

FRAGMENTS.

DEPUTIES MCGARRY and ARMSTRONG came up from Beaver today.

THERE will be no session of the Third District Court next week.

SOLOMON BROS. & CO. are still increasing their immense trade in boots and shoes.

"HOODMAN BLIND" for the last time at the Theatre this evening. It is worth seeing.

Mrs. Dye has a magnificent display of millinery which is not unsurpassed for quality and style.

Spices, ranges, heaters, and everything else in this line can be obtained at low prices at T. W. Jennings' store.

The night train of the Union Pacific did not get in till 5 a.m. today. The D. & R. G. W. was about three hours late.

HASLAM BROTHERS have a fine display of beautiful meats at their shop on First South Street. Call and see them.

BARNES & DAVIS have a stock of groceries, dry goods, etc., in a store that will suit the most careful purchaser.

The confectionery store of Solomon Brothers & Co. is well provided with pure home-made candies, foreign and domestic fruits, etc.

GEORGE DUNFORD knows how to display his large stock of boots and shoes so that you can see what you want to purchase without unnecessary trouble.

R. K. THOMAS has in his large dry goods establishment in the Emporium corner everything you want to wear, in the latest styles and of the best quality.

CORN BROTHERS' fine display of dry goods has attracted special attention this season. It would be hard to excel the tasteful arrangement of their store.

C. M. DONELSON & Co. have one of the best arranged dry goods stores in the city. Their stock includes all the latest styles, and they keep no inferior goods.

JOHN R. CUSHING, the jeweler, has one of the most attractive show windows on the street, displaying a fine assortment of jewelry of every description.

BORNSON & CARLQUIST have an unusually large stock of furniture and upholstered goods, which they offer at prices that make it impossible for them to be undersold.

A. D. O. CALDER's music palace on First South Street is a display of pianos, organs, and every variety of musical merchandise. Pay it a visit and you will find a welcome.

THE low prices and immense stock offered by Z. C. M. I. have attracted large crowds of customers for the holiday and winter trade. This house has no worthy rival in the west.

THE Co-operative Furniture Company have at their salerooms on East Temple Street everything necessary for house furnishings, which they offer at low prices and at low prices.

J. C. CUTLER & BRO. have a stock of home made goods that is not equaled by any house in the Territory. You can either purchase by the piece or have whatever you want in the clothing line made to order.

S. P. TRAEDEL has his four stores filled up with merchandise of every description—that is, as closely as they can be considering the heavy trade he has had during the past few weeks. His stock is being replenished daily.

C. R. SAVAGE'S Art Bazaar is second to none in the variety and quality of useful and ornamental articles within its line. And, as ever, the general proprietor has the prices marked at the lowest living rate.

THE cakes, candies, etc., made by the Arbogast & Trumbo Company have a well established reputation for their excellence and purity. The place of business is the handsomest of its class in town.

F. W. MADSEN & Co. have a large and constantly increasing trade in their two stores. In one of these is a stock of the finest furniture, and the other is occupied with the celebrated line of stoves, ranges, etc., carried by the firm.

F. AUERBACH & BRO. still keep to the front in the dry goods business. All visitors there are made welcome by courteous clerks, who are pleased to exhibit goods, and also to display the workings of the beautiful mechanical toys.

HENRY DINWIDDIE'S mammoth furniture and house-furnishing establishment is known throughout Utah and the surrounding Territories. It maintains its position in the front rank of business enterprises by fair and honorable treatment of all customers.

DURING the past two days two robberies have occurred in Ogden. The first of these, according to the statement of the victim, was the relieving of a Mr. Harding, of Park City, of nearly two hundred dollars, by a confidence man, at the depot. A shrewd game was put up on the loser, who was very sick, and easily duped, and the money was thus secured. The other was the stealing of a number of articles from Thompson's saloon on Fifth Street. No clue to the thieves—Ogden Herald.

To the Ladies.

The ladies' semi-annual meeting in the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Rooms is adjourned until Dec. 31.

B. W. SMITH.

From Beaver.

This morning the five "Mormons" sentenced at Beaver yesterday for violating the third section of the Edmunds law, arrived in this city, and were taken to the penitentiary. The trip was made in about twenty-five hours. They are Elijah M. Steers, Stephen Barton, David Chidester, George Hoybrook and Daniel McFarlane, and all were given the full penalty for unlawful cohabitation, by Judge Boreman.

Sudden Death.

By telephone message, just before going to press this afternoon, we were notified of the sudden death of a young man in Alpine City, Utah County. It seems that the deceased, whose name was Stephen Martin, had been previous to his death, in the employment of Bishop McCullough, of Alpine City. He was feeling unwell when in Salt Lake City about a week ago, but nothing serious was at that time apprehended. He was, however, taken to Alpine by William Davis and died suddenly this morning at 1 o'clock. Stephen Martin was unmarried and but nineteen years of age. His death was quite a shock to his relatives and friends in that place.

CONVICTED OF LIBEL.

Result of O. S. King's Trial in the Second District Court.

BEAVER, Dec. 22. (Special to the Evening News.)—O. S. King, the Fresno citizen, against whom the jury last evening returned a verdict of guilty of criminal libel, was at ten this morning sentenced to pay a fine of one hundred dollars and the costs of court, amounting in all to $172.85.

The jury, however, when King is convicted of libel, utterly refused to come into court to give his evidence, and it became necessary for the judge to order his arrest on attachment to secure his attendance, and even then it was evident that he was the most reluctant of witnesses.

After Tibberty had given his testimony, the judge ordered that he pay the costs of his attachment or stand committed. Tibberty said he would prefer to go to jail, but upon being taken into the marshal's office, he reconsidered his determination and paid his fine. The witness was evidently under the influence of liquor.

The interrogations of the prosecution were merely to the effect as to whether he, Tibberty, had testified truthfully in the Calton murder case. He replied in the affirmative, the witness was dismissed.

The defense introduced witnesses to prove Tibberty's drunkenness and general worthless character, but utterly failed to impeach his reputation for veracity.

The argument of Lochrie, counsel for the defense, was largely to the effect that it was impossible to libel a man as worthless as he claimed Tibberty to be.

King, when on the stand, was questioned by his own counsel as to what interest his paper was published in. He replied, "In the interest of the various industries of the country, against the 'Mormon' Church, and in the interest of good government."

Police Items.

Perry Houston's trial for flourishing a pistol at the Cliff House the other night, was concluded in Justice Tyler's Court yesterday afternoon, and resulted in a conviction. The defendant was fined $50.

Charles Cook and Hiram Howells were before Justice Pyper today for having been drunk. They pleaded guilty and were fined $5 each.

David Weaver was released from jail late last evening. He had been confined there some time for drunkenness. On regaining his liberty he felt unusually jubilant, and proceeded direct to a saloon to express his joy. His choice of a place of sojourning was unfortunate, however, and before morning he had become so inebriated to all that was going on that the police had to cart him to jail and lodge him in the "drunk house" to sober up. When he regains a semi-rational condition he will have an opportunity to interview the Police Justice.

Fred Nusslein was found on the street early this morning, drunk, and on being approached by the officers became exceedingly profane. They took him into custody and he will be required to answer for his conduct this afternoon.

John Reddick, who was arrested for stealing an old bedstead, which he made a fire to keep himself warm, was released under a suspension of sentence.

Dr. W. H. H. Sharp is in jail again. He was placed there today by the police, who found him in a deplorable condition. He was lying near a "dead drunk," and was almost frozen. When taken to the City Hall he cried for food, stating that he had not had a mouthful for two days. He was put in jail and was given his dinner as soon as he was sober enough to eat it.

Welcome Home.

Today Brother Charles S. Burton and his wife, Mrs. Julia Burton, returned from a protracted visit to the east, having been absent several months. The cause of their trip was, as our readers will probably remember, the somewhat precarious condition of Sister Burton's health. It was thought probably that a serious operation would be necessary. The leading physicians of America were consulted. The one of all who is esteemed to be second to none in skill, advised that there be a wait of several months, at the end of which time should an operation prove necessary, the nature could be more precisely determined. It was possible, however, in the opinion of the surgeon in question, that no operation might be needed, as in some cases of the malady with which the lady appeared to be affected it disappeared by the process of nature. That this latter opinion should prove correct is the fervent wish of her numerous friends. She has improved in general health during the eastern trip. We take pleasure in wishing Brother and Sister Burton welcome home.

Probate Court.

Proceedings in the Salt Lake County Probate Court yesterday:

In the matter of the estate of Francis Platt, deceased; place of posting notice of time and place for hearing the final account of the administrator, and petition for distribution made; decree made allowing and approving account as rendered, and distributing the residue of said estate among the heirs of said deceased.

In the matter of the estate of Dirk Boelck, deceased; order made appointing the president of this mission, of William Fuller, administrator, praying for an order to negotiate a note and mortgage belonging to said estate.

The marriage certificate of Charles A. Honey and Sarah Ann Western has been filed with the clerk.

Arrest at Mill Creek.

Yesterday afternoon Deputy Marshals Cannon and Franks made an incursion south of this city, directing their steps toward the home of John Johnson, at East Mill Creek. Mr. Johnson was accused of living with two wives, and on a complaint made by Mr. Franks a warrant had been issued by Commissioner Norrell. The accused was brought to this city and admitted that the charge against him was true. He was required to give bail in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance in the Third District Court after the next grand jury had considered his case, and after obtaining sureties was allowed to depart.

An Auspicious Union.

In Logan, on December 22, the rite was performed which united in marriage R. W. Sloan, Esq., of this city, and Miss Nettie Thatcher, the accomplished daughter of George W. and Mrs. Leta T. Thatcher, of that town. In the evening a reception was tendered by the bride's parents to the friends of the bride and groom. Both of the contracting parties are well known in social circles in Logan and in this city, and a host of warm friends join in the wish that they may realize their most sanguine dreams of happiness.

"HOODMAN BLIND."

A Successful Performance at the Theatre.

A very large and quite appreciative audience assembled in the Theatre last evening, the parquette being crowded. At the rising of the curtain and for some time after, the weather outside seemed to have affected the audience decidedly, but they hawed out in time to do justice to some very fine pieces of acting. The play is in the main a good one, strictly English in type, with a strong but not altogether consistent plot and effectively arranged action throughout.

Gustavus Isviek made his first bow to a Salt Lake audience as the impression first made of his being a second Edwin Thorne soon disappeared and in its place came the realization of a strong, energetic and forcible actor, capable of a heavier burden, and of decidedly excellent appearance. But for the vigor which he infused into the lines and the action here and there, the piece would have lagged woefully at such places, and thus have been a failure, whereas it was quite successful and is sure to draw another good house this evening.

Miss Isviek will make the impression here to the audience as well as the time. The dual role which she presented, in the hands of a more experienced and more powerful actress would have been a great feature of the piece, which it is intended for, being adapted to the instance as well as the broadest range of character acting in rapid rotation. The part is a very difficult and trying one, and while the lady was somewhat overmatched in it, she showed considerable improvement and the capability of coming nearer to the mark with further time.

The company are a long way above the average, and the principal ones rendered excellent support.

Water Pipes.

Today finished the putting down of two blocks of water mains on Second East Street, between Fourth and Sixth South streets, under the direction of Superintendent Ovinger. There are now twenty-four miles of water mains in the city. Over five miles of this is on the northeast bench, where many of the residents are having the water taken into their houses.

"Speed the Utah Central."

Southern California is having considerable trouble over the inability of the railroads to carry the freight business of that section. The utterances of the newspapers there show that the people are anxious for the advent of another railroad into their midst. They want a road, too, that will connect with a part of the country that can furnish the much-needed supplies, and Utah is looked to as the most available objective point.

FIRST DISTRICT COURT.

A Busy Day Before Judge Henderson.

In the First District Court at Ogden, yesterday morning, the case of Alexander Hill, of Wellsville, who had been arrested on a charge of adultery, was called. Assistant District Attorney Hiles appeared for the prosecution, and ex-Judge O. W. Powers for the defense.

The case was taken up by a witness who was called by the prosecution was no present, and the case was therefore continued until a later date in the term.

The petit jury were excused until after the meeting of the Supreme Court, which occurs early in January.

The grand jury made their final report and were discharged.

Following is the report in full:

We, the grand jury, having been in session 22 days, and having heard and considered all the cases brought before us, and having taken up the cases, beg leave to report to the court, and to the people of this county, the following report of our acceptance and discharge.

We have examined in the United States cases, finding indictments in 81 cases; also examined 23 Territorial cases, finding indictments in 12 cases.

We have devoted 31 days to United States cases, and 12 days to Territorial cases. A committee was appointed to inspect the county and city jails, and to report to the court, and to the people of this county, the following report of our acceptance and discharge.

"Having inspected the county and city jails, and the sanitary condition of Ogden, we find the county jail, and the city jail, in good order and condition, except in the case of the county jail, where the opening of the windows of the cold air to penetrate the cells to the discomfort of the inmates, who complain of it, and we would respectfully recommend that this be remedied, and the opening of the iron gratings. The officers in charge of these institutions we found affable and courteous, and ready to accord every facility in the prosecution of our investigation."

"The sanitary condition of the block bounded by Fourth, Fifth, Young and Main streets is deplorable, the interior being the receptacle for all kinds of garbage and refuse, creating during the winter season noxious odors predisposing to epidemics. We therefore strongly urge the construction of a sewer, and early enforcement of our sanitary laws."

Complaint has reached us from reliable sources, that there is a slaughter house southeast of town, situated on a branch of the Utah Central, where the carcasses of dead and sick cattle, and the refuse of the slaughterers who have to use its waters. This nuisance should be abated.

The Ogden depot question has again been brought forward to the attention of the court, but, inasmuch as the U. S. R. & N. Co. have agreed that a new depot is indispensable, the court has decided to postpone the matter until the next session of the court.

In conclusion we cannot express our sincere thanks for the assistance rendered our body by the court, the prosecuting and assistant prosecuting attorneys, who have rendered our unpleasant duties less onerous than otherwise would have been.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

FRED J. KESSEL, Foreman.

Other business transacted by the court yesterday was as follows:

The People vs. Levi Smith; grand larceny; trial postponed.

The People vs. B. F. Jensen; case dismissed.
