

near the railroad, half a mile from her home, this morning, horribly mutilated from an attempt at rape. She had lain there 20 hours, having been assaulted by a young villain named Harris DeBore while going home from church on Sunday. DeBore was arrested, identified by the young lady and jailed. He had cut her on the forehead and in the throat, one stab nearly severing the windpipe, and he returned to his work this morning evidently believing her dead and all trace of the crime removed. He is stolidly indifferent, neither denying or owning his authorship in the matter.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., 21.—A horrible tragedy was enacted here today. William Hogg, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Bloomington, but a most eccentric man, who has recently been unfortunate in business, on returning home at noon shot his daughter, aged 18, in the parlor, and called his son Willie, aged 12, who was playing in the yard, and fired a pistol shot through his head; then stepping into the woodshed he placed the weapon to his own head and fired. The ball lodged in his brain and he fell upon the floor, where he was soon found by passers by, in pools of blood. Mary and her father are dying but the son, although seriously wounded, is likely to recover. Hogg recently married his second wife, she went to Normal this morning and thus probably escaped a like fate. Physicians say both children are in a critical condition, with little hope of the recovery of either. Hogg died soon after the shooting, never becoming conscious. The coroner's jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the facts.

NEW YORK, 21.—The World publishes a special from Commander Garringe, from Cairo, Egypt, saying the Khedive received him with courtesy, and authorized him to commence the removal of the Obelisk at once.

The Times commenting on Sheridan's late dispatch says: Sheridan has all of a soldier's contempt for a civilian's opinions but in this instance he has been so unfortunate as to treat the opinion of his superior officer with contempt. He would have held his tongue if he had not supposed he was indulging that favorite military pastime "pitching into Schurz."

Ex-Governor Walker, late of Virginia, addressed a large public meeting of his Binghampton, N. Y., neighbors last evening. He told them the republicans were responsible for the solid South, and if the republicans would disband there would be no more solid South. He claimed that resumption was the result of democratic statelessness.

The Times' Washington special says: Vance, of North Carolina, says the general sentiment there and in the South is unfavorable to the nomination of Tilden, and that since the Ohio election Hancock is the favorite. Bayard's opposition to the silver bill flattened him. Hancock was a better man than Grant.

A dispatch from London says: William Ringold Cooper, alias Neville Hunter, the celebrated American forger and man of many disguises, was to-day arraigned in the Old Bailey sessions, charged with forgery by Glyn, Mills & Co., bankers, and the Bank of England. Cooper pleaded guilty to both charges, and was remanded for sentence to next Thursday. It is possible that some of the prisoner's associates may revert to his San Francisco creditors it can be proven that the funds came thence. Say, of Hemel Hempstead, who loved the prisoner like a brother, when he gave evidence against Cooper, burst into tears. Aloysius J. Kane an American who knew the prisoner when he was ensign on the staff of Admiral Lee, of the North Atlantic squadron during the war, recognized the prisoner in Newgate. The Court was thronged with bankers and brokers, with an admixture of the fair sex, who had come to look upon the convict whose refinement, liberality and good manners obtained him recognition from the best families of Hertfordshire in the neighborhood of his country residence, East Lodge, Hemel Hempstead. Near the bar sat a handsome woman dressed in mourning, who passed as Cooper's wife, she was deeply affected.

MEMPHIS, 21.—A telegram from Forest City, Ark., says: Three new cases have developed. The town had a very gloomy appearance last night; not a man to be seen on the streets. The Howards at Memphis have been telegraphed to send four nurses. The weather is too warm. The worst is feared unless it soon turns colder. The fever is very malignant, 13 out of 16 attacked having died. A special train will convey four more nurses to Forest City to-day.

MALONE, N. Y., 20.—The tanneries of Webster Brothers, and Lincoln & Miller, together with several adjacent stores, were burned this morning. Loss $150,000; insurance $70,000. Two hundred persons are thrown out of employment by the fire.

SAN FRANCISCO, 21.—The U. S. revenue cutter Richard Rush arrived yesterday evening from Oun-alaska. Her commander, Geo. W. Bailey, was lost overboard on the 16th inst., during a heavy gale off Cape Flattery. He had been suffering from a bilious attack on the trip down the coast, though not confined to his bed. His cabin opened directly on the after part of the poop deck. Captain Bailey came on deck at one bell of the morning watch, spoke to the officer on deck, and was not seen afterwards. His cabin being found empty in the morning, it is supposed he was thrown overboard by a lurch of the vessel while standing near the rails. The cutter brings the news that winter is settling down in the arctic regions and promises to be a severe one.

A Tucson dispatch says: Advice from Mesilla by mail say, among those killed by the Indians in New Mexico is W. C. Hinds, United States collector. A large body of Indians are reported concentrating between Colorado and Hillsboro. It is currently reported that a company of Indian scouts have deserted our forces and joined the enemy.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, 20.—King Alfonso has subscribed 50,000 francs for the relief of the sufferers and Princess Asterias 5,000. The bank of Spain collected 60,000 francs for the same purpose.

A dispatch from Dublin says: Signs of improvement in the condition of the country are becoming more apparent daily, and favorable accounts of the harvest are being received from all parts.

At the anti-land rent meeting at Newport, County of Mayo, Sunday, 50,000 persons attended. The released Fenian, Michael Davitt was present. Resolutions calling for the abatement of rents passed.

The Swedish Arctic exploring steamer Vega, with Prof. Nordenskjold on board, arrived at Kobe on the 14th inst.

The German foreign office, on being questioned concerning the reported alliance between Austria and Germany, has given an explicit answer that there is no formal alliance, but a perfect harmony of views and general understanding. There is good reason for believing that the Emperor William refused his assent to any policy which might place Germany in direct antagonism to Russia.
