

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

Loss of cheap goods offered for sale at Phelps'. He will dispose of all at Eastern prices. See advt.

ONE of the pleasantest recollections of the Centennial trip to Philadelphia thousands of people will connect with their pleasant quarters and agreeable treatment at the Commodore Hotel.

FRESH Herring, Haddies and Hatters, at LUDLOW & BROWN'S.

NOTICE.
The various departments of business will be closed on Friday, Feb. 22nd, on Washington's Birthday.

THE LARGEST AND BEST ASSORTMENT OF BOOTS AND SHOES, OF STANDARD MAKES, CAN BE FOUND AT DUNFORD'S.

The real difficulty with business men nowadays is that they are almost blind. The bank cashier, the president of the insurance company and the broker, and all that sort of economic person, who put wrong names to checks and start for Canada, with some one else's pocket-book, are simply absent minded. They are suffering from a fit of abstraction.

It is well known.
Many grocers sell Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder at the same price as the cheaper kinds, and as they pay more for it, make less money; hence, they never sell it unless the purchaser demands it. Pure articles can be made as cheap as those that are adulterated.

ANNOUNCEMENT TO THE PUBLIC.
Selling off at cost.
On account of removing the entire stock of fancy and staple dry goods, great bargains for all till the first of March. Remember all! Shewart's store, opposite Herald office.

FIRST SHIPMENT OF SPRING STYLE HATS ARRIVED AT OUR HATTERS, DUNFORD'S.

This positive fact, Leland's Hosiery will remove fleeciness.
"Hurrah! hurrah!" cried a young lawyer who succeeded his father's business. "I've settled the old law suit at last." "Settled it?" exclaimed the astonished parent, "why we've prospered the family on it for the last 10 years."

Orange.
For those builders, with all kinds of GRASS, GARDEN and FLOWER seeds to be bought at T. C. Armstrong's grain and provision store, First South Street, near Commercial Street. Goods warranted.

New Goods received this day from the Provo Mills. Red Twines, White Twines and Dress Fabrics, Cloths, Gray Linsey and Colored Fabrics. Call on J. C. CUTLER, Agent, Old Constitution Building.

THE CHOICEST AND BEST GOODS IN THE MARKET, IN LADIES' AND CHILDREN'S SHOES AND SLIPPERS, AT DUNFORD'S.

PURE DIXIE WINE FROM THE VINEYARD OF JOHN C. NAIL, TOQUERVILLE, AT Z. M. I. DRUG DEPT.

Leland's Hosiery Sale.
A cure for old sores, boils, cuts, cancer, ulcers, broken toes, burns, bruises, chilblains, gun business, etc. This sale will cure in every instance when used according to directions.

See W. C. Chambers, Sole Agent, opposite Kimball Block, Salt Lake City. Post office box 4233.

RED-CANYON, ROCK SPRINGS AND WEBER COAL.
Only reliable market for top sorted and egg coal, low stock always on hand, all weights guaranteed. Low price and special attention given to the wants of the public. Office, Deseret Bank Block.

Unfurnished rooms to rent, single or in suits, in the Washburn Building. Terms moderate. Apply to N. Groomsbeck & Sons, at their office, on the premises.

If you wish to travel by the shortest, quickest, safest, and most comfortable route between Omaha and Chicago, you must buy your tickets via the Chicago and North-Western Railway. Its fares are as low as the lowest. Full coast Palace Hotel Dining and Sleeping Cars are run on its through express-trains. The celebrated Pullman Hotel Cars are run by this line and, between Omaha and Chicago, all except better sleeping tickets via this route than by any other route.

LACE CURTAINS and WINDOW SHADES A SPECIALTY, AT Z. C. M. I. CARPET DEPARTMENT.

N. S. ELDRIDGE, SUPT.

A great many people are like the man, having lost one of his eyes, set in his doorway and told away by which was the right way, though he couldn't walk in it himself.

SEWING.
Sew, Garden and Flower Seeds for sale, by John Reading and Co., at Deseret Brothers' second door below Z. C. M. I. Wholesale and Retail. Country stores can do well there.

NOTICE.
Z. C. M. I. will be closed for stock-taking on the 27th inst. The persons of the institution will please govern themselves accordingly.

H. S. ELDRIDGE, Superintendent.
To the people of Utah.
We have a large and new complete stock of Furniture, Feather and House Goods. Next door to Wells Fargo Co. Examine our prices.

EVENING NEWS.

Thursday, February 21, 1879.

PRICE OF GOLD.
Corrected by Dr. DeWitt National Bank, Salt Lake City, February 21, 1879.
Denver 100, Selling at 82.25.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Taberna Choir.—We are requested, by Prof. Carlson, to announce that, in consequence of tomorrow being a holiday, the rehearsal of the Tabernacle choir is postponed to Friday, March 1st.

Fatal Slaying.—On Tuesday night Frank Morris and John P. Spaulding, miners, were killed by a snowball in Bingham Canon. The bodies were found yesterday in their camp.

Popular Monthly.—We have received Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly for the month of February. The reading matter is good, and the whole is profusely illustrated with excellent cuts. For sale at Dreyer's.

District Court.—Thursday, Feb. 21st.
William Howard vs. Salt Lake City Iron Co., et al.; decedent by some of its defendants argued by J. D. Jones for the defendant. Court overruled said decedent, 20 days given defendant to file answer.
Charles N. Carthy vs. Wm. T. Ramsey et al.; judgment by default.

Well Attended.—The lecture, delivered last night, by Prof. John Morgan, on the subject of the Tenth Ward, M. L. S., on "Personal Responsibility of the late War," was a grandly large audience, whose attention was held by the lecture from beginning to close. Prof. Morgan is a clear and fluent speaker.

Deseret Museum.—Deseret Museum has received the Smithsonian Report of 1878 specimens of brown water from the City of Mexico; also a sample of the clay from which the water was made. It is a mixture of decomposed volcanic rock, with fine carbonaceous and iron. It is very plastic and of an agreeable color. Another specimen, which is white in color, contains more lime in proportion to the silica. Also a specimen of a most porous volcanic rock, from Potosi.

General Holiday.—Tomorrow being the birthday of George Washington, all the stores, banks and business places generally will be closed.

The post office will be open only as on Sunday.

A general holiday is an appropriate and fitting method of manifesting respect to the memory of the immortal "Father of his country."

The News will not issue again till Saturday morning.

Ogden Items.—Mad is nearly as plentiful in Ogden as proportionate to its relative size as in Salt Lake City.

Business is dull, and for the thousandth time the merchants say they never saw such a state as it is in this year.

The American, published by the Y. M. M. I., continues to be a popular monthly magazine, reflecting great credit on the contributors and the editors, who are changed periodically.

Meetings.—The next meeting of the Y. M. M. I. will be held at the Kimball Block, at Salt Lake City, on the 27th inst.

The quarantine physician pronounced the city healthy and free of the malarial taint.

Fourth street, known up to the probable principal street to the city. The new buildings on it are solid brick structures, the plank sidewalks to the depot attract travel and some of the principal property holders are about to build a deep covered ditch to drain their cellars and carry off all surface water.

Mr. F. S. Richards, who has for a long time performed the duties of several important offices, has made arrangements for the conducting of his county business without his personal labor, and general supervision, and has placed a handsome office in the City block, on Fourth street, as Attorney-at-law. His legal attainments are well known and generally recognized; he is obtaining all the practice he can well attend to.

Ogden is to have a Business Directory of its own. Messrs. S. A. Keener and Thomas Wallace are the projectors and their prospects of success are in every way promising. In addition to being an Ogden Directory, the book will contain a complete list of a Directory of Salt Lake City, and a valuable advertising medium, and will greatly contribute to the business prosperity of that section of the Territory.

The three school districts of Ogden City have been organized by the County Court into one, in answer to a petition signed by petitioners.

Break Down.—The carriage of Hon. William Jennings broke down this afternoon, opposite the Council House. The hind part of the vehicle fell to the ground, through the breaking of a spring and the dislodging of the two back wheels. Some of Mr. Jennings' children were in the carriage, but no one was hurt.

CIVIL AND MILITARY JURISDICTION.

The following correspondence between the Post Commander at Camp Cameron and the Justice of the Peace of Beaver is interesting and important, and clearly shows the nature of their respective jurisdictions, which are designed to be harmonious, not conflicting.

HEADQUARTERS, POST CAMERON, U. T., February 5th, 1879.
Mr. D. Tyler, J. P., Beaver City, U. T.

Sir.—Your favor of the 4th inst. was handed to me by Sheriff Coombs, referring to the sewing machine mentioned. I respectfully request you to state upon your statement of facts, as found in evidence, and upon the man's statement, John Wink, Private, 14th Infantry, I am convinced that the "sewing machine" in question is the property of the Singer Sewing Machine Co., and I have directed that the machine be turned over either to you acting in behalf of said company or to the authorized agent of said company.

I deliver the machine in question to you, in obedience to the mandate of your court, not to satisfy any legal process issuing therefrom, but simply as a matter of equity. I cannot acknowledge the jurisdiction of your court over this U. S. military reservation or anything in it. I therefore consider that the demand for the machine, the delivery of the machine to appear and answer, the subsequent judgment and writ of execution, were all according to law, inasmuch as prior to action no reference of the facts was made to me as commanding officer of this Post, and in serving process I in my official capacity was utterly ignored by the court, and the sheriff proceeded to act without my knowledge or consent.

The action of the sheriff was not legal without my concurrent action as Post Commander. So far as jurisdiction is concerned he might with the same propriety go into the State of Nevada and seize property as Sheriff of Beaver county, without reference to the State or local authorities.

Taking the view as above expressed, I regret that I do not feel authorized to assist the sheriff in executing the mandate of the court. And cannot, as Post Commander, permit the sheriff to execute the judgment of the court on this reservation, the limits of which are distinctly defined.

I will state that after investigation, I am of the opinion that Wink purchased the machine in litigation in good faith, and lost some money in the transaction; that he did not give the machine up, but was forced to sell it. I should have cheerfully compelled the return of the machine to the proper owner, if their agent had conferred with me on the subject instead of resorting to law to effect their purpose, which was unnecessary as regards the man's right to appear, as I deemed the summons illegally served, and his duties as a soldier had to be performed. I excused him from no duty, and he was forcibly restrained from appearing.

I will send the machine to you as soon as the weather permits. Expressing regret that there should have been a conflict between the two jurisdictions.

I am, very respectfully,
H. DOUGLAS,
Lieut. Col. 14th Infantry,
Commanding Post.

Justice's office, Beaver City, U. T., February 12, 1879.

Henry Douglas, Lieutenant Col. 14th Infantry, Commanding Post Cameron.
Sir.—Your communication of February 5th, 1879, was duly received and carefully considered. As to your opinion upon the subject of jurisdiction I beg to differ, and hope that a fair exposure of my legal views of jurisdiction of civil courts extending over military reservations in times of peace, will not be regarded as impertinent or derogatory.

My opinion, as derived from the few authorities within my reach, is that a soldier's equipage, and every article necessary to his comfort, is exempt from seizure by civil courts, such being property of the United States, and that his person is also exempt from arrest on execution process and attachment. In those States where the person can be imprisoned for debt under statutory provision. But that in cases of civil and delivery of personal property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a judicial property, which is a statutory provision for recovering personal property belonging to any person and unlawfully detained by another, it is in reference to civil suits generally, such as summons, in civil cases, where the accretments of a soldier or property of the United States is not affected, subject, etc., the soldier in times of peace is compelled to respond without notice to the commanding officer, as he is in no instance pertaining to the rights of a citizen, a