BIG BUILDING.

Modern Business Block Will be Erected Upon the Site-Palatial Quarters for Bank.

The erection or a ten-story building on one of the best business corners of his city is upon the cards with the advent of spring.

The initial step in this direction was taken yesterday afternoon when J. A. Murray of Butte, a director in the Nafonal Bank of the Republic, purchased one-half interest in the White house block on the corner of Flast Temple street and Second South, For the conderation of $75,000 Mr. Murray became he pussessor of the interest in the proprty heretofore held by Ezra J. Travis. he property has a frontage of 4614 et on East Temple street, and 116 on known mining men of Bingham. In lon to the bank, E. Mulford, pro-or of the White house, has a two year's lease on the hotel, while the Chicago Northwestern possesses a five-year lease upon the spacious office upon the ground floor facing East Temple

With the acquisition of the property it with the acquisition of the property it is the intention of the holders to erect in the near future a modern ten-story ire-proof building, fitted throughout with all the latest conveniences and ydraulic swift running elevators. Mr. know when seen this morning did not are to be queted upon the subject, but I the same time he admitted that the section of a ten-story building upon s present site of the bank was serious. contemplated, and that it would un-ubtedly be built in the near future. The National Bank of the Republic grown with the times and its pres-quarters are inadequate to accomthe business that is transacted ure, as the consequence enlarged arters have been urged for some time at with the result above named. The will occupy the entire ground floor e new building, and will be furshed sumptuously in a manner com-

Mr. Murray is an influential financier f Butte, and has abiding faith in the sture that lies before Salt Lake City oth as an ideal residence and commerial center of the semi-developed region that hes between here and the coast. Taken all in all the moneyed men of the neighboring States in general, and perhaps Montana in particular are curning their eyes toward Utah as a blace wherein to invest their capital. A well-known business man in this city ils morning expressed himself to the feet that with the advent of the Burington and the road through to south-in California that the building trades this city would see such a spurt in the erection of buildings here that the boom of '89 and '90 would sink out of

AGED CITIZEN PASSES AWAY William Jarvis Closes His Venerable Years at Home of His Daughter.

William Jarvis died at the venerable age of 93 years yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mary Ann Walsh, 673 Third street. His demise occurred very suddenly, presumably while in the act of getting up from his bed as some of his clothes were in his hands when discovered by his daughter. His death was a shock to his family as he had been in a hale condition for some time except a slight cold, which seemed to give him very little trouble.

Mr. Jarvis was born in Stockport,

England, and in his early manhood was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. About thirty-nine years ago he emigrated to America and settled at Altoona, Pennsylvania, where he has a son now liv ing. He lived in Atloona until about six years ago, when he came on to Utah. While in Pennsylvania he be-came estranged from the Church and identified himself with the Episcopal church, serving that organization as a deacon. He lived in the home of Bishop Allan Sheldon of the Episcopal church, Soon after coming to Utah, however, he was rebaptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and remained a faithful member of that body up to the time of his death. He had a family of seven children only two of whom are now liv-ing. His daughter, Mrs. Walsh, who is 66 years of age, and bis son, William, who is living at Altoona. He leaves twelve grandchildren and a score or more of great grandchildren.

ENGAGED TO BE MARRIED.

Intrusted Four Years' Earnings to His Girl-Garnishment Cases Heard Before Judge Cherry.

A novel suit has been filed in the days Third district court by John Gottfried Lofgren against Gerda Elarch, a young woman whom he was at one time engaged to marry, and Emma E. Elarth, the latter's mother, to recover the sum 43,000, which, the complaint alleges, plaintiff was duped out of by the mother and daughter. Lofgren says that during Christmas, 1894, he became engaged to Miss Gerda, but not being well | gin taking it now, for it will keep you fixed financially he was advised by his girl and her mother to put off the wedding until he had sayed enough money to support a wife in comfort. Lofgren says he accepted the suggestion, and be ing a mechanic, earning $125 per month he was able to set aside considerate each month. He went, he says, to W oming to work, and sent all his saving so that by August, 1898, he had fo warded her in all $3,000. He frequent wrote her from Wyoming, and ofte urged her to name the day when she would leave her happy home for him The young woman, Lofgren says, al ways had an excuse, and put him of and off until August 23, 1898, when she broke off the engagement altoge He then asked for his money back, goes on to say that Gorda and her Schlatter, but did not see the is crend doctor lately heeling himself here, have gage, and with another $400 bought a plece of real property.

He winds up by declaring that Gerda never intended to marry him, and he asks for an accounting, judgment for the amount found owing him and that he be given a lien on the real estate purchased by his alleged was-to-havebeen mother-in-law.
