A Famous Suft Decided.

Louisville, Ky., 7.—The famous domestic tragedy-suit, commonly known as "The Newcomb Case," was decided to-day, by Chancellor Bruce, in favor of the plaintiff. The case is briefly this—In 1838 W. D. Newcomb married Mrs. Cornell Read in this city; Mrs. Newcomb became insane and was put in a hospital by her husband, though never adjudged insane. In 1872 the Kentucky legislature passed a law declaring that ground of divorce existed in that the husband or wife existed in that the husband or wife is incurably insane, such insanity not being hereditary and not made known at the time of the marriage. Under this act Newcomb got a divorce and subsequently married and had two children. In 1874 he died, leaving a large estate, which he disposed of by will. The friends of the first wife, however, instituted a suit for the property, on the grounds that she had never been legally divorced. The case has been in the courts over two years. The decision holds that the divorce was absolutely void, and decrees to the first wife her property rights as the widow of Newcomb. The estate is worth a million and a half. Unis worth a million and a half. Under the statute of Kentucky the children of the second marriage are not illegitimate.

Someral Schooled be Removed?

NEW YORK, 7.—The Herald's Washington special says the investigation at the League Island Navy Yard commences to-morrow. The House committee on naval affairs left to-day for Philadelphis. Fifty witnesses have been subpossed so far. The committee will amonstrate general mismanagement, frauds in contracts, negligance of officers, employment of extra hands at election time, etc., but their specific object will be the circumstances attending the removal of the old navy yard to League Island by Nathaniel Maskey, against whom are charges of gross frauds. Mackey will be the first vitness. The whole investigation, it is expected, will show flagrant mads, and that the officers were intimidated into silence or sent to sea.

A proposition to transfer Major General Schofield to West Point, and make him superintendent of that institution, is being discussed at army headquarters. It is felt that a higher rank officer should be there because of the dignity of the station, and the necessity of extending courtesies to visiting magnates.

The facts about Robeson's mode of transacting Government business abroad came into the peacession of the committe in a peculiar way, Beebe, the chairman, heard from a Wall Street banker that certain drafts made on Selegman Broa., London, and accepted by the Secretary of the Navy, were offered for ale in the New York market, and that nobody was anxious to buy, and some indignation was expressed that the Government credit was injured in the market. The arrangement with the Selegmans is that they pay the Government four percent, on deposits, while the Government pays the Selegmans five percent, on all drafts made on the firm. It is stated that the Selegmans have been in the habit of immediately putting time acceptances on the market, realizing therefrom ready, money in addition to The facts about Robeson's mode ces on the market, realizing therefrom ready money in addition to
