with Lawson just behind him. The crowd thought it was a dead heat for second, but the judges caught Kramer, Giacavne was fourth. Coopedated at the bell in the semi-final. Lawson sprinted in a back stretch, winning easily. Cooped defeated Freeman and Jenkins for second.

Kimble and Kramer fought out the first grand semi-final. Kimble lost most of the way, but Kramer was the strongest and won by a clear margin.

Lawson and Cooper fought at the start of the other grand semi-final. Lawson won by a half wheel.

In the final Kramer had the pole. Lawson wouldn't go to the order of the pole. Kramer started his sprint on the back stretch before the bell. Lawson jumped by at the tape and was never headed. The summaries:

One Mile, 2:10 class—Won by Downling. Hunter second, Mayra third. Time, 2:19.5.

Half-Mile National Championship—Won by Lawson, Kramer second. Time, 1:20. Third prize divided between Kimble and Cooper.

SAN PEDRO GIVES BONDS.

How Clark Company Succeeded in Getting the Injunction.

The news of the action of Judge Hawley in the United States court at Carson City yesterday in issuing a restraining order against the Oregon Short Line constructing any more grade for the time being along the disputed right of way in Nevada was the topic of conversation in railroad circles today. The fact that such an order had been made was published in the "News" last evening and the paper had not been on the telephone some minutes after the telephone was going asking for further details.

Owing to the fact that the Oregon Short Line legal representative at Carson City has been out of town today, to a late hour this afternoon the Oregon Short Line construction has received no official copy of the order of the court. Until such has been received any sentiment regarding the action will not be forthcoming.

From another source it is learned that the order was granted yesterday upon bonds given in the sum of $25,000 by C. O. Whittemore on behalf of the San Pedro company.

Remains Interred.

Munster, Westphalia, Aug. 10.—The remains of Baron Von Kettler, the minister to Germany, who was murdered at Pekin at the outbreak of the Chinese troubles, were buried here today after the celebration of a requiem mass. The widow, mother and other relatives of the deceased were present. A guard of honor headed the procession. It was followed by the students' associations bearing banners and the chapter of the cathedral. Behind the coffin came the family, the governor of the province, bishop commanding the district, the minister of foreign affairs, Baron Rietchoff, the secretary of state and a deputation from the foreign office. While the coffin was being lowered into the grave a guard of honor fired three volleys.

Cochran Snubbed.

New York, Aug. 10.—Bourke Cochran had an unpleasant experience last night in the lobby of the house of commons in London, where Mr. Cochran was the guest of Winston Churchill. A dispatch to the World from London describes the incident as follows:

While taking Mr. Cochran around Winston met Col. Arthur Lee, recently the military attaché at Washington, and asked him to accompany him to the "Don't you know my friend, Bourke Cochran?" he asked.

"Yes," said Col. Lee, curtly. "The last time I saw him he was welcoming our delegates to Washington," and the ex-attaché turned on his heel.

Mr. Cochran, only a week and a half in London, made profuse apologies for subjecting his guest to such a rebuff.

Drastic Measures at Cronberg.

Cronberg, Aug. 10.—The church bells have been tolling throughout the day. The emperor, crown prince and other princes drove over from Homburg this morning and were present at the reading of prayers by the bishop. Ripon at the side of the coffin of the dowager empress. The funeral service was held in the old Catholic church. Bishop Eckertling eloquently discoursed on the virtues of the deceased. The Italian workmen at Cronberg have been ordered not to leave their residences. The military and police regulations are of the most drastic nature, and are much more strict than in the past.

Tall masts with Prussian flags draped with crepe have been erected in the streets of the village which is full of troops and presents a scene of great bustle. Officers and musicians and other messengers are hurrying to and fro, completing arrangements for the funeral.

Emperor William has conferred on Prince Rupprecht of the crown prince's military and naval privy secretary, and has also bestowed an order on Dr. Speihagen, who, with Prof. Renvers, attended the dowager empress during her illness. In addition the six ladies in waiting of the deceased dowager empress have received red cross medals.

It is understood that Prince and Princess Frederick Charles of Hesse will inherit Prince Rupprecht's title as the youngest daughter of the deceased dowager empress.

Boer Activity.

London, Aug. 10.—Mail dispatches from Lord Kitchener issued today in a bulletin, which was accepted by the endeavor is to improve the communications along the lines of communication, thus releasing men from active service. The garbages of the railways have mostly been cleared. Officers and men are being sent to the front. DeWet from Cape Colony concludes with the statement that the raiders undoubtedly received a number of recruits from the colonies. DeWet, an ample supply of food and timely information.

Lord Kitchener received certain information that DeWet intended to attack Capetown, while General Botha, as soon as he heard of the concentration in Cape Colony, was ordered to enter Natal with 5,000 picked horsemen and make for Durban.

He kissed both the emperor and the crown prince, and the field marshal drove together to the castle amid the plaudits of the crowd. There the empress welcomed the field marshal.

Italy Is Scorched.

London, Aug. 10.—Telegrams from Rome today say nothing like the heat wave which is scorching all Italy has been known within living memory.

The thermometer in many parts of the country registered 45 centigrade in the shade. The vineyards in whole districts have been shriveled up by the scorching and ruined by the very roots as though set on fire. The air in the province of Syracuse is barely respirable and the people are warned that bathing has been abandoned. The people have been forced to sleep in the open air.

ROMANCING BY YOUNG RUNAWAYS

Police Look for the Mother of Two Little Truants From St. Ann's Orphanage—Tell a Thrilling Tale to Officers.

Howard and Clyde Wills, aged 8 and 3 years respectively, created a great deal of excitement around police headquarters last night and this morning by telling in a straightforward manner, a thrilling tale of desertion by their mother. The youngsters were found trudging along east Fifth South street at 10 o'clock last night, the older one carrying the younger, and both of them crying.

A couple of gentlemen saw them and asked where they were going. They replied that their mother had left them in a vacant house and instructed them to remain there over night and then go down town to the Meyers' costume house and stay there until she called for them, which would be in about three weeks. The gentlemen put the children on the car and they made their way down to Meyers. They told Mrs. Meyers the same story and added that their mother had come to Eureka. The police were at once notified and instituted a search for the mother. Some of the officers were of the opinion that she had committed suicide. The boys were cared for at Meyer's.

SPANISH FORK.

DISASTROUS FLOOD.

Wedding of Miss Delilah Gardner and Mr. Joseph Hughes.

Special Correspondence.

Spanish Fork, Utah, Aug. 8.—We have had considerable rain recently. Some very heavy downpours occurred in Spanish Fork Canyon. It came so fast and so heavy one of the forks, that some fifteen to twenty head of cattle were drowned.

We are having plenty of litigation over the water, and it appears more litigation is coming. In fact Spanish Fork is not in a condition to make use of intelligent investments of capital in the most productive of business enterprises.

Director General Buchanan responded, accepting the building. President Milburn, of the exposition, Judge Wm. Buckner, of Kentucky, and others spoke.

HE GOT A FITTING REBUKE.

There was a trifling fire in a West side street the other day which caused a good deal of excitement and incidentally gave a fat man a lesson in courtesy. The fire started in the apartments where the man and his mother lived. The man started about the time the fire did, and got down four flights of stairs to the street before his mother knew what was happening. When she discovered the fire she promptly fainted.

Meanwhile, the fat man stood in the street yelling, "Save my mother! Save my mother!" A messenger boy, who was passing, stopped, saw the smoke, ran up the stairs, arrested the woman and brought her out in safety. The neighbors cheered and the fat man looked uncomfortable.

"Here boy," he whispered, "Here's a quarter for you."

The boy's face expressed his disgust.

"Aw, save it," he said, "and buy yourself some nerve food."

The crowd laughed, the fat man blushed, and the boy went whistling down the street. He didn't know that he had been a hero, and the fat man felt himself a coward.—New York Mail and Express.

HOW WALES IS DIVIDED.

Of Wales it may be said, as Caesar said of Gaul, that it is divided into three parts—English Wales, Welsh Wales and Little England beyond Wales, or Pembrokeshire. In the first the language spoken is chiefly English or a curious mixture of English and Welsh, such as may be heard in all its varied beauty in the Rhonda valley. In Welsh Wales the language chiefly spoken is Welsh, and the people sing and preach and pray and make love and curse. In Little England beyond Wales much of the language spoken is neither English nor Welsh, but a gibberish which it requires a knowledge of Dutch and ancient Welsh to understand.—Cardiff Western Mail.
