

GEN. CHAFFEE IS PLACED IN CHARGE.

Minister Conger Needs Rest—Allied Forces May be Besieged in Peking—A Troublous Outlook.

MAJOR GENERAL CHAFFEE'S LATEST PICTURE AND STREET SCENE IN PEKING.

New York, Aug. 22.—A special to the World from Washington says: The war department sent General Chaffee a cablegram of four words late this afternoon, which practically takes things out of Minister Conger's hands and puts General Chaffee in the position of the utmost responsibility.

The message said: "Report operations, situation, requirements." "There is no intention of deprecating Minister Conger; the government has the liveliest sense of gratitude for him; but it is not deemed expedient to act as his dispatches, because after his terrible experience, he is naturally embittered and possibly unconsciously biased, and because he needs and deserves a rest."

It is proposed to have Mr. Conger come home at the first opportunity and enjoy a long period of rest and recuperation.

DYNAMITED THE WALLS. New York, Aug. 22.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says: Some more particulars are published of the attack on Peking by the allies. The Shanghai correspondent of the Mail says that the walls were blown up with dynamite.

Fears are entertained lest the communications of the allies in Peking with the French troops now on their way to the Far East will not go to Peking, but will be disembarked in Tientsin.

The reply of the United States government to the offer of Li Hung Chang to negotiate, undoubtedly, says the Times, represents the position which all the powers concerned have agreed to take up.

WORRYING ABOUT THE ALLIED FORCES. New York, Aug. 22.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says: There is again a revival of something like pessimism in official and political circles here, or in the scanty remnants left of them in London by the ravages of the holiday season. After the exhilaration caused by the first news of the entry of the allies into Peking there is some reason.

The cessation of direct communication with the allied commanders at the front is not at all liked, nor does Admiral Bruen's telegram, stating that the French City was entered on the 21st, do much to console the doubters.

It is pointed out that the admiral does not place it on the ground that he has heard his news officially from General Chaffee, but only gives it on the authority of the reports current at Tientsin, and we know by this time what reports in Chinese towns are worthy of credence, even if the authentic news is four days old—and much may have happened since then—the silence of the wireless lends color to a Shanghai statement that the wires to Tientsin are cut, and may also help to explain the hurried march of the German and Russian reinforcements to Peking.

MAY BE IN A TRAP. Assuming that even the sacred city and the palace are captured, the difficulties of the allies are by no means at

HE ADVISED BOERS. English M. P. Wanted them to Accept a Commission.

London, Aug. 21.—Truth tomorrow will publish correspondence advising that a compromising letter from Montagu White, former consul-general of the South African Republic in London, to Secretary of State Balfour, dated August 1, 1900, and two letters from Henry Labouchere to Henry White, dated respectively August 2, 1899, and August 4, 1900, which Mr. White appears to have included to Secretary Balfour, and a letter of Joseph Chamberlain, the secretary of state for the colonies, inviting Mr. Labouchere to offer explanations of his observations thereon, and Mr. Labouchere's reply, Mr. Labouchere's letters are brief, and amount to advice to the Transvaal to gain the acceptance of the proposed commission to settle the franchise questions, etc., together with an expression of opinion from Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the liberal leader in the house of commons, and the liberal generally, that the British cabinet proposed the appointment of a commission with the view of giving Mr. Chamberlain a chance to "climb down," and that the cabinet was determined to have no war. He also said: "The president had a great opportunity to give Joe another fall. The great thing is to gain time. In a few months we shall be howling about something like Manchuria, and the world."

Mr. Labouchere's reply to Mr. Chamberlain admits the letters are genuine, but declines to recognize Mr. Chamberlain's "pretensions" to ask for an explanation on a matter concerning which he is "only responsible to parliament and my constituents," and invites Mr. Chamberlain, in pursuance of his "new diplomacy," to publish all the correspondence between the colonial office and the governors of Natal and Cape Colony, and between the governors and military commanders in South Africa, so that they may be able to form a just opinion on the whole business, including the inadequate preparations, and also especially the "Hawick correspondence."

R. A. Hawick was counsel for the British South Africa company at the time of the Johannesburg raid, and was generally supposed to have been well posted on all matters connected with it. The independence of the Johannesburg raid, published a number of letters to and from Mr. Chamberlain, purporting to show that Mr. Chamberlain was an accomplice in the Johannesburg raid, but other and more important letters were to be published, they purchased at the time that the disclosures did not prove Mr. Chamberlain's complicity in the raid, but demonstrated his complicity in the efforts made afterwards to stifle the matter.

Arbuckle's Coffee Scheme. New York, Aug. 22.—Considerable surprise was shown in lower Wall street as a result of the announcement of the Arbuckle that they would pay their customers one-half cent per pound additional rebate on all coffee purchased from them that shall be 10 per cent or more in excess of pounds of amount purchased in the year ended July 1. This is supposed to indicate the trouble over coffee is likely to be renewed at any time.

American Sugar Refining Company recently began allowing an extra 1 per cent discount to their customers who buy in large quantities. This is said to be done to offset the extra 1 per cent allowed by the Arbuckle to wholesalers on sugar and in retaliation the Arbuckle have made the announcement regarding purchases of coffee.

Arbuckle Brothers and the Woolson Spice Company have both reduced their quotations on package coffee half cent per pound.

C. P. Huntington's Will. New York, Aug. 22.—Chas. W. Tweed, general counsel and second vice president of the Southern Pacific railroad, discussing the will of C. P. Huntington, said:

"We expect now that the will will be made public by Wednesday afternoon, or if not then, on Thursday morning. There are a number of matters of importance which we have been already looking at for some time, but they will not be in shape until Wednesday or Thursday."

"There is nothing to say yet about the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Huntington, except that we all put our shoulders to the wheel, as we sometimes say, and keep things going as they were before we lost Mr. Huntington."

A Refrigerator Question. New York, Aug. 22.—Judge Somerville, in an opinion handed down for the board of classification of the United States general appraisers, says that it is more than doubtful whether a refrigerator plant could be considered a part of a ship's equipment, especially as it was not a part of the property of the owners of the vessel nor was it leased by the owners.

The Swift Beef company, limited, entered into a contract with the Atlantic transport line for the right to occupy certain space on the steamer Marquette. While the vessel was at London, the Swift company started to install a refrigerator plant, but the vessel had to sail before the work was completed. The first of the materials for the plant was sent over on the Marquette, arriving at this port before the vessel sailed. The collector assessed the duty on the materials imported on the Marquette, and the importing company filed a protest, claiming that the merchandise should come in free as part of the vessel's equipment. The protest was overruled.

ANOTHER CHICAGO STRIKE. Union Men Propose to Make It a Big Affair.

Still Think They Can Defeat the Building Trades Contractors in the Long Contest.

Chicago, Aug. 22.—Unless the plans of the leaders miscarry, every union man connected with the Building Trades Council will be called out on strike before Labor Day. The plumbers have already been ordered out, and it is the intention that all other unions, whose men are working, shall follow suit. Owing to increased activity in the building trades within the last few days, many union men have been put to work in some places with the consent of the business agents, and it is the purpose of the unions to stop the work wherever they believe they have a chance to win. The business agent of one of the largest unions said:

"Contractors have come to believe that it is comparatively easy sailing for them now and accordingly have been undertaking some large jobs with the idea there would be no further trouble from the unions. They will find to their disgust that many of the men whom they supposed to be non-union men have become members of the unions, and they will simply be unable to do any work. It is the only thing that is left the unions unless they propose to give up their fight. The idea of helping the contractors along in their jobs has been a mistake, which is generally recognized now, and they will find there is a lot of fight left among the men yet."

COFFEE AND HEART DISEASE. Slowly and Surely Affects the Heart's Action.

"My heart seemed to be jumping out of my body one morning after I had used some coffee, without cream or sugar,—for I had been told that coffee would not hurt me if used that way. We were all greatly frightened at the serious condition of my heart until I remembered that it might be from the coffee."

"So when the trouble passed off, I concluded never to use coffee again. It had hurt me greatly, used in the ordinary way with cream and sugar, but I had hoped that it would be less harmful without the cream and sugar, but the result was no better."

"Since that time we have been using Postum Cereal Food, and my heart has never troubled me at all. We are all delighted with the Postum because we know how to make it and know how valuable it is as a health beverage."

"In speaking to a friend lately about Postum Cereal, he said he did not like it. I found the reason was that it had not been made properly. After I told him to take four heaping teaspoons of Postum to a cup of water and let it boil half fifteen minutes after the real boiling started, he was greatly delighted with it and has been using it since and has been very much better in health. You may truly say, Mrs. L. S. Montgomery, 1215 G St., N. W., Washington, D. C."

APPEALS TO THE BRITISH CONSUL.

Negro Injured in the New York Race Riots.

HE IS A BRITISH SUBJECT.

Was Beaten by White Mob and Hit-treated by Police, and Now Seeks Redress.

New York, Aug. 22.—His Herald says: International complications may follow the negro riots. Alfred Atkins, a British subject, who was one of the victims of mob and later of police outrages, has appealed to the British consul for redress.

Atkins is a parlor car porter, and while he was on his way to his home from the Grand Central station, ignorant of the race war then going on, he was beaten and almost killed by whites. He was rescued by policemen, but barely escaped even a thorough treatment at the hands of the police.

Atkins is about 30 years old and a native of Kingston, Jamaica. He is employed by the New York, New Haven and Hartford road. He described his experience yesterday.

"I arrived at the Grand Central station about 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, August 15, from the White Mountain. I had not heard of the riot then going on, and I started for my home. I got to Forty-first street, where a mob of white men seized me, crying out, 'There's another of the black devils.' They knocked me down. I got up and ran north to Forty-third street, but they followed me all the way. They caught me and dragged me back to Forty-first street. Somebody told a policeman that I was innocent and he took me away from there and into a store where they called me a mob and my wounds were dressed. My face was badly cut and my right eye was swollen shut. Then they started to take me to the police station, and on the way the mob was stopped for half an hour near Ninth avenue. A mob surrounded it and men set on me, the police offering no objection."

"I was kept at the police station until 1 o'clock in the morning, when they said there was no charge against me and told me to go with half a dozen other negroes. There was a mob still outside the station, and I begged to be allowed to remain. They let me go until 4 o'clock, when Captain Conney came and ordered me and several others out. I was the last to leave the station, and he said to me: 'I hope the police will catch you before you get home, and beat you to death.' It was raining then and the mob had scattered. I was not molested on the way home."

Atkins has been under treatment since then at the New York hospital. He called on the British consul, who said he would investigate his case.

C. Clive-Bayley, who is British acting consul-general during the absence in Europe of Percy Henderson, said that Atkins had called on him and he was a British subject and that he had been clubbed without cause during the riots. He was told to have his complaint put in a legal form. Clive-Bayley told Atkins to come back after he was better and he would consider his case.

CAPT. WILSON DEAD. Was a Survivor of the Grinnell Arctic Expedition.

New York, Aug. 22.—Captain John Wall Wilson, who was one of the two survivors of the second Grinnell Arctic expedition, is dead at St. John's hospital, Brooklyn, from the effect of an operation for appendicitis performed eight months ago. The operation was successful, but he had been suffering from the disease since he was taken to the hospital. He was 49 years of age. He won fame as the navigator of Dr. Kane's expedition into the far North. The object of the expedition was the relief of St. John's Franklin.

The party left the Brooklyn navy yard in 1858. After three years' suffering at Etah and other points in northern Greenland, they were themselves rescued.

Captain Wilson took part in no other northern expeditions, but his interest in the expedition of the far North, since the days of his suffering, been keen. He was one of the oldest members of the Arctic club.

For gallantry during the early part of the civil war, Captain Wilson was given the commission which he held until 1865, when he resigned from the navy. He was a graduate of the naval academy at Annapolis and was with Admiral Farragut in his attack upon New Orleans.

Upon his resignation from the navy Captain Wilson became interested in commercial enterprises, which occupied his attention until his death.

Men for the Navy. New York, Aug. 22.—The navy department's new method of obtaining men for the navy service, originated by Captain Henry C. Taylor, seems to be very efficient.

The tug Fortune returned yesterday morning from Albany, where for two weeks she has been recruiting landsmen for the navy. Many recruits were reported aboard the Fortune. The men have been placed on the receiving ship, Vermont. On Thursday morning the Fortune will proceed to New Haven, New London and Norfolk, where advertisements have been inserted in the newspapers announcing that recruits are desired.

In this manner able-bodied farmers and other landsmen are recruited for the navy who would not be secured otherwise. It is thought that a number of able-bodied men may be enlisted near New Haven. Lieut. S. W. Montgomery is in charge of the Fortune.

Coal and Petroleum Find. Astoria, Ore., Aug. 22.—Several prominent Astoria business men have secured a lease of 4,500 acres of land at Knappa, near Astoria, and last night disclosed the fact that experts have declared it a very valuable coal and petroleum field. A company has been organized, and development will begin immediately.

Important Re-Appraisement. New York, Aug. 22.—An important re-appraisement case has been settled by the United States general appraisers on an importation of Swiss artificial musk, heavy advances being sustained. The goods were imported from E. H. Bordin, of Basle, Switzerland, and entered an artificial musk at 30 francs per kilo. Customs officials at this port advanced the goods to 19,000 francs per kilo, which advance was sustained by General Appraiser Jewell. Constable and Brown, attorneys for the importers, appealed the case for re-appraisal to the full board of general appraisers.

Mr. Brown, attorney for the importers, speaking of the matter said: "The case in question arose through a test importation by Geo. Luender and Co., made for the purpose of securing a value for the Swiss artificial musk, and they were confident that the ultimate decision would be in their favor. They came to understand why the government should pay much attention to the representations of the foreign house, as against the much indications of the ordinary market value of artificial musk in Switzerland. In my opinion the price of 19,000 francs per kilo for Swiss artificial musk is a very small fraction of its value."

The matter is of considerable importance to the trade, as artificial musk could be extensively used in the manufacture of perfumes if it could be bought at a reasonable price.

M. D. Whitman, holder of the championship, beat W. A. R. Larned, (challenge), 6-4, 6-2, 6-2.

Mr. Bryan's Speech Finished. Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 21.—Mr. Bryan today completed his speech to be delivered in Topeka Thursday in response to the ratification of the Populist nomination. The speech is about 4,000 words in length and deals largely with the trust question. Mr. Bryan also considers at some length the prosperity contention of the Republicans. He again presents imperialism as the paramount issue and gives some figures to show the burdens which he claims militarism will impose.

Tourists to Paris Stranded. New York, Aug. 21.—A dispatch to the Times from Paris says:

With reference to the stranded American tourists, Mr. Crawford declares he has done his best for them but they will be finally compensated. He admits that both hotel and railway coupons were in many cases invalid, and that the tourists had a great deal of trouble in securing until their steamer sails. Nor does he deny that many tourists from Switzerland had come to Paris in classes—that is, with emigrant tickets paid for by themselves.

In an interview, Dr. Hill of Salem, a trustee of the Christian Endeavor society, attempts to minimize the importance of the affair, but admits that $80,000 was tied up, that the railway coupons were of date, and that the tourist agency has been compelled to refuse aid to the tourists.

The Yontse Case. Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 21.—Col. R. W. Nelson, on behalf of Henry Yontse, charged with complicity in the Goebel murder, concluded his speech in the seventh district, in session here today, received written letters from Claude Duval and L. P. Campbell, respectively Democrat and Populist candidates for Congress, withdrawing from the contest. The letters came in response to a resolution of the committee calling upon both candidates to retire so that harmonious fusion might be made.

The committee at once called a convention to meet here in September to nominate a fusion candidate. Friends of Jerry Simpson are at work, and it is asserted that the ex-congressman will be a candidate before the convention.

Guard for the President. Chicago, Aug. 21.—The skirmish line of the G. A. R., which will hold its annual encampment here next week, has made its appearance. It is a very thin line, however, made up principally of agents of various posts who wanted a man on the ground early to see to accommodations. Among today's arrivals was Col. R. H. Green, commander of the G. A. R. in Arizona. He declared that the country great interest was taken in the encampment.

Chief of Police Kinley has detailed a guard of seventy-five men to guard the presidential party. There will be a bodyguard of detectives in plain clothes whose duty it will be to remain always within hearing distance of the President, and so far as possible, to be out of the carriage. Uniformed mounted police will also be on hand in case of an emergency.

Bryan Wants Republican Votes. Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 21.—Mr. Bryan addressed a large audience of Saunders county people at Wahon, the county seat, this morning. DANGER OF PROTESTANTISM. Pope Writes Against Its Promulgation in Rome.

Rome, Aug. 21.—The pope has addressed a letter to the cardinal vicar, in which he sets forth the danger of the free propaganda of Protestantism in Italy and especially in Rome. He observes that this propaganda is permissible by law, but goes on to show how painful to him is the situation resulting from it, since he cannot oppose the propaganda.

Two recommendations that the cardinal vicar strengthen the work of restoring the faith, and he exhorts Catholics to unite in an effort to minimize as far as possible the damage caused by sectarian propaganda.

Found Guilty in Pretoria. Pretoria, Tuesday, Aug. 21.—The trial of Laet. Italian Detectives Coming. New York, Aug. 22.—A dispatch to the Journal and Advertiser from Rome, says:

A staff of Italian detectives will be sent to this country. The foreign budget appropriates $50,000 for this secret service.

Von Buelow Is in Danger. New York, Aug. 22.—A dispatch to the Journal and Advertiser from Berlin says:

Count Von Buelow's position as minister of foreign affairs for the empire has been so seriously shaken by his differences with the Kaiser over the China matters, that it has led the emperor to take the direction of the Chinese matters out of the count's hands and assume personal control thereof himself—that the downfall of the statesman is regarded here as imminent.

An Embroidery Stitch. New York, Aug. 22.—James Du Bois, consul-general to Switzerland, has arrived here to consult with the appraisers' departments at this port relative to the stitch count on St. Gall embroidery.

When questioned regarding the date set for a conference with the appraising officers, Mr. Du Bois said:

"No actual time has been set for the conference. With regard to my views on the subject, I have not as yet submitted them to Washington, and it would be discourteous on the matter before having done so. I can say, however, that I shall, at the conference, recommend that the 'stitch count regulations' which have been adopted at St. Gall, consisting of the following changes:

The 'Festoon' stitch to be counted as one stitch and not as one and a half as formerly, and the 'Tuck' stitch as one-half and not a full stitch, this being the way the stitchers at St. Gall receive payment for their work."
