

A communication from Mayor Armstrong tendered the Tenth Ward square for fair buildings, under certain restrictions and conditions, among which was stipulated the erection of suitable structures at a cost of not less than $20,000.

Lowell moved to refer the communication to the agricultural committee with instructions to draw a bill to meet the conditions of the tender. The committee thought the Assembly had not about enough money and ought to pause.

Hoge and Seegmiller favored the motion, and an appropriation for fair buildings.

Moyle said that by appropriating $10,000 for fair buildings the Territory would get more than that amount in the city.

The claim of J. Z. Stewart for $13.30, amount of a witness' certificate by him, and that of H. G. McLean for $37.15, were favorably reported upon by Hatch, chairman of the committee.

Chairman of the judiciary committee, reported favorably the bill fixing the territorial secretary's fees. Filed. Moyle introduced a bill to provide the election of the officers of the A. & M. Society by the Assembly.

The jury bill was amended and passed unanimously.

2 p. m. The Governor approved the equalization bill, and the one in relation to insurance companies.

The elections committee reported favorably upon the liquor bill. The bill in relation to county registers, defining their duties, etc., was passed by sections.

The debate took place on the provision making it optional with county registers whether or not they make out abstracts of title on application. The committee offered an amendment to make obligatory upon recorders to furnish abstracts.

Mr. Jones, Hoge and McLaughlin moved the amendment, holding it proper to compel recorders to furnish abstracts unless they might choose to do so. The bill passed by unanimous vote.

Mr. Jones, from the claims committee, recommended the appropriation of $100,000 to A. M. Musser as compensation for five years, as fish commissioner.

Mr. Jones moved to make the amount lost. The report was adopted.

Mr. Jones, from the same committee, reported on the claim of G. R. Belnap, of Weber County, recommending that $12 be appropriated to him for advance on the First District Court. The report was withdrawn, on a technical defect.

The House concurred in the Council amendment to the banking bill, making Secretary of the Territory, instead of James T. Little, bank examiner. The amendment was insisted upon by the House.

Mr. Jones moved to make the asylum appropriation $30,000.

Mr. Jones wanted enough money appropriated to the asylum to finish it according to the plans, or none at all. Mr. Jones was opposed to bonding the territory for more than $150,000, and desirous to make the amount of appropriations conform to that plan. The subject was being debated when the session closed.

Sevier Stake Items.

Richfield, March 6, 1888.

The quarterly conference of the Sevier Stake of Zion convened in Richfield on Saturday, March 3d, at 10 a.m. President Albert K. Tharber, being very ill and his first counselor, Wm. H. Seegmiller attending the Legislature, Counselor William H. Clark presided.

The usual business, such as the reading of reports and sustaining the general and local authorities was attended to in a satisfactory manner. The instructions, given by the different preachers were upon the proper training of the youth, the preparing of ourselves for labors in the Temples of the Lord and the duties of every day life.

The Sevier Stake Academy began its second term on Monday, January 3d, with 94 students; the third term will begin on Monday, March 12th. Under the able management of Prof. I. J. Hayes the academy has already accomplished a good work, the results of which are appreciated by the Saints of this Stake.

The conference from first to last was a success and we enjoyed a time of refreshing through the Spirit of the Lord.

Respectfully,
THOS. BRANDLEY,
Stake Clerk.

Died from Natural Causes.

Last Wednesday we had a local from Fairview, announcing the death of Samuel Slife, of that town. Since the article was written the affair has become one of considerable interest. It appears that the death was very sudden and the more people thought of it the more they became interested. The Drs. St. John were telegraphed for to hold a post mortem examination on the body of Mr. Slife, aged 67 years, who was buried on the 18th of February and exhumed on the 1st of March, and who was supposed to have died under suspicious circumstances. The following is the report of the physicians:

"Last Thursday a post mortem examination was held upon Samuel Slife, of Fairview, who, it was alleged, had died under suspicious circumstances. The body was exhumed, after having been buried for over a week, and the post mortem examination was conducted by Dr. Wm. H. Olsen, of Ephraim, and Dr. W. H. St. John, of Mantli, with the kind assistance of Drs. H. Lindley, of Mt. Pleasant, and E. H. St. John, of Mantli. The result of the post mortem examination is that said Samuel Slife died from natural causes—chronic inflammation of the bladder, and extension of inflammation to the excretive structure of the kidneys.

WM. H. OLSTEN, M. D.,
WM. H. ST. JOHN, M. D."

The coroner's jury returned a verdict of death from natural causes.—Mantli Sentinel.

Third District Court.

People vs. Charles J. Hodle; embezzlement; jury find a verdict of guilty; sentence to be passed on Monday March 11.

People vs. John Pierce; grand larceny; verdict of not guilty.

Disagreed.

Chas. B. Gillette was tried yesterday afternoon for stealing a mule. The jury went out about 5 o'clock and returned at 10:30 with the statement that they could not agree. The vote stood 10 to 2 for conviction. Today Gillette's attorney stated that the defendant could not give bail, and asked that he be permitted to go at large on his own recognizance. Mr. Clarke opposed this as he felt sure Gillette would get out of the country at the first opportunity. The court reduced the bail from $1,200 to $300, but as Gillette could not find sureties for any amount whatever, he was sent back to the penitentiary.

Snowville Items.

Snowville, Utah, March 1, 1888.

The past winter has been the severest known by the settlers here. Stock has perished by hundreds through exposure and want of feed.

One thing we have been blessed with is a freedom from the diseases with which our neighboring settlements are scourged. We acknowledge in this the hand of Providence.

We have been having a series of theatrical performances by our newly organized Home Dramatic Club. Much credit is due them for their untiring zeal. They have been organized but a little over two months. They began without capital, and today have considerable scenery, a fine drop curtain, costume and other property and are not in debt. They gave their closing performance for the winter season on Saturday, March 3. The evening's bill consisted of "Miranda, or the Justice of Tacon," and "Peggy Green," in which the full strength of the company appears.

Monday last we had a flying visit from U. S. Deputy Exum, "on postal business." He put up at the Goodlife House.

The Union Depot Again.

It is now learned that Civil Engineer Patten is acting according to the instructions of President Charles Francis Adams, of the Union Pacific, in coming to Ogden and surveying the Union Depot grounds. Yesterday at the suggestion of Mr. Patten, and Claim Agent A. W. Fleming of the same company, a committee composed of gentlemen of Ogden appraised the Union Depot land. The committee consisted of Messrs. A. H. Nelson, John Keck, Wm. Farrell, and S. S. Schramm. The land is composed of a strip 800 feet wide and four blocks long, extending from Second Street to Sixth. The land, so it is learned, was fixed at from one to four thousand dollars per acre, aggregating in all somewhere in the neighborhood of $100,000.

And this is the land which will now be turned over to the terminal company, under the name of the Union Depot Company, the principal stockholders in which will be the railroad companies which have their terminus here. After the long years which the people of this section have waited the promise of the great companies will now be redeemed, and the gorgeous Union Depot will be a reality.—Ogden Standard, March 10.

Small-pox in Ogden.

There is small-pox in Ogden. The first patient afflicted was a Mr. Austin, who came down with varioloid. The quarantine physician was called in and pronounced the case small-pox. Dr. Condon was next informed, and he asserted that it was only chicken-pox. Dr. Allen agreed with Dr. Powers, that the disease was small-pox, as did also a number of non-professionals who were thoroughly acquainted with the disease.

The house where Mr. Austin resided was quarantined, and ropes stretched across the sidewalk; these, however, were cut down by someone in the night. Mr. Austin has just recovered, and goes out and about. After he was attacked, two of his children came down with the contagion, but are recovering. A third child, however, has taken the disease in a mild form and now has it.

Another Case of Lye Poisoning.

A sad accident happened to the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Adams Thursday morning. It seems that Mrs. Adams had been washing, and on wringing out the clothes had occasion to use some concentrated lye. She placed the can which contained it upon a table, and turning her back for a moment the little girl took up the can and drank the contents.

According to the latest information we have been able to obtain the child is in a very precarious condition, but we cannot learn the extent of the internal injuries received. We hope, however, that the child may recover, although it will be something unusual if some permanent injuries be not occasioned.

People should be exceedingly careful in handling such a dangerous article as concentrated lye. Hundreds of accidents have occurred from its careless use, and many happen where the greatest possible care is exercised.

We advise people to dispense with it when possible. For the benefit of any who may have such an accident happen, we give the following remedy as given by Dr. Sherman: When lye is taken internally, administer vinegar and water plentifully. When burned externally by lye, vinegar and sweet oil is an excellent remedy. We have heard that parsley is also a good remedy, made into tea and rubbed on the burnt part or taken internally, as the case requires; the best remedy, however, is not to use the lye, but if you must, never put it out of your hands unless you put it under lock and key.—Idaho Enterprise.

STATEHOOD DEBATE.

The Close of the Hearing Before the Senate Committee.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10.—[Special.]—Baskin was before the Senate committee on Territories today and attempted to answer the arguments in favor of Utah's admission. The main point was theocracy. He utterly failed to answer anything. He broke down completely on a case of interruption of the cohabitation law presented in Richards' arguments. The committee asked many questions and Baskin asked leave to print the balance of his argument. Richards was asked questions during Baskin's argument by members of the committee and at one time it was difficult to tell who was making the argument, Richards or Baskin.

A crushing reply to Delegate Dubois' tirade before the committee on February 18, was filed by Richards and ordered printed. When Dubois reads the answer to his reckless statements he will feel like a fellow who has been flayed alive. An abstract of the records in cohabitation cases was filed and ordered printed with Richards' reply to Baskin, to be filed Monday. This closes the hearing.

Assaulted His Wife.

Last evening at about 9 o'clock, two ladies appeared at the City Hall and made complaint against one Jos. Eastman. One of them was the wife of that individual, and she bore upon her face cause enough for complaint in the shape of a black mark and a badly swelled cheek. The man went home drunk and administered a chastisement to his wife, the mother of his children, and the one being who should have been held most sacred by him.

Officer Robert Chambers accompanied Mrs. Eastman to her forlorn home. Eastman was found and proved to be very drunk. He was, of course, taken to the jail, where he will await the coming of Monday, and think over the disgraceful conduct of which he has been guilty. He will probably be arraigned before Judge Dee tomorrow.

Mrs. Eastman is a respected lady, who earns a living for herself and children by washing. Her husband has treated her in a cruel manner several times, but she has always hesitated to make the matter known until at length last evening his treatment became unbearable.—Ogden Standard.

"Park Record" Notes.

A sensational marriage took place in the lower part of town last evening, in which a shot gun, in the hands of an enraged father, played an important part.

The first of the week a young child of County Clerk Alston, of Coalville, swallowed a number of buttons and Dr. Gregor was summoned to attend to the unfortunate little one. However, skillful medical aid was unavailing and the little one was relieved of its sufferings by death on Tuesday evening.

Erroneous Figures.

An article which first appeared in the Juvenile Instructor was reproduced in Saturday's issue of the News under the caption of "The Spoilation Programme." In the closing paragraph the words "8000 shares of gas stock" occurred. The figures were erroneous, the number of shares of stock in question being 800.
