of faith. So it is with persons who have fallen away from what is called "Mormonism." They imagine BY that they have "outgrown" the ideas which were once a source of joy and strength to them, and that they have marched forward in the path of intellectual light and liberty.

They are all egregiously mistaken. The negations of the dis- sloner Spear, the present commisbalievers of to-day are the same as sioner of patents.
