

EVENING NEWS. Wednesday, August 10, 1881.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

No cricket match to-day.

Quite sultry but pleasant after the rain.

The Nineteenth Ward will have a day's out at Black Rock, on Friday.

The dust has been turned into mud for the time being. Pleasant change, isn't it?

A very large number of people accompanied the Fair train to Ogden this morning.

F. R. McConnell, General Western Agent of the Union Pacific Railroad, is in the city.

Pigeon shooting match at Lake Shore to-morrow. Large attendance is expected from surrounding districts.

President Taylor's party reached Evanston to-day, and were accompanied to that point by Hon. William Budge.

The telephone service is becoming decidedly popular. The workmen are engaged fixing additional wires nearly every day.

The Logan Leader, in its new departure, contains a great deal of readable matter, but the printing might be improved.

Mr. Averill, clerk of the Third District Court, returned last evening from a trip to England. He has been gone since May.

S. J. Jonasson, Esq., a lawyer well known in Salt Lake, arrived in town yesterday from California, where he has been residing for some time.

The Logan Leader has donated its patent outside, and comes out, dressed all in home-spun. —Ogden Herald. The reverse is the case, friend Leo.

Owing to the illness of Judge A. C. Pyper, the case of embezzlement did not come up this morning in the Police Court as expected. It will probably come up to-morrow.

James T. Clark, General Ticket Agent of the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad, and T. S. Battle, Contracting Agent for the same road, are at present taking in the sights of Salt Lake.

A bill, named Edwin L. Killie, who has been staying at the Cache Valley House, Logan, for about a month, has been decamped, leaving behind him unpaid bills to the tune of $80 to $100. So we learn from the Logan Leader.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Firemen.—There will be the regular quarterly meeting of the Firemen's Mutual Aid Association at Firemen's Hall, to-morrow evening, August 11th; 1881, at 7.30 p.m., sharp. Full attendance desired.

J. W. BLYTHE, Secretary.

Fatal Accident.—A letter from Adamsville, Beaver County, received this afternoon, gives particulars of the death of a ten year old son of Rees Griffiths, who was dragged by a horse which he was taking to a field. The funeral was largely attended on Sunday, the 7th instant. The letter will be published.

Earthquakes.—About 9.30 p.m., on Wednesday, the 3d inst., a violent shock of earthquake passed over Beaver from east to west, shaking everything rather lively; it was followed at irregular intervals until about midnight by four other shocks, but none heavy enough to cause any damage. The next day, about 11.30 a.m., another shock was felt. Are we located on a volcano?—Southern Utahian.

Accidentally Drowned.—At West Jordan, yesterday afternoon, a little two-year old son of Solon and Henriette Richardson, residing at West Jordan, was accidentally drowned. The parents of the little fellow lived near the race which carries the water to the Jordan, and yesterday afternoon, while the father was in the hayfield, and the mother was occupied in the rear of the house, he disappeared and was afterwards found in the ditch. He was only out of the mother's sight a very few minutes.

Hussey Redivivus.—Warren Hussey, the ex-banker of Denver and Salt Lake, is again on Wood River, examining claims with a view of purchasing. He is accompanied by Hon. H. B. Nevada, ex-State mineralogist. Mr. Hussey's purchase of the Jay Gould for $30,000 seems only to have whetted his appetite for more bargains of the same sort. He is understood to be operating for a company of Indian capitalists. So we learn from an exchange—the Haily Times, of the Wood River country.

Home Again.—Messrs. Henry Grow and C. J. Lambert returned from the east last night. They have had a pleasant time and have accomplished the object of their visit east, namely, to get certain information in regard to the manufacturing of paper, with a view to utilizing such information in the making of that article in this Territory. They visited several of the most important paper mills in the States and were received with courtesy on every hand. Mr. T. E. Taylor, of this office, who accompanied the above named gentlemen, is expected to return this evening.

Sad.—Miss Keatie Heywood, through the untiring attention she has bestowed on her cousin, Harry Heywood, who was so frightfully injured by an accident at Pascoe's Lime Kilns, some time ago, has herself entirely broken down in health. Commenting on the subject the Ogden Herald of yesterday says:

"To procure greater quiet and change of air the patient was, about a week ago, removed from Salt Lake to a house a little north of Kayaville, where his faithful nurse still continued to wait upon him. On Sunday, however, in consequence of the strain that had been upon the young lady's system, she completely broke down. Yesterday her condition became so alarming, that a doctor was sent for, and Dr. Fowler and medical aid, Dr. Fowler and Mrs. Heywood consequently reached Kayaville in the afternoon, and Miss Heywood was taken home to Salt Lake this evening, having been carried to that place."

We hope Miss Heywood will soon recover from her prostration.

CITY COUNCIL.

Proceedings at the City Council on Tuesday evening, August 9th, 1881, Mayor Little presiding:

According to previous appointment the subject of hearing appeals from and complaints against the assessment for the improvement of certain sidewalks at heretofore published, came up as the first business before the Council.

Several parties were present, who represented that they were properly assessed, as to the number of feet frontage of their property, or that the amount was unequal, as compared with their neighbors. In all cases where the complaint appeared to be well founded the matter was referred back to the commission for adjustment.

The subject of modifying the grade of the sidewalks on Second South Street, between East Temple and First East Streets, the establishment of a new grade, being complained of by Mr. Z. Snow and others, was referred to the committee on streets and alleys, with the city surveyor associated, and the further consideration of the matter was deferred.

A. L. Hallett, a blind man, verbally petitioned that his license as a liquor dealer, be granted free for three months. Petition not entertained.

The committee on improvements, to whom was referred the petition of James Townsend, asking an extension of his lease, which expires next June, of the Warm Springs Bath House for four years, in consideration of his making certain repairs and improvements, reported that Mr. Townsend has already expended considerable means in repairing the Bath House, and that he now contemplates expending $200 or $300 in repairing the dwelling-houses and in making other improvements, much needed about the premises; they therefore recommended that his lease be extended five years from date; that he keep all the buildings in good repair at his own expense, and that he be prohibited from selling any spirituous and fermented liquors on the premises. Adopted.

Alderman Pyper presented the report of the police court for the month of July. Number of arrests 87; fines assessed—cash, $382.50; labor $148; total, $530.50. Received—$100. The new liquor ordinance came up as unfinished business, but pending consideration the Council adjourned for one week.

Lord Harris.—This gentleman, accompanied by his lady, arrived in Salt Lake City last evening, and registered at the Walker House. Calling at the hotel, this morning a representative of the News had the pleasure of obtaining an interesting conversation with the gentleman in question. Lord Harris (of Kent, England) is a man we should judge to be about thirty-five years of age, tall, and may be described as an exceedingly pleasant looking young man. He entered freely into conversation about matters in the old country, more particularly in reference to the Irish land bill now before the British House of Commons.

The bill, as it now stands, and as it is very likely to be passed, he considered altogether too sweeping and in his opinion tantamount to confiscating the land. He was ready to admit, however, that the passing of such a bill was probably the only thing that could be done under the circumstances; but inasmuch as it would apply to the whole of Ireland, he thought that landlords who had always endeavored to act squarely by their tenants would suffer equally with petty landlords whose treatment of their tenants had always been of a most reprehensible character. It was thought by some that by and by a similar bill might be attempted to be passed for England, and in this connection the distinguished nobleman quietly remarked that English Members of Parliament (landlords) when they came to deal with their own lands, would find it a different thing to dealing with the land of other people.

From the land question the conversation drifted into the Bradlaugh contest. Lord Harris, however, had no decided opinion on the subject. Save that if it were true that Bradlaugh had openly declared his hostility to royalty, his being allowed to take the oath of allegiance to royalty would be a mere farce, and in that case the oath had better be done away with altogether.

Lord and Lady Harris left England on the 14th of July last, landing at Quebec some weeks ago, and are now en route for Japan and Peking, thence home to England by way of Ceylon.

This is the second time Lord Harris has been in Salt Lake. He was here about two years ago on his return from Australia. His visits, however, had always been of very short duration; but from what he had seen, he considered Salt Lake city "a very pretty little town."

The Weather.—About 11 o'clock this morning a heavy thunderstorm passed over this city, accompanied by a downpour of rain which continued incessantly for about an hour. The rain, of course, was welcomed by all; indeed some people seemed rather to enjoy walking in it, on the principle that if they didn't wet on this occasion, they might not have the chance again for some time. It has been more or less cloudy and showery this whole afternoon. The atmosphere has been nicely cooled off, the thermometer only indicating 74 deg. at 2 o'clock.

The Cattle Disease.—A correspondent (Mr. John Melvine) referring to the item in our last issue, concerning the appearance of a mysterious cattle disease in Slaterville, recommends the use of the so-called New Zealand cattle cure. The compound consists of trimstone and one-half ounce of saltpetre, the compound being given either diluted or in bran. This remedy has been certified to as efficacious, by Mr. E. T. McGeer, of this city. At any rate it is well worth a trial.—Ogden Herald.

Iron Mines Bonded.—We were informed that Colonel O. J. Hollister has bonded the iron mines at Iron City, from all the parties interested, including those now in litigation. He has also bonded the list of November, and it is said if the sale is made, that the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad will soon be put through that place.—Southern Utahian.

How is it, T. T.?

A Trip to Caldera.—The Salt Lake City Bicycle Club, led by Captain Cutler, left the city about 9 p.m. yesterday, for a little practice on the race track at Caldera's Farm. This was the first time that the little elevation on the turn at the northwest side would greatly improve it. The practice developed plenty of muscle and any amount of confidence coupled with fast time, considering the condition of the track, the strong wind, and the lack of suitable racing suits. An impression seems to prevail among the boys that they can do anything on a bicycle that can be done by "any other man," and judging from some of the feats performed, they are not far wrong. Specimens of still mounting, pedal mounting, riding hands off, standing on the bicycle, dismounting over the handles, and lying down on the machine while in full career, formed features of the exercise by several of the club. The movements of the machines were perfectly noiseless, and but for an occasional gleam of the moonlight on the flashing spokes it appeared as though the riders were poised in the air. The boys only need the practice, the uniform and the gold medal, and these are all on the way. After supper and ice cream the riders took to the water and enjoyed themselves for some time in boating on the Lake. The little out was heartily enjoyed and terminated about 9 p.m., with a pleasant and exhilarating moonlight run to the city.

MANY a Dollar formerly spent on expensive Sulphur Baths is now saved by substituting the pure, efficient, and infinitely cheaper, Glenn's Sulphur Soap, which is just as beneficial but infinitely cheaper. Local diseases of the skin, rheumatism and gout are all relieved by this standard remedy. Complexional blemishes are eradicated by it, and it imparts to the cuticle a pearly whiteness and velvety softness which greatly enhance the effect of its charming. Its soothing, antiphlogistic action constitutes it a prime remedy for sores, ulcers, cuts, sprains, scalds, bruises, and in fact every abnormal condition of the cuticle attended by inflammation, swelling or itching. Ladies moving in our best society speak of its beautifying properties in enthusiastic terms, and give it a decided preference to cosmetics which merely conceal but do not, like Glenn's Sulphur Soap, eradicate defects of the complexion. The use of ointments for eruptive complaints is to be deprecated because of their having a tendency to clog the pores and in some cases to aggravate rather than remedy the disease. They are, besides, seldom thorough enough in their effects to prevent the recurrence of eruptions of an inveterate type, and have the disadvantage of oiling the linen of persons who use them. Glenn's Sulphur Soap, on the contrary, radically cures the disease to which it is adapted and is, further, recommends itself on account of its cleanliness. It is besides, an admirable disinfectant of clothing which has been worn by persons afflicted with diseases of a contagious nature. As a specific preventive and promoter of the general health it presents advantages of the most unequivocal description.
