

VOTERS SHOULD BE INDEPENDENT.

Plain Statement of Hon. C. S.
Zane, Former Chief Justice of The Supreme Court.

NOT BOUND TO UPHOLD FRAUD.

Men Who Use Such Means Should be Branded With Disgrace, Dishonor and Infamy.

In response to a request from the Salt Lake Herald, former Chief Justice Charles S. Zane has issued the following signed statement giving his views on the present political situation.
Judge Zane says:

You have asked for my views touching the coming election. I was not a delegate to the last Republican convention, nor did I attend its sessions.
My information as to the methods and means used to secure the nomination of the candidates is based on what I have seen and heard in some instances and direct votes in others.
Candidates and voters have a right to assume that nominations will be made by an honest expression of a majority of the delegates. And if they are secured by the use of money or other improper influences the voter is not bound to vote for the candidates so nominated. If two or more individuals submit a matter of difference to arbitrators and one side afterwards learns that the other side secured the award by bribery or fraud, he has the right and it would be his duty to disregard the decision and have it set aside. So if nominations are secured by the purchase of proxies or delegates, nobody is under the slightest obligation to vote for such candidates.
The reputations of men "who use such means should be branded with disgrace, dishonor and infamy and be abhorred by all men. They poison the foundation of self-government by corrupting the motives of the voters by their unpatriotic and corrupt means.
Since the late Civil war in the sixties it has been my habit at municipal or other local elections, when I found the name of a candidate on my ticket who I was satisfied was unfit for the office, and a candidate on the other ticket who, I believed, was better suited for the office, to vote for the latter, and I expect to follow that habit as long as I shall continue to vote. I do not think there is enough independent voting.

REGISTER TOMORROW.

Full List of Registrars and Places Of Registration.

Tomorrow, Tuesday, is the last day provided by law for the registration of those who desire to vote for city officers. It is important, therefore, that all who have not yet consulted the registrars do so on that date in order that they may have no difficulty in voting on election day. The names of the registrars and places of registration are as follows:

- 1—Henrietta Gee, 1456 South Thirteenth East, Laughman's store, 496 South Eleventh East.
- 2—Stephen W. Alley, Sr., 941 South
Eight East.
- 3—Riego Hawkins, 728 Wellington avenue.

CLUBS AND CHURCHES.

To the Editor:

Salt Lake City, Utah, Oct. 23.—In your issue of the 19th inst., appears an article under the above heading. You will no doubt pardon me for referring to it.

Is not the American system of free schools the main factor, or the club, that is knocking the people out of churches, because of no denominational or spiritual teaching being permitted in them? And will not the many creeds continue to suffer in numbers and in time because only a matter of history for the reason that children are being deprived of spiritual training in schools?

Churches under prevailing conditions get but a very limited number of children to instruct and those only for a very short space of time—one day in seven.

I take it that the schools of five days per week, instead of the one of two and three hours in seven days, is the only sure place to make the true Christian, for as the twig is bent the tree is inclined.

If the spiritual training of the child be neglected, no matter how proficient it may become in other branches of learning, is not such a one only half educated, a sort of one-sided being, as it were? "He is needed every hour."

This process—the schools—of leveling all creeds seems to me but the directing hand of an all-wise Providence.
There must be one denomination at a time, or none at all if we are to have "peace on earth and good will to men," for if all creeds but two only were done away, would not these contend for su-premaccy?

To me the church that can and does help man to settle right the industrial question is the only one that will endure and give to the world the perfect and well balanced education being.

Which of all the churches extant has this plan? Yours respectfully, J. H. MIDDLEY.

While There is Life There is Hope.
I WAS afflicted with catarrh; could neither taste nor smell and could hear but little. Ely's Cream Balm cured it.
—Marcus G. Shantz, Rahway, N. J.
CREAM BALM checked me sorely and the effect is surprising. My son says the first application gave decided relief. Respectfully, Mrs. Franklin Freeman, Dover, N. H.
The balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 50 cts or mailed by Ely Brothers, 55 Warren St., New York.

"PRINCE CUPID" HERE.

Cousin of Queen Lil Spends a Few Hours in the City.

"Prince Cupid" of Hawaii and wife were in town yesterday for the first time in four years being en route to Columbus, Ohio, where the prince is to take the stump for the Republican candidates. The Prince's real cognomen is J. K. Kalaniana'ole, and by the time the Ohio reporters get through mastering its orthographic intricacies, they won't know the difference between orthographic and orthopedic. The prince is a cousin of Queen Lil, and when asked yesterday what the islands needed from Congress, he declared, first, an appropriation for improving the harbor of Honolulu, as the great liners are now just able to scrape over the bar; secondly, legislation allowing Asiatic labor, the prohibition of which has greatly injured the islands; and thirdly, a federal building adequate to the amount of business done. Mr. and Mrs. K. went east last night, over the Rio Grande.

WHERE IS AUGUST ARRIENS

His Sister Wants Him to Communi-

The Salt Lake police are anxious to locate one August Arriens, who was employed in this city recently, and who is now supposed to be in San Francisco.
Their anxiety to find him is the result of the following letter received by Capt.
Burbridge:
"Omaha, Neb., Oct. 24.—Chief of Police, Salt Lake City, Utah.—Dear Sir—We are endeavoring to locate a young man by the name of August Arriens, who was, the 1st of last June, employed in a restaurant in your city. He is 2 years of age; height, about 5 feet 1 inches; light complexion and blue eyes.

He said at the time that he intended to go to San Francisco to join the navy since which nothing has been heard of him. His sister, Mrs. Manley, lives at 1122 Jackson street, this city, says that it is necessary to locate him for the purpose of settling an estate which has been left them by a relative in Germany. Anything you can do to assist in ascertaining his whereabouts will be greatly appreciated. Respectfully,
P. MOSTYS,
"Acting Chief of Police."

KEITH O'BRIEN COMPANY

Above is a map of the municipal wards and election districts of Salt Lake City. As will be seen there are five municipal divisions or precincts and fifty-two election districts, all of which will figure in the election for city officers Nov. 3. Voters not fully acquainted with the districts in which they live and in which they are entitled to cast their ballots, would do well to study up the situation in order to avoid mistakes at a late hour.
