Vernal, Uintah Co., Feb. 28.-For the first time since the city purchased the curfew bell, two years ago, it rang out a fire alarm last evening about 7:30. The residence of S. P. Dillman was discovered to be on fire by one of the fam-ily, and the alarm was sounded. In less than five inluites there were fifty men on the scene and willing hands formed a bucket brigade and scon had the roof drenched with water. In the meantime others attached the garden hose to the pump and ran up stairs cutting through the ceiling with axes. The fire was raging the entire length of the building between the roof and celling, but was soon extinguished. Fortunately the fire occurred early in the evening, otherwise the result would have been disastrous
