GAMBLING CASE,-James Collins, John man Clinton this morning, charged with gambling. It appeared in the investigation that a man named Abrams had lost in gambling with the above parties $200 in gold, and a watch. Abrams induced the palice to have the complaint entered, but when brought into court as a witness he manifested very marked evasion and relictance in giving evidence, which combined with the fact that he had regained possession of his watch, led to the belief that a compromise had been effected between himself and the accused. The case was postponed till this afternoon.

FURTHER RETURNS.-Since the published on of the abstract of election returns resterday the following additional returns live been received from Utah County:

For the Constitution 164, Against the Constitution 3, For Frank Fulter Rep. Con. 160.
These votes will bring the totals for the Territory out as follows: 25,324; 368; 25,147.

Ponice.-D. W. Stanton, a miner, got into a disagreement with a "limb of the eremony cornered the latter and knocked smelled and work guaranteed by him about a little. Mr. Keithly proceeded to the City Hall to make complaint against Stanton; the latter, however, followed him ap and acknowledged to having assaulted Keithly. On this charge he was fined $15. He was, however, so vehement, demonstrative and unruly in attempting to justify his enduct towards Keithly, and his expressions were so forcibly denunciatory of the latter that he was fined an additional $10 for contempt of court.

INDIAN TRADING -- We have seen a peculiar outfit, belonging to Mr. Daniel W. crossing the divide between Heber City and the Uintah Indian Reservation. It consists of a small, light sleigh, to which are hitched four large fine looking dogs.

Mr. Jones will start on a trip to the Res" ervalion to morrow morning, and will be accompanied by a son of his, about fourteen years of age. This will be his second trip, he having bought out the results of last season's Indian trading from the trader of that post, and the trips are for the purpose of bringing the skins and furs into market. There are teams at the Reservation to bring the goods from there to the other side of the civide, where the dog outfit will connect and bring them over to this side to be met by teams there. The snow is eight feet deep on the divide, and will not all disappear till July.

The regular trader has signified his intention of giving up the business there and Mr. Jones has taken the necessary steps to obtain a license to trade, having presented an application for this purpose to the Indian Agent, of the Ulutah reservation, the application being signed by a number of business and legal geatlemen and other influential residents of the city. There can be no doubt therefore of the success of the application. ervation to-morrow morning, and will

Mr. Jones is well qualified to deal with the Indians, having had considerable ex-perience among them in past years, and being, consequently, well and favor-ably known to them. Besides he is a gentleman who has been long known in this region as a good and peaceable citizen.

"There is a family living in Indianapolis whose children are ragged and almost shoeless, who keep four dogs, two cats, and use a quarter's worth of tobacco per day." It is to be hoped that there is not such a family in Utah as that. Of course there

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT .- Last Saturday, John Horspool, Jun., with several other boys, went up Strong's Kanyon after some deer which had been seen there. John was carrying a rifle muzzle downwards, and he either struck it against a rock or some bushes caught the lock, and the rifle was discharged, the ball entering his foot. Dr. McIntyre was soon in attendance, and under his care the wounded limb is rapidly healing.—Oyden Junction, March 27.

FENCES.—Pole fences, which used to be the prevailing kind in this City, are rapidly disappearing and picket and other handsome and more substantial ones are taking their place. Improvements of this description add greatly to the beauty of the City.
It is a good investment for all who can do it to put a good fence around their City property as it enhances the value of the same and increases the pleasure of the owners if they be the possessors of taste.

FOUND DEAD .- The Denver papers give an account of a man, named Frank M. Thomas, being found about three miles from that place with a ball through his fore-head, with a discharged rifle by his side, and a string, formed of strips of cloth, and a string, formed of strips of cloth, and a string. and a string, formed of strips of cloth, leading from the trigger guard of the weapon to his left foot. Although the above described appearances would indicate that the man had committed suicide, yet other direumstances lead many to the belief that he had been foully murdered, and last so counts state that a corner's jury were giving the matter a most thorough and searching examination.

WEST WESHE.-Bro. Archd. McFarland wrote from West Weber, March 25, that the settlers there had put in most of their spring grain, most of the fall grain had been badly winter killed within the month previous, the frost cracking the land and neaving out the grain. No grasshopper's eggs had been found there and the prospect for good crops never was better. Good health prevailed.
