

The Democratic Convention comes off on the 27th inst; in the mean time I shall do what is in my power for the promotion of the good cause, and endeavor to be well accounted for that occasion. I expect to co-operate with Hyde, Pratt, and Page, though as yet I have not heard from them.

I shall expect to receive from you the proceedings of the Convention held at Nauvoo on Monday last, together with such instructions as you may deem proper to give.

D. S. HOLLISTER."

DISCOURSE

By Prest. Heber C. Kimball, Bowery, Sunday Morning, Aug. 30, 1857.

[REPORTED BY J. V. LONG.]

You must expect when you see br. Heber stand before you to speak that you will hear what is called the rough etchel to this generation. I am pretty well satisfied, brethren, that there are only four or five persons in this congregation that dislike to hear me talk; and when you take out those four or five, I know that this people would rather hear me speak than any other man who speaks from this stand, except br. Brigham. It is not that those four or five have anything particular against me, but it is because I do at many times give vent to my feelings, and by so doing I hit them a crack where they deserve it. Well, this is all right.

I wonder if there is a man or woman here that really wants to be a Saint. (I mean those that want to live their religion) but what desire in their hearts and seek in their prayers to the Father that they may be corrected when they are wrong—that they may be admonished? Is there a person in this congregation but what has that desire and that feeling? If there is I am greatly mistaken, for I hear them when I go into meetings and when I go into family circles; they will say,—if I have a wrong thing about me I want to be corrected. Have you not heard it so this morning? Every man that speaks before this community has those feelings. Have not I those feelings? Brethren, if I have a fault, or have anything about me which is not right, I want to get rid of that, and so do you if you are Saints.

Well, there is not a mother in this congregation but feels in that way, else, when they see one of their children in fault, why do they correct those children? Why do you correct them when you are not willing to be corrected yourselves? Neither a father nor a mother from this time forth, should correct a child except they are willing to be corrected in their faults.

Do you see it? You will see mothers who will correct their children when they get angry, and that is almost the only time they will correct a child. Am I angry to-day? Just look at me and see if you think I am angry. I tell you I am just as good natured as I can be according to the nature of the case that I am now dwelling upon. Well, this is for you to reflect upon.

Is this a good people? You may take the Elders of Israel throughout these valleys and those at the stations between here and the United States and those that we have sent to the nations of the earth, and then thousands who never were here, and there never was a more amenable set of men upon the earth, with the experience that we have got, and there never was that day that this people were one as they are one to-day; no, never.

Well, I feel to praise the Elders of Israel for their faithfulness. Is there a chance for improvement, brethren, ye Elders of Israel? If you think there is a chance for improvement, notwithstanding all of my praising you, just raise your right hands. [A forest of hands was raised.] Those that think there cannot be any improvement, but that you are stereotyped, raise your hands. I cannot see any hands raised upon that side.

When I went to chop I was always taught to pull off my coat and spit on my hands. I pull off my coat because I am too warm; if I don't talk here more than twenty minutes I want my coat off.

May I tell you some of my feelings and not have any of you angry with me? [Voices: 'Yes.']

I hate to have the ladies angry with me above all things, and I will tell you one thing, and that is, all you that are ladies will not find any fault; but the woman that finds fault with me, I can analyze her and show you she is not a lady.

I am a physician. Well, you can hardly mention a thing that is good but what I am.

I want to tell some of my feelings here to-day, in a few words, relative to br. Brigham. I call him brother, because he says if I call him President he shall call me President, and just as sure as he does I am as flat as a pancake. I shall only call him President before the Saints, in his calling; I was going to say before our enemies, but damn them, they shall never come here.

Excuse me, I never use rough words, only when I come in contact with rough things, and I use smooth words when I talk upon smooth subjects, and so on according to the nature of the case that comes before me.

You all acknowledge br. Brigham as the President of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, then you acknowledge him as our Leader, Prophet, Seer and Revelator, and then you acknowledge him in every capacity that pertains to his calling both in Church and State, do you not? [Voices: 'Yes.']

Well, he is our Governor. What is a Governor? One who presides, or governs. Well, now, we have declared in a legislative capacity that we will not have poor, rotten-hearted curses come and rule over us, such as some of them have been accustomed to send. We drafted a memorial and the Council and the House of Representatives signed it, and we sent to them the names of men of our own choice, as many as from five to eight men for each office, men from our own midst, out of whom to appoint officers for this Territory.

We sent that number for the president of the United States to make a selection from, and asked him to give us men of our own choice, in accordance with the rights Constitutionally guaranteed to all American citizens.

We just told them right up and down that if they sent any more such miserable curses as some they had sent were, we would send them home, and that is one reason why an army, or rather a mob, is on the way here, as reported. You did not know the reason before, did you?

Well, we did that in a Legislative capacity; we did it as members of the Legislature, as your representatives, and now you have got to back us up. You sent us just as we sent br. Bernhisel to seek for our rights and to stand in our defence at Washington.

Well, here is br. Brigham, he is the man of our own choice, he is our Governor in the capacity of a Territory and also as Saints of the Most High.

Well, it is reported that they have another Governor on the way now, three Judges, a District Attorney, a Marshal, a Postmaster and Secretary, and that they are coming here with twenty-five hundred men.

The United States design to force those officers upon us by the point of the bayonet. Is not that a funny thing? You may think that I am cross, but I am laughing at their calamity, and I will 'mock when their fear cometh.'

Now, gentlemen and ladies, you look at these things, and then right in this book, the Bible, it says, our nobles shall be of ourselves; that is, our Lords, our Judges, our Governors, our Marshals and our everything shall be of ourselves. Won't you read the 30th chap. of Jeremiah?

18 Thus saith the Lord: Behold, I will bring again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have mercy on his dwelling places; and the city shall be builded upon her own heap, and the palace shall remain after the manner thereof.

19 And out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice of them that make merry; and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them and they shall not be small.

20 Their children also shall be as aforetime, and their congregation shall be established before me, and I will punish all that oppress them.

21 And their nobles shall be of themselves, and their Governor shall proceed from the midst of them; and I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach unto me; for who is this that engaged his heart to approach unto me? saith the Lord.

22 And ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

23 Behold, the whirlwind of the Lord goeth forth with fury, a continuing whirlwind: it shall fall with pain upon the head of the wicked.

24 The fierce anger of the Lord shall not return, until he have done it, and until he have performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it.

Well, the day has come when our Governor has come out of our midst and he is in the tops of the mountains, just where the prophets said these things should come to pass, and now the United States are reported to be trying to force a Governor upon us when the Lord has raised one up right out of our midst.

Now I am going to talk about these things, and I feel as though I had a perfect right to do so because I am one of the people.

If this people should consent to dispossess br. Brigham Young as our Governor, they are just as sure to go to hell as they live, and I know it, for God would forsake them and leave them to themselves, and they would be in worse bondage than the children of Israel ever were.

Supposing this thing all blows over and they don't come up here, but they begin to flatter us and be friendly, what will be the result? They may flatter as long as the earth stands, but I never will be subject to one of their damned pusillanimous curses. They may court and flatter as much as they please, but I never will be subject to them again, no, never. Do you hear it? [Voices: 'Yes.'] Do you think we will submit to them? No, never. They have cut the thread themselves.

You are the people who have the privilege to acknowledge br. Brigham as our Governor and continue him in his office, and you also have the privilege, through your agency, to reject him, if you please, but it will be to your condemnation if you do, because he has got the keys of the kingdom, and the very moment you reject him you cut yourselves off from the right of the priesthood.

I will now bring up a comparison. I live in the city of Great Salt Lake. I am a father, a husband, a benefactor to between 60 and 70 subjects; I feed them; I clothe them and they do not have a pin, a drink of tea nor any thing but what I provide; I provide them houses to live in and beds to sleep on. But suppose that by and bye some stranger comes along, and my family say to him, 'we will have you to preside over us,' and they reject me, when at the same time they say, 'br. Heber is a good man,' but the other man comes with a smiling face and my family take him and reject me—what have they done? If they reject me, they reject their head, and by so doing they destroy their heirship to the head or limb to which they are lawfully connected. Is not that so?

Suppose you acknowledge the man reported to be coming, what do you do? You reject your head, and if so, where is the body, and what will become of it?

I will compare it to my body. Supposing the head is cast away, the body will die, won't it? Yes, and you will die just as quick as that, if you reject br. Brigham, your head.

We are the people of Deseret; she shall be Deseret, she shall be no more Utah; we will have our own name. Do you hear it?

Brethren and sisters, these ideas are comforting to all of you, they are most gloriously comforting to me. I tell you the feelings within me are glorious.

We are the people of Deseret, and it is for us to say whether we will have br. Brigham for our Governor, or those poor, miserable devils they are reported to be trying to bring here. You must know they are miserable devils to have to come here under arms, but they shall not rule over us nor come into this Territory.

What do you say about it? Are you willing as a people, that they should come in here? You that say they shall not, raise your right hands. [All hands raised.]

Mr. Gentile, won't you tell of this to your co-workers for the devils kingdom?

The reason that I talk as I do is because I don't hold any office in the United States; but this people, some time ago, appointed me Chief Justice of the State of Deseret and br. John Taylor and Bishop N. K. Whitney as my associates. You also appointed me Lieutenant Governor; I always told you I was going to be Lieutenant Governor.

This is a stump speech! We are going to have our own Governor from henceforth. Brigham Young was then our Governor, Heber C. Kimball was Chief Justice and Lieutenant Governor. I was a big man then; I felt as big as br. Morley does in the Legislature. The fact is he does not understand their gabble, if he does he understands more than I do.

It is for us to say, according to our rights under the Constitution, whether we will have those cursed gentiles to rule over us or not.

I want you to publish this, Mr. Editor.

I am giving you a little of my feelings, for I want you to know that you are under no more obligation to receive those men than br. Brigham's family is to receive another man, and to reject him as their husband, their father, their friend and benefactor.

I know that what I have said has informed many of your minds, and I choose to present my ideas by comparison.

I have a right to say the gentiles shall never rule over me, although this people might admit of their coming here. I have a right to say also, that we shall never be ruled over by them from this day forth, while grass grows or water runs; never, no, never.

[Voices: 'Amen.']

Well, we have got to sustain these Amens and we have got to sustain these vows. You, ladies, too, will certainly have to do your part, or back out. I told you last Sunday to arm yourselves, and if you cannot do it any other way, sell some of your fine bonnets, fine dresses and buy yourselves a good dirk, a pistol or some other instrument of war.

Arm your boys and arm yourselves universally, and that, too, with the weapons of war, for we may be brought to the test, to see if we will stand up to the line.

I never knew it to fail, when men made covenants, but they were brought to the test to see if they would live up to them.

This people have made covenants, they have made vows, and they have been instructed by br. Brigham and he has told them that those covenants and penalties are true and faithful, and I say they are as true as the Lord God liveth, and the day will come that you will have to fulfil those vows and covenants that you have made, and not not one word shall fail.

I have told you of it, and I have backed it up when others have said it. Now, mark it, for God will drive us to it. These instructions, given to us from time to time, will have to be carried out and fulfilled, for I just know that you have got to reap that which is sown. If you sow to the spirit, you will reap life everlasting; but if you sow to the flesh, we shall reap corruption, and the bed that we make, we have got to lie in. Now I will tell you another thing that bears heavily on my mind, as much so as any other thing and that is for this people to live their religion, and do as they are told.

I will ask you this question, gentlemen and ladies, can you live your religion except you do as you are told? I have said again and again that if we will live our religion and do as we are told, those men will never come over those mountains, for we shall slay the poor devils before they get there.

I do not know of any religion except doing as I am told, and if you do, you have learned something that I have never learned. You have a Governor here to dictate you and to tell you what to do, and if we will live our religion we are always safe, are we not?

There are a great many that will not live their religion, for they think they belong to the aristocracy, but understand, gentlemen and ladies, that I withdraw from that society; I told you last Sunday that of all the corrupt beings upon the face of the earth the present aristocracy are the worst.

I am a pretty rugged fellow and valiant for the truth; and may the Lord make every body like me, that we may stand against our enemies, for the corruptest devils on the earth are the present aristocracy.

Let us go to work and lay up our grain, lay up wheat and everything that will and that can be preserved, and in so doing we will save ourselves from sorrow, pain and anguish and the Lord will give us a law and a word for us to abide, and he will cut off our enemies; and if every man and woman will go to work, lay up their grain and do as they are told, the Lord will hold off our enemies from us until we can lay up sufficient store for ourselves.

This is a part of our religion, to lay up stores and provide for ourselves, and for the surrounding country, for the day is near when they will come by thousands and by millions, with their fineries, to get a little bread; that time is right by our door.

Br. Stewart says he has discovered that this work is 5 years ahead of what he had supposed; let me tell you that this people are more than 10 years ahead of what they supposed. They were all asleep, but the Lord has waked them up to prepare them for a time of trial and famine.

If you do not see it and feel it and taste it and smell it, it will be because God will have mercy upon you, and he will, if you will do as you are told from this time forth.

Do I feel comfortable? Gentlemen and ladies, I never saw the day that I felt any better. I become weary with toil, but I feel well in regard to this work. But there is a spirit of calmness, of peace, that I am jealous of.

I never have seen the day for twenty-five years, but before there was a storm there was always a calm. In Kirtland, before the trouble commenced, there was this calm. Joseph and Hyrum were men that would stand the test, but finally they had to flee from Kirtland to Missouri.

Well, previous to that we had received our endowments, and a more calm, heavenly and prosperous time I never saw.

Was it so in Missouri? Yes, it was, after they became settled, they became composed, and the year of the trouble we never had such crops in the world as we had then.

Was it so in Nauvoo? Yes, and the spirit of composure rested upon the people, and it is more or less so now; and such crops as we have this year never were produced.

What does this mean? And the spirit of composure seems to be upon the people more than ever, and what does this mean? I am rather inclined to be jealous of it. Say I, wake up, ye Saints of Zion, while it is called to-day, lest trouble and sorrow come upon you, as a thief in the night.

Suppose it is not coming, will it hurt you to lay up the products of the earth for seven years? Will it hurt you if you have your guns, swords and spears in good condition according to the law of the United States?

Some of the States give a man his clearance at 40 years of age, others at 45; they call men to train when they are 18 years of age, but we call upon all from 6 to 600 years old; we do not except any, and I want the world to know that we are ready for anything that comes along. If it is good, we are ready for that, and if it is evil, we are ready to stand against it.

We are calculating to sow our wheat early this fall, in case of emergency. I throw out these things for you to think upon, and if they are not right, they will not hurt anybody.

But wake up, ye Saints of the Most High, and prepare for any emergency that the Lord our God may have pleasure in bringing forth.

We never shall leave these valleys—till we get ready; no, never, no, never. We will live here till we go back to Jackson County, Missouri. I prophecy that in the name of Israel's God.

[The congregation shouted 'Amen,' and Pres. B. Young said, 'it is true.']

If our enemies force us to destroy our orchards and our property, to destroy and lay waste our houses, fields and every thing else, we shall never build and plant again till we do it in Jackson County. But our enemies are not here yet, and we have not yet thrown down our houses.

Let me tell you, if God designs that Israel should now become free, they will come and strike the blow, and if he does not, they will not come. That is as true as that book (pointing to the Bible).

Go to work and lay up your grain and do not lay it out for fine clothes, nor any other kind of fine thing, but make homespun trowsers and petticoats.

What would please me more than for my family, instead of wanting me to go to the store for petticoats and short gowns, to see them go to work and make some good homespun? What would be prettier than some of the English striped linsey and a bonnet made of our own straw? Those are the women I would choose for wives.

If you want virtue, go into the farming country, for there it is homespun. Farming districts contain the essence and the virtue of old England.

I do not know as you know what homespun is, but it is that which is spun at home, and it is for your welfare, both men, women and children to make your own clothing. It is also for your salvation to equip yourselves according to law.

Now I will tell you, I have about a hundred shots on hand all the time; three or four fifteen shooters and three or four revolvers right in the room where I sleep, and the devil does not like to sleep there, for he is afraid they will go off half cocked.

If you will lay a bowie knife or a loaded revolver under your pillow every night, you will not have many unpleasant dreams, nor be troubled with the nightmare, for there is nothing that the devil is so much afraid of as a weapon of death.

You may take this as some of Heber's wild visions, if you please. I have acknowledged myself as one of the people, and now I say we will take our own name, and we will not be false named any more. We are the kingdom of God, we are STATE OF DESERET, and we will have you, br. Brigham, as our Governor just so long as you live. We will not have any other Governor.

I mean just what I say, and this people say they will not have any other Governor, and especially any one that has to come here under arms, for we consider that any man is a poor damned curse that has to come here under arms to rule over us. These are my feelings, and if anybody votes against it, they are not of us; but there are but four or five but what vote for us, and they are apostates, and will go overboard. There is not a child but what goes with us in these things.

When we reject br. Brigham Young we reject the head, but we will not do it, for the body shall dwell together, and we are members of that body, and he shall be our Governor just as long as God Almighty will have him to be.—Those who are in favor of it, raise your right hands.

[The vote was unanimous.]

You may try it just as long as you like and it will be just so every time, except those four or five; and they never will vote. Can I point them out? Yes, I can. I have had my eye on them ever since they came into the congregation.

Let us do our duty, be humble, prayerful, honest, virtuous and punctual in all our engagements; let us have no lying, no deception, but
