A Blow .- Farmington had one of her old fashioned blows on Tuesday Tabernacle Choir for the joint benefit evening. There was no particular damage to buildings, but truit trees were broken down, tipped over and knocked about promisenously. Our informant general comfort. This circumstance, as Brother Jacob Miller.

School Charts .- Mr L. R. Mutchi Western agent for the complete school charts of Iveson, Blakeman, Taylor & Co., of New York and Chicago, has an advertisement which may be seen elsewhere in these columns. We have examined these charts, which treat tersely and clearly of Phonics, Penmanship, Drawing, Arithmetic, Geography, U.S. History and U.S. Civil Government, and consider them excellent and just the thing for common schools. They are made of manilla fibre and are evidently very durable.

Gerster .- The New York Evening Telegram says of this talented lady, who appears with the Mapleson Opera company on the 6th of March, at the Salt Lake Theatre:

happily and well.

Arrested for Extortion. - The Grand Jury, last week, brought in an indictment against P. J. Gorman and C. B. Whiting, charged with the crime of extorting money. The indictment is as follows: The said P. J. Gorman and C. B. Whiting, on November 12th, 1883, unlawfully and felonlously, did make threats to accuse one Simon Grieve, Jr., of the crime of larceny, and did then and there, by fear and threats, extort and obtain from said Simon Grieve money to the amount of $100. Both Gorman and Whiting were arraigned yesterday and plead not guilty: They were held for trial in bonds of $500 each.
