NEW YORK.

The Black Sea Question—Cable communication—The Alabama Damages.

NEW YORK, 2.—The Tribune's correspondent at St. Petersburg, telegraphs the full text of Gortschakoff's reply to Granville, which, however, contains little that has not been touched upon by the regular cable dispatches. Russia declined, as is already known, to discuss the propriety of her former note, to recall any precedent or cite any example, as such controversy would in no way promote the good understanding which is desired. After the failure of the attempt made, at different times, to assemble the powers in general conference, with a view to remove the causes of difficulty which disturb the general peace, Gortschakoff continues, the prolongation of the present crisis and the absence of a regular government in France postpone still further the possibility of such an agreement. Meanwhile, the position in which the treaty has left Russia, has become more and more intolerable. Earl Granville will agree that the Europe of to-day is very far from the Europe which signed the treaty of 1856. It was impossible that Russia should agree to remain the only power bound indefinitely to an arrangement which has become daily weaker in its guarantees. Our august master has too deep a sense of what he owes to his country, to force it to submit any longer to an obligation against which the national sentiment protests. We cannot admit that the abrogation of a purely theoretical principle, not followed by its immediate application, and which visibly restores to Russia a right of which no great power could consent to be deprived, ought to be considered as a menace to peace; or that in avoiding one point of the treaty of 1856 the abrogation of all is implied. The imperial cabinet never had any such intention; on the contrary, our communication of October 18, declared in the most explicit terms, that his majesty, the Emperor, maintains his adhesion to the principles of the treaty of 1856, and that he is ready to come to an agreement with the signatory powers of that treaty, either to conform to its general stipulations or to renew them, or to substitute for them any other equitable arrangement which may be thought necessary to secure the repose of the East and the equilibrium of Europe. We are ready for any settlement, having for its object the consolidation of peace in the East.

The following is received from Cyrus W. Field:

To the Associated Press:—Please notify the public that although there will be considerable delay, we can send slowly to Europe through the French telegraph messages which will be received and transmitted as early as possible, and in the order of their reception.

From March 11th, 1869, to November 11th 1870, the United States paid on the bonded debt, in principal, interest and premium, $132,942,787.

There was a fire in Brooklyn at the East River bridge last night, which is believed to be still burning. The entire fire department was called out, and the engines were employed in flooding the structure.

Reverdy Johnson estimates the claims for damages by the Alabama to amount to $13,000,000, and advises seekers after indemnity to withdraw their demands from the United States government, and appeal to the government of Great Britain for indemnity.

WASHINGTON.

Election news.

WASHINGTON, 2.—The President yesterday signed the pardon of Collicott, ex-speaker of the New York assembly, sentenced for defrauding the revenue to two years' imprisonment and fined ten thousand dollars.

Election of Senators from South Carolina takes place on Tuesday. It is believed here the contest is narrowed between Robertson, the present Senator, and Chief Justice Moses, with chances rather in favor of the latter.

FOREIGN NEWS.

FRANCE.

Amiens not yet evacuated—More fighting—Ducret's success—Victory favors France—Movements of the Loire army—French losses.

LILLE, 1.—The Prussians have entered Albert. The evacuation of Amiens is denied.

Tours, midnight.—There is fighting between the army of the Loire and the Prussian right at Chateau Dun, extending to Joinville and Flourey, thence to Pithiviers, Beaune and Le Reland. The second line at the rear extended from Fontainebleau via Montereau to Villeneuve and Troyes, joining the Prussian line on the east.

Tours, 2.—The Monteur says: On the morning of the 29th a sortie began at Chalmesy le Roi, L'Hay and Cheville, the battle there lasting through the night of the 29th and 30th. Ducret approaching the Marne, occupied Meleg and engaged in battle at Champigny. Bire. He then crossed the Marne, by eight pontons, maintained the position, took two guns, and took the position at Thionville.

LAVAIL, Dec. 2.—This city is overjoyed by dispatches from Gambetta, which announce great successes at Paris, where sorties were made in force, repulsing the Prussians along the line many miles in extent. Many cannon and prisoners were captured by the French corps commanded by Ducrot, Vionny and Trochu. Gambetta announced a victory, and says the Prussians have abandoned Amiens and are marching back to Paris. The battles of Paris begun on the 29th. The garrison remained outside in their positions taken from the Prussians. Gambetta says the army of the Loire successfully resisted the attack on its left and right wings, and moved forward on all sides. "Victory now favors France," says Gambetta; a te deum is being chanted here.

The movement of the Loire army, which began on the 30th, prescribed by the minister for the first operations, was favorable. General Chausey found his position on the 1st, and found the Prussians entrenched at Gailleville, Fleuriel and Genouilly. The fighting ended at night. The Prussians held out, and their positions held well. The French artillery was well handled. Our losses were slight; the enemy's heavy.

A French success at Potay, Loire, is claimed, but not yet confirmed; also a success by Garibaldi at Autun.

VERSAILLES, 1.—The French loss in dead, wounded and prisoners yesterday, in the sortie, was severe. They have just asked a truce of several hours to bury their dead. The Westernburgers lost forty officers and eight hundred men. The Saxons' loss is unreported. Quiet to-day.

PRUSSIA.

Another version of the sortie.

BERLIN, 2.—The following has been received:

Templin, commander of the seventh corps, sends the following, dated yesterday: A great sortie has been made against the Prussians and Wurtemberg front, supported by cannonade from the forts. Trochu and Ducrot commanded, leading 120,000 men, until eleven o'clock, when they were successfully repulsed by the sixth corps of the left Wurtembergers, reinforced subsequently by cavalry and artillery. The attack was repeated at three o'clock, and was again repulsed. The Prussian loss was again.

AUSTRIA.

About the proposed conference.

VIENNA, 1.—The Presse announcing that Austria will participate in the conference, says Austria declines having the conference at Vienna. Preliminary discussions will involve other questions than the treaty of 1856.

BAVARIA.

Von der Tann defeated.

MUNICH, 1.—Von der Tann defeated the French on the 1st, in successive combats, west of Orleans.

RUSSIA.

Gortschakoff's reply.

St. PETERSBURG, 1.—Gortschakoff's reply to Granville's letter is published. It regrets that the latter takes exception to his former communication, and says the annihilation of the whole treaty never was contemplated; the peace of the world required it.

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, 2.—A special to the Times, dated Berlin, 1st, says that nearly the whole French force are concentrated between Blois, Tours and Orleans, and if defeated will retreat on Lyons. It is probable that place is strongly fortified. The Prussians prompted by Dupanloup's crusade, are active as guerrillas. Loire valley patrols are shot from every hedge and building. Bearers of dispatches are killed by apparent ploughmen. Many priests await trial.

Prussia lends the Saxburg savings bank a million to aid the poor. A dispatch from Shanghai are received to Nov. 28. Twenty thousand rebels threaten Ourga, and force armed with Prussian rifles has gone to oppose them.

NATIONAL SERIES.

STANDARD TEXT-BOOKS.

PUBLISHED BY

A. S. BARNES & CO.,

AT THEIR OFFICES.

111 and 113 William St. - NEW YORK.

111 State Street, - CHICAGO.

THE LOWER NUMBERS OF THE READING SERIES ARE REMARKABLE FOR THE "WORD-OUTLINE" SYSTEM, THE HIGH ORDER OF THE ILLUSTRATIONS AND THE INTERESTING BUT STRICTLY PREPARATORY CHARACTER OF THE READING LESSONS. THE HIGHER VOLUMES CHALLENGE COMPARISON ON ACCOUNT OF THEIR ELEGANT AND ATTRACTIVE AND THE NOBLE RANGE OF SELECTION FROM STANDARD LITERATURE.

THE SERIES CONSISTS OF A PRIMER AND FIVE READERS. THE FIRST IS UNIVERSALLY PRONOUNCED A LITERARY gem, and by many bought to enrich their libraries.

CLARK'S GRAMMAR

Will eventually supersede all others. No other system makes the study so pre-eminently interesting. It combines the diagram system, taught by Dr. Park at the University, and the interesting object lessons as illustrated by Miss Ida I. Cook at the Teachers' Association, Salt Lake City. It makes the study of Grammar a pleasure instead of a bore.

DAVIES' MATHEMATICS

Are justly called the National Standard. They are used in the great National Schools at Appleton and West Point, in the Public Schools of the National Capital, have received the highest endorsement of the National Congress, and are sold more largely and more rapidly than every section of the national boundary than any other series.
