The preliminary hearing of the case of the State of Utah vs H. Bradey, the colored man who was charged with assault with latent to commit rape, on the person of a thirteen-year-old girl, came on at 4:30 yesterday afternoon before Justice of the Peace Parker J. Hall, at his office. Bradey had been arrested by Sheriff Layne and appeared in person with his attorney, M. D. Lessenger, Esq. The state was represented by District Attorney A. B. Hayes. The nly witness heard last evening was the ttle girl, the complaining witness in the case. She told in part the following story: That on the evening of Monday, th, she was sent up town on an trand for her mother, the evening was y cold, so as she was returning home Union depot waiting went into the om and got warm, afterwards proed down the tracks south from the towards her home. She knew he being a neighbor, and had told her to come to his dining n which he was employed as cook, ne would give her something, the girl went near to the dining when she met Bradey and he took to the south end of the depot buildamong some barrels, etc., where he ed very ungentlemanly with the , and threatened her if she told anybody, byt she told her parents the next morning and her father had the arrest made. On cross-example ion her testinony could not be changed, although fr. Lessinger questioned her very but was unable to cause her divert from the testimony given on firect examination. She is an excep-donally bright little girl for her years and appears to be very innocent. The hearing was continued until this morning at 10 o'clock.

TODAY'S HEARING.

The hearing was continued at 10 this ning, and witnesses were examined prosecution. Arthur L. Wilson, of the Pacific Exress Co. testified that on the evening f the Sth he saw Brady and the girl ogether at about 7:15 p. m. at the outh end of the depot building, where e witnessed him take undue liberties with the girl, and he told a messenger boy by the name of Foulger to go bround and witness what was going on. He said it was dark where Bradey and

DEATH OF S. J. PACKER.

At 1:45 yesterday afternoon the spirit

At 1:40 yesterday afternoon the spirit of S. J. Packer, one of the old war veterans, took its departure from mor-tality at his home on Lincoln avenue after a lingering illness of several months. He was 56 years of age. Sev-eral months ago Mr. Packer received serious injuries by falling down an ele-vator shaft at A. L. Brewer's whole-sale establishment on Twenty-fourth sale establishment on Twenty-fourth street. He was given all possible medistreet. He was given all possible medi-cal aid, but his injuries seemed to be internal and the doctors could not help him and he continued to grow weaker from the result of the same until the end came. Mr. Packer was a member of the G. A. R. and a highly respected citizen. He leaves a wife and five sons to survive him. The funeral services over his remains will be held in the Methodist church, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The G. A. R. will attend the funeral in a body.
