CROKER VICTIM OF NARCOTIC POISONING

After Considering All the Facts in The Case, Such is Verdict of The Coroner's Jury.

MANNER OF TAKING UNKNOWN.

Charles Wilson, Coates House Negro Porter, Put Through Another Severe Examination.

HE TOLD A VERY STRAIGHT STORY

A Saloon Was Visited First and Then An Opium Joint—Chinaman Arrested.

Newton, Kas., May 13.—The coroner's jury in the case of Herbert V. Croker brought in the following verdict at 10:30 today:

"We find upon our oaths that said Herbert V. Croker came to his death on May 12, 1905, on Santa Fe train No. 35, while between Kansas City, Mo., and Newton, Kas., from the effects of narcotic poisoning, taken into his system at Kansas City, Mo., before boarding said train, by means and manner unknown to this jury."

CAUSE OF DEATH.

Kansas City, Mo., May 13.—The death of Herbert V. Croker on a train between Kansas City and Newton, Kan., yesterday was due to over indulgence in whisky and opium, according to Chief of Police Hayes of this city, who made this statement today, after making a thorough investigation of the young New Yorker's movements here on Thursday.

As a result of the work of the detectives here since yesterday, Charles Wilson, the negro hotel porter who placed Croker on the south bound train, to train on which he died; Ah Lee, a Chinaman, who sold Croker opium at his place in the north end, and Ah Chee, a Chinese inmate of Lee's place, are under arrest.

The stories of all three told to the police today were the same, to the effect that Croker had gone to the Chinaman's place of his own free will to smoke opium.

Lee told the police that he had given Croker five opium pills, and that the latter had smoked three of those. He told the same story, Wilson declared that his only connection with the case was in placing Croker at the New Yorker's request to the opium den, to several saloons and to the railway station. Chief Hayes says he believes the story told by Wilson to be true and that he is confident that neither the Chinaman nor the two Chinese are criminally responsible for Croker's death.

INTEREST CENTERED IN WILSON.

Kansas City, Mo., May 13.—Local interest in the mysterious death on a train between Kansas City and Newton, Kan., of Herbert V. Croker, son of Richard Croker of New York City, centered today around Charles Wilson, the Coates house negro porter, who placed the young New Yorker on the train for the south on Thursday night.

Wilson, who is 30 years old, was arrested after midnight and held pending investigation.

Although Wilson was frank in all his admissions to the police and told a connected story that fitted in closely with all they had learned about the case from other sources, it was necessary to put him through another severe examination today.

In the meantime, two dozen detectives continued to work on the case in an endeavor to gain any evidence that would throw further light upon Croker's movements while in Kansas City.

Wilson was examined by Chief of Police John Hayes today nothing new was learned from him, but following the examination an officer was sent out to bring in Ah Lee, the Chinaman, whose place Wilson said he had conducted Croker on Thursday night and where, it was asserted, he had smoked opium.

HOW WILSON MET CROKER.

Wilson told how he had met Croker in the bar room of the Coates house, one of the leading hostilities in the city, where the negro was employed as porter. Croker, Wilson said, asked him at 5:30 Thursday evening, "where he could have a little fun." Wilson had told him of an opium den in the north end and offered to conduct him to the place after 8 o'clock, when he would be on duty at the hotel. Croker had waited until that time, and then had gone to the opium den, where he had smoked three pills. Croker had then gone to a saloon at Fourth and Broadway. There Wilson suggested that if Croker had any money he had better give it to the bartender for safe keeping. Before he did so, Croker gave the bartender $20, saying it was all he had except some change, and the bartender placed the money in an envelope in the safe.

From Croker's saloon the two men went to Lee's place above a saloon in West Sixth street, four blocks away. There Lee had conducted Croker to a couch, and Wilson had gone down stairs to wait until Croker had had a smoke.

Croker had requested Wilson to be sure and wait for him. Wilson had played cards in the saloon below with some negroes for about an hour, when Croker called into the room.

"It was a little untidy," said Wilson, "but he talked well. He told me that he had to catch a train for Kansas, and that we had better go. We went to Croker's saloon and secured Croker's money and a cane which he had checked at the hotel. The train started soon and I jumped off."

WHAT CHIEF HAYES SAYS.

After the examination of Wilson,

Chief Hayes gave it as his opinion that Croker had died from the effect of smoking the opium too fast. "It was not a short time before train time," said Chief Hayes, "and evidently in his endeavor to make the best of the time, took the drug too fast."

It was practically with that statement, and with no other, that the coroner's jury in any way criminally with the death of Croker. We shall hold Wilson, however, for further investigation, and to be used as a witness against Lee."

Ah Lee, the Chinaman, was arrested and brought to Central station today. He was questioned closely and told a story that bore out the statements made by Wilson regarding the visit of the two men to his place. Lee told Croker had smoked five pills of opium, but insisted that when he left the place Croker, although a little unsteady, was capable of taking care of himself. Both Wilson and Lee were placed in cells.

BARTENDER QUESTIONED.

The bartender at Croker's saloon, questioned by the police, told the coroner's story of Croker's visit to his place as related by Wilson. The bartender was not arrested and would not be, the chief said.

In a telephone conversation this morning the coroner at Newton, Kan., informed the Associated Press that the body of Mr. Croker had been embalmed early today upon instructions from Richard Croker, Jr., at New York, and that no autopsy would be held at Newton.

At Newton, Kan., where the body of Croker is being held, the coroner's jury which has just begun an inquiry into the cause of his death, continued its investigation today. Last night the conductor, brakeman and porter of the Santa Fe train on which Croker died had given their testimony. This story tallied practically with that already known. The conductor, however, had testified that there was no smell of liquor about Croker when he found him dead in the chair, and the coroner today paid particular attention to this phase, in an endeavor to determine whether or not Croker had died from poison or from the effects of being drugged.

C. H. Northrup, the undertaker who prepared the body of Croker, testified that he found on bruises and as far as he knew there were no traces of poisoning.

Other members of the train crew testified again as to seeing Croker on the train between Kansas City and Newton, but nothing new was elicited from them.

Later, in talking with the Associated Press, Chief of Police Hayes gave it as his opinion that Croker had been drugged. Richard Croker, Jr., is expected to arrive here tonight. The body will be held until his arrival.

AT THE CROKER HOME.

New York, May 13.—News of the sudden death of Herbert Croker, son of Richard Croker, was received in this city today by many persons. He was the oldest brother, Richard, Jr., and his mother at their home. The Croker home tonight was plunged into deepest gloom. Herbert Croker left this city a few days ago to take a vacation on a friend's ranch in Oklahoma. It is understood he had been in ill health at the time of his departure.

A cablegram was sent to his father in Ireland. This is the second death in the family, Frank Croker having died in 1901, and his mother in 1902. He was a member of the family of Lewis Nixon at Elizabethport, N. J.

KUROPATKIN CRITICIZES PLAN OF MOBILIZATION.

Gadagayandana, Manchuria, May 13.—Gen. Kuropatkin, in conversation with the Associated Press, has criticized the system of mobilization and the forward movement of reinforcements, claiming that better results would be obtained by completing the units at present in the field than by sending to the far east new corps. The general declared that the present plan of mobilization is undesirable of the reserves and has hindered the case of the Tenth corps, alleging that when it was mobilized instead of drafting the youngest reserves, who had been called into service, the oldest classes were chosen. He said further that when the Seventeenth corps arrived in Manchuria it had but a third of the proper complement of officers, and that many of these were very undesirable, having apparently been shipped off as a riddance. The general declared that the units already in the field in accordance with the experience of officers who had been called into service, he added, would affect a great saving in transportation, as a corps of 25,000 men with its baggage and trains required the same number of cars as three smaller units of the same rank of corps already in Manchuria.

Gen. Linvitch has instituted company and battalion drills to practise passing the winter and also of the Tenth corps, as well as marksmanship and other exercises to improve individual efficiency.

KNOCKERS AGAIN GETTING KNOCKED.

A traveling agent of the "News" writes as follows from Brigham City: "Why did you omit this district from your compilation of the circulation of Salt Lake papers in leading towns? The showing here is significant. The county commissioners, who have for years taken the Tribune, decided the other day they could stand it no longer, and ordered it stopped at expiration. The rural delivery here is no less interesting, being—'News' 62, Herald 4, Tribune 9."

A correspondent from Grantsville writes: "Grantsville has just been fumigated. The last copy of the Daily Tribune sent into the town has been knocked off by the store which took it."

AN EYE-OPENER FOR THE POWERS.

Japan's Willingness to Assume a Menacing Attitude Toward France So Regarded.

SERIOUS DANGER IS NOW OVER.

At Least for the Present—Committee Waits on Premier Incident to Discuss Neutrality Incident.

St. Petersburg, May 13.—The danger of serious complications over the question of French neutrality is regarded as over for the present. Throughout there has been a disposition to make allowance for the vexation and irritation manifested by Japan in the desire to safeguard her interests at a moment when the future of the war is staked upon the issue of the coming naval battle. Nevertheless, her willingness to assume a menacing attitude toward France upon the strength of the British ultimatum is regarded as being an eye-opener for the powers. Despite the provocative tone of the British press, however, the British government used its influence to calm the situation. It is believed that the British government will not resort to a course of action which would lead to a general war. The Japanese government, on the other hand, is believed to be in a position to make a strong stand in the event of a general war. ## TEAMSTERS' STRIKE LIKELY TO SPREAD.

Team-Owners' Association Has Not as Yet Abandoned Its Policy of Conciliation.

NON-UNION DRIVERS STONED

Crowds of School Children Declare They Will Not Attend School Next Monday.

Chicago, May 13.—Peter Doyle, of the Chicago Team-Owners' association, denied today that the association heretofore neutral in the teamsters' strike had definitely determined to abandon its conciliatory policy. It was reported that the members of four associations who have presented a neutral attitude thus far, have taken a positive stand and either a settlement of the present strike or a spread to far greater proportions is expected by the early part of next week. The team-owners' association held a conference after which President Shea was sent for and asked if he would permit his union teamsters to deliver goods for the teamsters to be boycotted houses. Upon the refusal of Shea it was announced that a committee of teamsters would go before the joint council, which is deemed a more conservative organization than the strike committee. Members of the Chicago Team-Owners' association, the Wisconsin Team-Owners' association, and the Lumbermen's association, were in the conference. The associations represented approximately $500,000 in teaming business. A report was made to the team-owners that they must make deliveries in order to live up to contracts. Officers of the teamsters' association and Peter Doyle also denied that the association had definitely determined to abandon conciliation. When the action of the owners was made known to Shea, he said to have responded, "We will win if they want to fight, let 'em come on. We can still call out every member of our union in the city and paralyze the transfer business of Chicago. I do not think it will be done, but we will do it rather than give up."

Sentiment among the teamsters, unofficially expressed today was that the strike had been called here by the owners' committee to secure permission from the teamsters' joint council to make deliveries to the boycotted houses.
