LOCAL BRIEFS.

The funeral of Captain William Gilbert, the voteran fireman, will take place from the Odd Fellow's hall on Market street to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Eunice Gordon of Ogden gave the W. C. T. U. an interesting talk yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. W. H. Tibbals.

Dealers say that eggs are coming into the markets so plentifully that prices are steadily downward, and there is hardly any telling where they will stop.

This week's contributions to the Swed-ish famine fund aggregate $126.75, making the grand total $1,963.90. The names of all new contributors will be published in the "News" on Tuesday next.

Mrs. W. A. Nelden has received the sad news of the death of her brother. W. Nelson Stem, a well known Philadelphia pharmacist, and a professor in the college of pharmacy there. Prof. Stem died suddenly of heart failure.

Profs. Byron Cummings and George A. Eaton have been designated by President Kirgsbury as the second and third mem-bets to serve with himself on the Rhodes-Oxford scholarship board. It will be over a year before the scholarships are awarded.

President Balley of Westminster college returns to Washington, D. C., on Monday next, after a short visit in this city. At yesterday afternoon's meeting of the col-lege trustees he reported the outlook for raising funds for erection of a college building as promising.

Rev. Dwight Spencer, representative of the Baptist Home Missionary society in Montana and Utah, is in the city, and will preach in the First Baptist church to-morrow morning. Mr. Spencer organized the First church in this city in 1882, and is well known in this part of the country.

Congressman Howell announces that there will be held in this city in the near fature an examination for the ap-pointment of a naval cadet from Utah to Annapolis. Mr. Howell says that fur-ther details will be forthcoming in a few doors days.

The case against William Lynch, the nerro charged with assault with deadly weapen, was to have come up before Judge Dichi this morning for preliminary hearing, but owing to the absence of with nesses the case was continued until 3 o'clock this afternoon.

State Superintendent of Schools Nelson returned from Summit county this morn-ine, where he addressed meetings at Coal-ville and Oakley in the interests of a new schoolhouse for that district. The people are very favorable to the idea and a new building will no count be constructed.

The agricultural implement men all re-port fine prospects for the spring trade, as this is the tenor of the talks from the country dealers who come in immediate contact with the farmers and growers. So the big eastern factories will shortly have their hunds full in filling orders from the great intermountain country.

Three new corporations filed their arti-cles with the secretary of atate yester-oar. They are the Boringville Construc-tion company, with hendquarters at Springville, capitallection $50,000; Koos-haren Grazing and Fasture company and the Grazing and Fasture company, each capitalized at $4,000, and located in So-vir county. vi, r county.
